- Some put their trust in chariots, and some in horses but we will remember the name of the Lord our God
- They are brought down and fallen but we are risen, and stand upright Ib 7
- Thou hast given him his heart's desire and hast not denied him the request of his lips Ib xxi 2.

He asked life of thee, and thou gavest him a long life even for ever and ever. Psalms xxi 4.

And imagined such a device as they are not able to perform Ib 11

My God, my God, look upon me, why hast thou forsaken me and art so far from my health, and the voice of my complaint?

Oh my God, I cry in the day-time, but thou hearest not and in the night-season also I take no rest And thou continuest holy O thou worship of Israel Ib xxii 1

But as for me, I am a worm, and no man Ib 6

All they that see me laugh me to scorn they shoot out their lips, and shake their heads, saying,

He trusted in God, that he would deliver him let him deliver him, if he will have him Ib 7

Many oxen are come about me fat bulls of Basan close me in on every side Ib 12

For many dogs are come about me Ib 16

They pierced my hands and my feet, I may tell all my bones they stand staring and looking upon me They part my garments among them and cast lots upon my vesture Ib 17

Deliver my soul from the sword my darling from the power of the dog

Save me from the lion's mouth thou hast heard me also from the horns of the unicorns Ib 20

For he hath not despised, nor abhorred, the low estate of the poor Ib 24

All they that go down into the dust shall kneel before him and no man hath quickened his own soul Ib. 30

The Lord is my shepherd therefore can I lack nothing

He shall feed me in a green pasture and lead me forth beside the waters of comfort

He shall convert my soul and bring me forth in the paths of righteousness, for his name's sake

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil for thou art with me, thy rod and thy staff comfort me

Thou shalt prepare a table before me against them that trouble me thou hast anointed my head with oil, and my cup shall be full.

But thy loving-kindness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever Ib xxiii

The earth is the Lord's, and all that therein is the compass of the world, and they that dwell therein Ib xxiv 1

Lift up your heads, O ye gates, and be ye lift up, ye everlasting doors and the King of Glory shall come in Ib 7

Who is the King of Glory: even the Lord of hosts, he is the King of Glory. Ib 10

O remember not the sins and offences of my youth Ib. xxv 6

The sorrows of my heart are enlarged. Ib 16

Deliver Israel, O God out of all his troubles. Ib. 21.

Examine me, O Lord, and prove me try out my reins and my heart Ib xxvi 2

I will wash my hands in innocency, O Lord and so will I go to thine altar Ib 6

Lord, I have loved the habitation of thy house and the place where thine honour dwelleth

O shut not up my soul with the sinners nor my life with the blood-thirsty Ib 8

The Lord is my light, and my salvation, whom then shall I fear the Lord is the strength of my life, of whom then shall I be afraid? Ib xxvii 1

When my father and my mother forsake me the Lord taketh me up Ib 12

I should utterly have fainted but that I believe verily to see the goodness of the Lord in the land of the living Ib 15

The voice of the Lord maketh the hinds to bring forth young, and discovereth the thick bushes Ib xxiv 8

The Lord sitteth above the water-flood and the Lord remaineth a King for ever Ib 9

Give thanks unto him for a remembrance of his holiness

For his wrath endureth but the twinkling of an eye, and in his pleasure is life heaviness may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning Ib xxx 4

What profit is there in my blood when I go down to the pit?

Shall the dust give thanks unto thee, or shall it declare thy truth? Ib 9

Into thy hands I commend my spirit Ib xxxi 6

But hast set my feet in a large room. Ib 9

I am clean forgotten as a dead man out of mind. Ib 14

Thanks be to the Lord for he hath shewed me marvellous great kindness in a strong city Ib 23

For while I held my tongue my bones consumed away through my daily complaining Ib xxxii 3

For this shall every one that is godly make his prayer unto thee, in a time when thou mayest be found but in the great water-floods they shall not come nigh him Ib. 7

Thou shalt compass me about with songs of deliverance Ib 8

Be ye not like to horse and mule, which have no understanding whose mouths must be held with bit and bridle, lest they fall upon thee Ib 10

Rejoice in the Lord, O ye righteous for it becometh well the just to be thankful

Praise the Lord with harp sing praises unto him with the lute, and instrument of ten strings

Sing unto the Lord a new song sing praises lustily unto him with a good courage Ib xxxiii 1

The Lord bringeth the counsel of the heathen to nought and maketh the devices of the people to be of none effect, and casteth out the counsels of princes Ib 10.

There is no king that can be saved by the multitude of an host neither is any mighty man delivered by much strength

A horse is counted but a vain thing to save a man neither shall he deliver any man by his great strength Psalms xxxiii 15

O taste, and see, how gracious the Lord is blessed is the man that trusteth in him

O fear the Lord, ye that are his saints for they that fear him lack nothing

The lions do lack, and suffer hunger but they who seek the Lord shall want no manner of thing that is good Ib xxxiv 8

What man is he that lusteth to live and would fain see good days? Ib 12

Eschew evil, and do good seek peace, and ensue it
Ib 14

Fret not thyself because of the ungodly Ib xxxvii 1

He shall make thy righteousness as clear as the light and thy just dealing as the noonday Ib

I have been young, and now am old and yet never saw I the righteous forsaken, nor his seed begging their bread Ib 25

I myself have seen the ungodly in great power and flourishing like a green bay-tree

I went by, and lo, he was gone I sought him, but his place could no where be found

Keep innocency, and take heed unto the thing that is right for that shall bring a man peace at the last
Ib 36

Lord, thou knowest all my desire and my groaning is not hid from thee Ib xxxviii 9

I held my tongue, and spake nothing I kept silence, yea, even from good words, but it was pain and grief to me

My heart was hot within me, and while I was thus musing the fire kindled, and at the last I spake with my tongue,

Lord, let me know mine end, and the number of my days that I may be certified how long I have to live Ib xxxix 3

Mine age is even as nothing in respect of thee and verily every man living is altogether vanity

For man walketh in a vain shadow, and disquieteth himself in vain he heapeth up riches, and cannot tell who shall gather them Ib 6

Thou makest his beauty to consume away, like as it were a moth fretting a garment every man therefore is but vanity Ib 12

For I am a stranger with thee and a sojourner, as all my fathers were

O spare me a little, that I may recover my strength before I go hence, and be no more seen Ib 14

I waited patiently for the Lord and he inclined unto me, and heard my calling

He brought me also out of the horrible pit, out of the mire and clay and set my feet upon the rock, and ordered my goings Ib. xl 1

Burnt-offerings, and sacrifice for sin, hast thou not required then said I, Lo, I come In the volume of the book it is written of me, that I should fulfil thy will, O my God Ib 9

Thou art my helper and redeemer make no long tarrying, O my God Ib 21

Yea, mine own familiar friend hath lifted up his heel against me Ib xli 9 [Bible Version]

Like as the hart desireth the water-brooks so longeth my soul after thee, O God Ib xlii 1.

Why art thou so full of heaviness, O my soul and why art thou so disquieted within me? Ib 6

The little hill of Hermon Ib 8

One deep calleth another, because of the noise of the water-pipes all thy waves and storms are gone over me Ib 9.

While mine enemies that trouble me cast me in the teeth Ib 12.

My heart is inditing of a good matter I speak of the things which I have made unto the King My tongue is the pen of a ready writer. Ib xlv. 1.

Gird thee with thy sword upon thy thigh, O thou most Mighty according to thy worship and renown

Good luck have thou with thine honour * ride on, because of the word of truth, of meekness, and righteousness, and thy right hand shall teach thee terrible things Ib 4

Kings' daughters were among thy honourable women upon thy right hand did stand the queen in a vesture of gold, wrought about with divers colours

Hearken, O daughter, and consider, incline thine ear forget also thine own people, and thy father's house

So shall the King have pleasure in thy beauty Ib 10

And the daughter of Tyre shall be there with a gift.
Ib 13.

The King's daughter is all glorious within her clothing is of wrought gold

She shall be brought unto the King in raiment of needlework the virgins that be her fellows shall bear her company, and shall be brought unto thee
Ib 14

Instead of thy fathers thou shalt have children whom thou mayest make princes in all lands Ib 17

God is our hope and strength a very present help in trouble

Therefore will we not fear, though the earth be moved and though the hills be carried into the midst of the sea Ib xlv. 1

God is in the midst of her, therefore shall she not be removed God shall help her, and that right early The heathen make much ado, and the kingdoms are moved but God hath shewed his voice, and the earth shall melt away Ib 5

He maketh wars to cease in all the world he breaketh the bow, and knappeth the spear in sunder, and burneth the chariots in the fire

Be still then, and know that I am God Ib 9

He shall subdue the people under us and the nations under our feet. Ib xlviii 3

God is gone up with a merry noise and the Lord with the sound of the trumpet. Ib 5

For God is the King of all the earth sing ye praises with understanding Psalms xlvii 7

For lo, the kings of the earth are gathered and gone by together

They marvelled to see such things they were astonished, and suddenly cast down. Ib xlviii 3

Thou shalt break the ships of the sea through the east-wind Ib 6

Walk about Sion, and go round about her and tell the towers thereof

Mark well her bulwarks, set up her houses that ye may tell them that come after

For this God is our God for ever and ever he shall be our guide unto death Ib 11

And yet they think that their houses shall continue for ever and that their dwelling-places shall endure from one generation to another, and call the lands after their own names Ib xlix 11

He shall follow the generation of his fathers and shall never see light

Man being in honour hath no understanding but is compared unto the beasts that perish Ib 19

For all the beasts of the forest are mine and so are the cattle upon a thousand hills Ib 1 10

Thinkest thou that I will eat bulls' flesh and drink the blood of goats? Ib 13

When thou sawest a thief, thou consentedst unto him and hast been partaker with the adulterers Ib 18

O consider this, ye that forget God Ib 22

For I acknowledge my faults and my sin is ever before me

Against thee only have I sinned, and done this evil in thy sight Ib li 3

Behold, I was shapen in wickedness, and in sin hath my mother conceived me

But lo, thou requestest truth in the inward parts and shalt make me to understand wisdom secretly

Thou shalt purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean thou shalt wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow

Thou shalt make me hear of joy and gladness that the bones which thou hast broken may rejoice Ib 5

Make me a clean heart, O God and renew a right spirit within me

Cast me not away from thy presence and take not thy holy spirit from me

O give me the comfort of thy help again and stablish me with thy free spirit

Then shall I teach thy ways unto the wicked and sinners shall be converted unto thee

Deliver me from blood-guiltiness, O God Ib 10

For thou desirest no sacrifice, else would I give it thee but thou delightest not in burnt-offerings

The sacrifice of God is a troubled spirit a broken and contrite heart, O God, shalt thou not despise

O be favourable and gracious unto Sion build thou the walls of Jerusalem Ib 16

Then shall they offer young bullocks upon thine altar
Ib 19

My guide, and mine own familiar friend We took sweet counsel together and walked in the house of God as friends Ib lv. 14

His words were smoother than oil and yet be they very words Ib 22.

All that they imagine is to do me evil They hold all together, and keep themselves close Ib lvi 5

Thou tellest my flittings, put my tears into thy bottle are not these things noted in thy book? Ib 8

For thou hast delivered my soul from death, and my feet from falling that I may walk before God in the light of the living Ib 13

Under the shadow of thy wings shall be my refuge, until this tyranny be overpast Ib lvii 1

God shall send forth his mercy and truth my soul is among lions

And I lie even among the children of men, that are set on fire whose teeth are spears and arrows, and their tongue a sharp sword

Set up thyself, O God, above the heavens and thy glory above all the earth

They have laid a net for my feet, and pressed down my soul they have digged a pit before me and are fallen into the midst of it themselves. Ib 4

Awake up, my glory, awake, lute and harp I myself will awake right early. Ib 9

Even like the deaf adder that stoppeth her ears Which refuseth to hear the voice of the charmer charm he never so wisely. Ib lviii 4

Let them consume away like a snail, and be like the untimely fruit of a woman and let them not see the sun

Or ever your pots be made hot with thorns so let indignation vex him, even as a thing that is raw
Ib 7

They grin like a dog, and run about through the city Ib lix 6

God hath spoken in his holiness, I will rejoice, and divide Sichem and mete out the valley of Succoth Gilead is mine, and Manasses is mine, Ephraim also is the strength of my head, Judah is my law-giver Moab is my wash-pot, over Edom will I cast out my shoe Philistia, be thou glad of me

Who will lead me into the strong city who will bring me into Edom? Ib lx 6

As for the children of men, they are but vanity the children of men are deceitful upon the weights they are altogether lighter than vanity itself

O trust not in wrong and robbery, give not yourselves unto vanity if riches increase, set not your heart upon them

God spake once, and twice I have also heard the same that power belongeth unto God,

And that thou, Lord, art merciful for thou rewardest every man according to his work Ib lxi 9

My soul thirsteth for thee, my flesh also longeth after thee in a barren and dry land where no water is Ib lxii 2

Have I not remembered thee in my bed and though upon thee when I was waking? Ib 7

Thou that hearest the prayer unto thee shall all flesh come Ib lxv 3

Thou that art the hope of all the ends of the earth, and of them that remain in the broad sea Who in his strength setteth fast the mountains . and is girded about with power Who stilleth the raging of the sea and the noise of his waves, and the madness of the people

Psalms, lxxv 5

Thou that makest the outgoings of the morning and evening to praise thee

Thou waterest her furrows, thou sendest rain into the little valleys thereof thou makest it soft with the drops of rain, and bleesest the increase of it

Thou crownest the year with thy goodness . and thy clouds drop fatness

They shall drop upon the dwellings of the wilderness and the little hills shall rejoice on every side

The fold shall be full of sheep : the valleys also shall stand so thick with corn, that they shall laugh and sing

Ib 11.

Who holdeth our soul in life and suffereth not our feet to slip

For thou, O God, hast proved us thou also hast tried us, like as silver is tried

Ib lxxvi 8

God be merciful unto us, and bless us and shew us the light of his countenance, and be merciful unto us

That thy way may be known upon earth thy saving health among all nations

Ib lxxvii 1.

Then shall the earth bring forth her increase and God, even our own God, shall give us his blessing

Let God arise, and let his enemies be scattered let them also that hate him flee before him

Like as the smoke vanisheth, so shalt thou drive them away and like as wax melteth at the fire, so let the ungodly perish at the presence of God

Ib lxxviii 1

O sing unto God, and sing praises unto his Name magnify him that rideth upon the heavens, as it were upon an horse, praise him in his Name JAH, and rejoice before him

He is a Father of the fatherless, and defendeth the cause of the widows even God in his holy habitation

He is the God that maketh men to be of one mind in an house, and bringeth the prisoners out of captivity : but letteth the runagates continue in scarceness

O God, when thou wentest forth before the people when thou wentest through the wilderness,

The earth shook, and the heavens dropped at the presence of God

Thou, O God, sentest a gracious rain upon thine inheritance and refreshedst it when it was weary

The Lord gave the word great was the company of the preachers

Kings with their armies did flee, and were discomfited and they of the household divided the spoil

Though ye have lien among the pots, yet shall ye be as the wings of a dove that is covered with silver wings, and her feathers like gold

When the Almighty scattered kings for their sake then were they as white as snow in Salmon

As the hill of Basan, so is God's hill even an high hill, as the hill of Basan

Why hop ye so, ye high hills? this is God's hill, in the which it pleaseth him to dwell

The chariots of God are twenty thousand, even thousands of angels

Thou art gone up on high, thou hast led captivity captive, and receivdest gifts for men

God shall wound the head of his enemies and the hairy scalp of such a one as goeth on still in his wickedness.

That thy foot may be dipped in the blood of thine enemies and that the tongue of the dogs may be red through the same

The singers go before, the minstrels follow after in the midst are the damsels playing on the timbrels

There is little Benjamin their ruler, and the princes of Judah their counsel

When he hath scattered the people that delight in war

Lo, he doth send out his voice, yea, and that a mighty voice

I paid them the things that I never took God, thou knowest my simpleness

Ib lxxix 5

The zeal of thine house hath even eaten me up

Ib 9.

They that sit in the gate speak against me and the drunkards make songs upon me.

I looked for some to have pity on me, but there was no man, neither found I any to comfort me

They gave me gall to eat and when I was thirsty they gave me vinegar to drink

Let them for their reward be soon brought to shame that cry over me, There, there

Ib lxx 2

I am become as it were a monster unto many

Ib lxxi 6

Give the King thy judgments, O God and thy righteousness unto the King's son

Ib lxxii 1

The mountains also shall bring peace and the little hills righteousness unto the people

Ib 3.

He shall come down like the rain into a fleece of wool even as the drops that water the earth.

His enemies shall lick the dust

The kings of Tharsis and of the isles shall give presents the kings of Arabia and Saba shall bring gifts

All kings shall fall down before him all nations shall do him service

Therefore fall the people unto them and thereout suck they no small advantage

Tush, they say how should God perceive it is there knowledge in the Most High?

Ib lxxiii. 10

Then thought I to understand this but it was too hard for me

Until I went into the sanctuary of God then understood I the end of these men

O deliver not the soul of thy turtle-dove unto the multitude of the enemies

Ib lxxiv 20

The earth is weak, and all the inhabitants thereof :
I bear up the pillars of it Psalms lxxv 4

For promotion cometh neither from the east, nor from the west nor yet from the south. Ib 7

For in the hand of the Lord there is a cup, and the wine is red it is full mixed, and he poureth out of the same Ib 9

I have considered the days of old and the years that are past Ib lxxvii 5

A faithless and stubborn generation. Ib lxxviii 9

Who being harnessed, and carrying bows, turned themselves back in the day of battle. Ib 10

So man did eat angels' food Ib 26

Starting aside like a broken bow. Ib 58

So the Lord awaked as one out of sleep and like a giant refreshed with wine

He smote his enemies in the hinder parts and put them to a perpetual shame. Ib 66.

Thou feedest them with the bread of tears. Ib lxxx. 5.

I proved thee also at the waters of strife Ib lxxxi. 8.

They will not be learned nor understand, but walk on still in darkness all the foundations of the earth are out of course Ib lxxxii 5

O how amiable are thy dwellings thou Lord of hosts! My soul hath a desire and longing to enter into the courts of the Lord : my heart and my flesh rejoice in the living God

Yea, the sparrow hath found her an house, and the swallow a nest where she may lay her young even thy altars, O Lord of hosts, my King and my God. Ib lxxxiv. 1.

Who going through the vale of misery use it for a well and the pools are filled with water

They will go from strength to strength Ib 6

For one day in thy courts is better than a thousand I had rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God than to dwell in the tents of ungodliness Ib 10

Lord, thou art become gracious unto thy land thou hast turned away the captivity of Jacob Ib lxxxv 1

Mercy and truth are met together righteousness and peace have kissed each other.

Truth shall flourish out of the earth and righteousness hath looked down from heaven. Ib 10

Righteousness shall go before him and he shall direct his going in the way Ib 13

The congregations of naughty men have sought after my soul Ib lxxxvi 14

Show some token upon me for good, that they who hate me may see it, and be ashamed Ib 17

Her foundations are upon the holy hills the Lord loveth the gates of Sion more than all the dwellings of Jacob

Very excellent things are spoken of thee thou city of God

I will think upon Rahab and Babylon : with them that know me. Ib. lxxxvii. 1.

The singers also and trumpeters shall he rehearse all my fresh springs shall be in thee. Ib. 7.

Lord, thou hast been our refuge from one generation to another

Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever the earth and the world were made thou art God from everlasting, and world without end

Thou turnest man to destruction again thou sayest, Come again, ye children of men

For a thousand years in thy sight are but as yesterday seeing that is past as a watch in the night

As soon as thou scatterest them they are even as a sleep and fade away suddenly like the grass

In the morning it is green, and groweth up but in the evening it is cut down, dried up, and withered Ib xc

For when thou art angry all our days are gone we bring our years to an end, as it were a tale that is told.

The days of our age are threescore years and ten, and though men be so strong that they come to fourscore years yet is their strength then but labour and sorrow, so soon passeth it away, and we are gone. Ib 9

Prosper thou the work of our hands upon us, O prosper thou our handy-work. Ib 17

For he shall deliver thee from the snare of the hunter and from the noisome pestilence

He shall defend thee under his wings, and thou shalt be safe under his feathers his faithfulness and truth shall be thy shield and buckler

Thou shalt not be afraid for any terror by night nor for the arrow that flieth by day

For the pestilence that walketh in darkness nor for the sickness that destroyeth in the noon-day

A thousand shall fall beside thee, and ten thousand at thy right hand but it shall not come nigh thee. Ib xc1 3.

There shall no evil happen unto thee neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling

For he shall give his angels charge over thee to keep thee in all thy ways

They shall bear thee in their hands that thou hurt not thy foot against a stone Ib 10.

An unwise man doth not well consider this and a fool doth not understand it Ib xcii. 6

They also shall bring forth more fruit in their age and shall be fat and well-liking Ib 13

The Lord is King, and hath put on glorious apparel the Lord hath put on his apparel, and girded himself with strength

He hath made the round world so sure that it cannot be moved Ib xciii 1

The floods are risen, O Lord, the floods have lift up their voice the floods lift up their waves

The waves of the sea are mighty, and rage horribly but yet the Lord, who dwelleth on high, is mightier Ib 9

He that planted the ear, shall he not hear or he that made the eye, shall he not see? Ib xciv 9

Shew ourselves glad in him with psalms Ib. xciv 2

In his hand are all the corners of the earth : and the strength of the hills is his also

The sea is his, and he made it and his hands prepared the dry land. Ib 4

The Lord is King, the earth may be glad thereof yea, the multitude of the isles may be glad thereof

Psalms xcvi 1.

With trumpets also, and shawms O shew yourselves joyful before the Lord the King Ib xcvi 7

The Lord is King, be the people never so impatient he sitteth between the cherubims, be the earth never so unquiet Ib xcix 1

Whoso hath also a proud look and high stomach I will not suffer him Ib ci 7.

I am become like a pelican in the wilderness and like an owl that is in the desert

I have watched, and am even as it were a sparrow that sitteth alone upon the house-top Ib cii 6

They shall perish, but thou shalt endure they shall all wax old as doth a garment,

And as a vesture shalt thou change them, and they shall be changed but thou art the same, and thy years shall not fail Ib 26

Praise the Lord, O my soul and forget not all his benefits Ib ciii 2.

Who satisfieth thy mouth with good things making thee young and lusty as an eagle Ib 5.

He will not away be chiding neither keepeth he his anger for ever Ib 9

For look how high the heaven is in comparison of the earth so great is his mercy also toward them that fear him

Look how wide also the east is from the west so far hath he set our sins from us

Yea, like as a father pitieth his own children even so is the Lord merciful unto them that fear him Ib 11

The days of man are but as grass for he flourisheth as a flower of the field

For as soon as the wind goeth over it, it is gone and the place thereof shall know it no more Ib 15

Who layeth the beams of his chambers in the waters and maketh the clouds his chariot, and walketh upon the wings of the wind

He maketh his angels spirits and his ministers a flaming fire

He laid the foundations of the earth that it never should move at any time

Thou coverest it with the deep like as with a garment the waters stand in the hills

At thy rebuke they flee at the voice of thy thunder they are afraid

They go up as high as the hills, and down to the valleys beneath even unto the place which thou hast appointed for them

Thou hast set them their bounds which they shall not pass neither turn again to cover the earth

He sendeth the springs into the rivers which run among the hills

All beasts of the field drink thereof and the wild asses quench their thirst

Beside them shall the fowls of the air have their habitation and sing among the branches Ib civ 3.

Wine that maketh glad the heart of man and oil to make him a cheerful countenance, and bread to strengthen man's heart

The trees of the Lord also are full of sap even the cedars of Libanus which he hath planted Ib 15

Wherein the birds make their nests and the fir-trees are a dwelling for the stork

The high hills are a refuge for the wild goats and so are the stony rocks for the conies

He appointed the moon for certain seasons and the sun knoweth his going down

Thou makest darkness that it may be night wherein all the beasts of the forest do move

The lions roaring after their prey do seek their meat from God

The sun ariseth, and they get them away together and lay them down in their dens

Man goeth forth to his work, and to his labour until the evening Ib 17.

So is the great and wide sea also wherein are things creeping innumerable, both small and great beasts

There go the ships, and there is that Leviathan: whom thou hast made to take his pasture therein

These wait all upon thee that thou mayest give them their meat in due season. Ib 25

Whose feet they hurt in the stocks the iron entered into his soul Ib cv 18

Wonders in the land of Ham Ib 27

Went a-whoring with their own inventions Ib cvi 38

Hungry and thirsty their soul fainted in them So they cried unto the Lord in their trouble and he delivered them from their distress

He led them forth by the right way that they might go to the city where they dwelt

O that men would therefore praise the Lord for his goodness and declare the wonders that he doeth for the children of men!

For he satisfieth the empty soul and filleth the hungry soul with goodness

Such as sit in darkness, and in the shadow of death being fast bound in misery and iron

Because they rebelled against the words of the Lord and lightly regarded the counsel of the most Highest Ib cvii 5.

Their soul abhorred all manner of meat and they were even hard at death's door Ib 18

They that go down to the sea in ships and occupy their business in great waters,

These men see the works of the Lord and his wonders in the deep Ib 23

They reel to and fro, and stagger like a drunken man and are at their wit's end

So when they cry unto the Lord in their trouble he delivereth them from their distress Ib 27

Then are they glad, because they are at rest and so he bringeth them unto the haven where they would be Ib 30

Again, he maketh the wilderness a standing water. and water-springs of a dry ground Ib 35.

And again, when they are minished, and brought low through oppression, through any plague, or trouble

Whoso is wise will ponder these things. Ib 43.

The Lord said unto my Lord Sit thou on my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool Psalms cx 1.

The Lord sware, and will not repent : Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedech

The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom a good understanding have all they that do thereafter, the praise of it endureth for ever

Ib cxl 10

A good man is merciful, and lendeth

Ib cxli 5

He hath dispersed abroad, and given to the poor

Ib 9

He maketh the barren woman to keep house and to be a joyful mother of children

Ib cxliii 8

They have mouths, and speak not eyes have they, and see not

They have ears, and hear not noses have they, and smell not

They have hands, and handle not, feet have they, and walk not neither speak they through their throat

Ib cxv 5

The snares of death compassed me round about and the pains of death gat hold upon me

Ib cxvi. 3

And why? thou hast delivered my soul from death mine eyes from tears, and my feet from falling

Ib 8

I said in my haste, All men are liars

The voice of joy and health is in the dwellings of the righteous the right hand of the Lord bringeth mighty things to pass

Ib cxviii 15

The right hand of the Lord hath the pre-eminence

Ib 16

I shall not die, but live and declare the works of the Lord

Ib 17

The same stone which the builders refused is become the head-stone in the corner

Ib 22

Blessed be he that cometh in the Name of the Lord we have wished you good luck, ye that are of the house of the Lord

Wherewithal shall a young man cleanse his way even by ruling himself after thy word

Make me to go in the path of thy commandments : for therein is my desire

O turn away mine eyes, lest they behold vanity and quicken thou me in thy law

Ib. 37.

In the house of my pilgrimage

The law of thy mouth is dearer unto me . than thousands of gold and silver

Ib 72

For I am become like a bottle in the smoke

Ib 83

I see that all things come to an end but thy commandment is exceeding broad

Ib. 96

I have more understanding than my teachers : for thy testimonies are my study

I am wiser than the aged . because I keep thy commandments.

Thy word is a lantern unto my feet and a light unto my paths.

I have sworn, and am stedfastly purposed to keep thy righteous judgements

O establish me according to thy word

Ib 116

Princes have persecuted me without a cause

Ib 161

What reward shall be given or done unto thee, thou false tongue even mighty and sharp arrows, with hot burning coals

Woe is me, that I am constrained to dwell with Mesech and to have my habitation among the tents of Kedar.

Ib cxx 3

I labour for peace, but when I speak unto them thereof they make them ready to battle

Ib 6

I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills . from whence cometh my help

Ib cxxi 1

He will not suffer my foot to be moved and he that keepeth this will not sleep.

The Lord himself is thy keeper the Lord is thy defence upon thy right hand,

So that the sun shall not burn thee by day neither the moon by night

The Lord shall preserve thy going out, and thy coming in from this time forth for evermore

Ib 8

I was glad when they said unto me we will go into the house of the Lord

Ib cxxii 1

O pray for the peace of Jerusalem they shall prosper that love thee

Peace be within thy walls and plenteousness within thy palaces

For my brethren and companions' sakes I will wish thee prosperity

Yea, because of the house of the Lord our God I will seek to do thee good

Our soul is escaped even as a bird out of the snare of the fowler the snare is broken, and we are delivered

Ib cxxiv 6

The hills stand about Jerusalem even so standeth the Lord round about his people, from this time forth for evermore

For the rod of the ungodly cometh not into the lot of the righteous let the righteous put their hand unto wickedness

Ib cxxv. 2.

Turn our captivity, O Lord as the rivers in the south They that sow in tears shall reap in joy

He that now goeth on his way weeping, and beareth forth good seed shall doubtless come again with joy, and bring his sheaves with him

Ib cxxvi 5

Except the Lord build the house their labour is but lost that build it Except the Lord keep the city the watchman waketh but in vain

It is but lost labour that ye haste to rise up early, and so late take rest, and eat the bread of carefulness for so he giveth his beloved sleep

Lo, children and the fruit of the womb are an heritage and gift that cometh of the Lord

Like as the arrows in the hand of the giant even so are the young children

Happy is the man that hath his quiver full of them they shall not be ashamed when they speak with their enemies in the gate

Ib cxxvii. 1

Thy wife shall be as the fruitful vine : upon the walls of thine house

Thy children like the olive-branches round about thy table. Psalm cxxviii 3

The plowers plowed upon my back and made long furrows. Ib cxxix 3.

Out of the deep have I called unto thee, O Lord Lord, hear my voice Ib. cxxx. 1

If thou, Lord, wilt be extreme to mark what is done amiss · O Lord, who may abide it? Ib 3

My soul fleeth unto the Lord . before the morning watch, I say, before the morning watch Ib 6

Lord, I am not high-minded I have no proud looks I do not exercise myself in great matters which are too high for me

But I refrain my soul, and keep it low, like as a child that is weaned from his mother yea, my soul is even like a weaned child Ib cxxx1 1

Lord, remember David and all his trouble Ib cxxxii 1

Behold, how good and joyful a thing it is brethren, to dwell together in unity!

It is like the precious ointment upon the head that ran down unto the beard even unto Aaron's beard, and went down to the skirts of his clothing Ib cxxxiii 1

His mercy endureth for ever Ib cxxxvi 1

By the waters of Babylon we sat down and wept when we remembered thee, O Sion

As for our harps, we hanged them up upon the trees that are therein

For they that led us away captive required of us then a song, and melody, in our heaviness Sing us one of the songs of Sion

How shall we sing the Lord's song in a strange land?

If I forget thee, O Jerusalem let my right hand forget her cunning

If I do not remember thee, let my tongue cleave to the roof of my mouth yea, if I prefer not Jerusalem in my mirth Ib cxxxvii. 1.

How they said, Down with it, down with it, even to the ground

O daughter of Babylon, wasted with misery yea, happy shall he be that rewardeth thee, as thou hast served us

Blessed shall he be that taketh thy children · and throweth them against the stones Ib 7

O Lord, thou hast searched me out, and known me thou knowest my down-sitting, and mine uprising, thou understandest my thoughts long before Ib cxxxix 1

Such knowledge is too wonderful and excellent for me · I cannot attain unto it Ib 5

If I take the wings of the morning and remain in the uttermost parts of the sea,

Even there also shall thy hand lead me and thy right hand shall hold me

If I say, Peradventure the darkness shall cover me : then shall my night be turned to day.

Yea, the darkness is no darkness with thee, but the night is as clear as the day, the darkness and the light to thee are both alike. Ib. 8.

I will give thanks unto thee, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made. Ib 13

And in thy book were all my members written
Ib. 15

Thou hast covered my head in the day of battle Ib cxl 7

Let the lifting up of my hands be an evening sacrifice Set a watch, O Lord, before my mouth and keep the door of my lips. Ib cxli 2

Let the righteous rather smite me friendly · and reprove me.

But let not their precious balms break my head
Ib 5

Let the ungodly fall into their own nets together and let me ever escape them Ib 11

That our sons may grow up as the young plants and that our daughters may be as the polished corners of the temple. Ib cxliv 12.

That our oxen may be strong to labour, that there be no decay no leading into captivity, and no complaining in our streets Ib 14

The Lord is gracious, and merciful long-suffering, and of great goodness. Ib cxlv. 8

O put not your trust in princes, nor in any child of man for there is no help in them

For when the breath of man goeth forth he shall turn again to his earth and then all his thoughts perish Ib cxlvi 2

The Lord careth for the strangers, he defendeth the fatherless and widow as for the way of the un-godly, he turneth it upside down Ib 9

Yea, a joyful and pleasant thing it is to be thankful The Lord doth build up Jerusalem and gather together the outcasts of Israel

He healeth those that are broken in heart and giveth medicine to heal their sickness

He telleth the number of the stars · and calleth them all by their names Ib cxlvii 1

He hath no pleasure in the strength of an horse · neither delighteth he in any man's legs Ib. 10.

He giveth snow like wool and scattereth the hoar-frost like ashes Ib 16.

Praise the Lord upon earth · ye dragons and all deeps, Fire and hail, snow and vapours · wind and storm fulfilling his word. Ib cxlviii 7

Young men and maidens, old men and children, praise the name of the Lord for his name only is excellent, and his praise above heaven and earth.
Ib 12

Let the praises of God be in their mouth and a two-edged sword in their hands. Ib cxlix. 6

To bind their kings in chains : and their nobles with links of iron. Ib 8.

Praise him upon the well-tuned cymbals · praise him upon the loud cymbals.

Let every thing that hath breath praise the Lord

THE HOLY BIBLE

THE OLD TESTAMENT

Upon the setting of that bright Occidental Star , Queen Elizabeth of most happy memory Holy Bible, Authorized Translation, Preface	And they sewed fig leaves together, and made themselves aprons
The appearance of Your Majesty, as of the Sun in his strength Ib	And they heard the voice of the Lord God walking in the garden in the cool of the day Ib 7
In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth	The woman whom thou gavest to be with me, she gave me of the tree, and I did eat Ib 12
And the earth was without form, and void, and darkness was upon the face of the deep And the Spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters	What is this that thou hast done? Ib 13
And God said, Let there be light and there was light Genesis 1 1	The serpent beguiled me, and I did eat. Ib
And the evening and the morning were the first day Ib 5	It shall bruise thy head, and thou shalt bruise his heel Ib 15.
And God saw that it was good Ib 10	In sorrow thou shalt bring forth children Ib 16
And God made two great lights, the greater light to rule the day, and the lesser light to rule the night he made the stars also Ib 16	In the sweat of thy face shalt thou eat bread Ib 19
And God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness Ib 26	For dust thou art, and unto dust thou shalt return Ib
Dominion over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth Ib	The mother of all living Ib 20
Male and female created he them Ib 27.	Am I my brother's keeper? Ib iv 9
Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth, and subdue it and have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over every living thing that moveth upon the earth Ib 28	The voice of thy brother's blood crieth unto me from the ground Ib 10
But there went up a mist from the earth, and watered the whole face of the ground Ib ii 6	My punishment is greater than I can bear Ib 13
And the Lord God formed man of the dust of the ground and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life, and man became a living soul	Dwelt in the land of Nod Ib 16
And the Lord God planted a garden eastward in Eden Ib 7	The father of such as dwell in tents Ib 20
The tree of life also in the midst of the garden Ib 9	And Enoch walked with God and he was not for God took him Ib v 24.
But of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, thou shalt not eat of it for in the day that thou eatest thereof thou shalt surely die Ib 17	And Noah begat Shem, Ham, and Japheth Ib 32
It is not good that the man should be alone Ib 18	There were giants in the earth in those days Ib vi 4.
The Lord God brought them unto Adam to see what he would call them Ib	Mighty men which were of old, men of renown. Ib.
And the Lord God caused a deep sleep to fall upon Adam, and he slept and he took one of his ribs, and closed up the flesh instead thereof,	But the dove found no rest for the sole of her foot Ib viii 9
And the rib, which the Lord God had taken from man, made he a woman Ib 21	For the imagination of man's heart is evil from his youth Ib 21
Bone of my bones, and flesh of my flesh Ib 23	While the earth remaineth, seedtime and harvest, and cold and heat, and summer and winter, and day and night shall not cease Ib 22
Therefore shall a man leave his father and his mother, and shall cleave unto his wife and they shall be one flesh Ib 24	At the hand of every man's brother will I require the life of man Ib ix 5
Now the serpent was more subtil than any beast of the field Ib. iii 1	Whoso sheddeth man's blood, by man shall his blood be shed Ib 6
Ye shall be as gods, knowing good and evil. Ib. 5	I do set my bow in the cloud Ib 13
	Even as Nimrod the mighty hunter before the Lord Ib x 9 Let there be no strife, I pray thee, between thee and me for we be brethren Ib xiii 8. An horror of great darkness fell upon him Ib xv 12.
	In good old age Ib 15. His hand will be against every man, and every man's hand against him. Ib xvi 12

- Old and well stricken in age. Genesis xviii 11.
 And the Lord said unto Abraham, Wherefore did Sarah laugh? Ib 13
 Shall not the Judge of all the earth do right? Ib 25
 But his wife looked back from behind him, and she became a pillar of salt Ib xix 26
 Take now thy son, thine only son Isaac, whom thou lovest. Ib xxii 2
 My son, God will provide himself a lamb Ib 8 Behold behind him a ram caught in a thicket by his horns Ib 13 Esau was a cunning hunter, a man of the field, and Jacob was a plain man, dwelling in tents Ib xxv 27
 And he sold his birthright unto Jacob Ib 33 Behold, Esau my brother is a hairy man, and I am a smooth man Ib xxvii. 11.
 The voice is Jacob's voice, but the hands are the hands of Esau. Ib 22.
 Thy brother came with subtilty, and hath taken away thy blessing Ib 35
 And he dreamed, and behold a ladder set up on the earth, and the top of it reached to heaven: and behold the angels of God ascending and descending on it Ib xxviii 12.
 Surely the Lord is in this place, and I knew it not Ib 16.
 This is none other but the house of God, and this is the gate of heaven Ib 17
 And Jacob served seven years for Rachel; and they seemed unto him but a few years, for the love he had to her Ib. xxix 20
 A troop cometh and she called his name Gad Ib xxx 11.
 Mizpah, for he said, The Lord watch between me and thee, when we are absent one from another Ib xxxi 49
 There wrestled a man with him until the breaking of the day.
 And when he saw that he prevailed not against him, he touched the hollow of his thigh, and the hollow of Jacob's thigh was out of joint, as he wrestled with him Ib xxxii 24
 I will not let thee go, except thou bless me Ib 26.
 For I have seen God face to face, and my life is preserved Ib 30 Now Israel loved Joseph more than all his children, because he was the son of his old age, and he made him a coat of many colours. Ib xxxvii 3 Behold, your sheaves stood round about, and made obeisance to my sheaf Ib 7.
 Behold, this dreamer cometh Ib 19.
 Some evil beast hath devoured him. Ib 20
 And she caught him by his garment, saying, Lie with me, and he left his garment in her hand, and fled Ib xxxix. 12.
- And the lean and the ill-favoured kine did eat up the first seven fat kine Ib xli 20
 And the thin ears devoured the seven good ears Ib 24 Jacob saw that there was corn in Egypt Ib xlii 1 Ye are spies, to see the nakedness of the land ye are come Ib 9
 Bring down my grey hairs with sorrow to the grave Ib 38 Benjamin's mess was five times so much as any of their's Ib xliii 34 Ye shall eat of the fat of the land Ib xlv 18
 See that ye fall not out by the way Ib 24 Few and evil have the years of my life been Ib xlvii 9 Unstable as water, thou shalt not excel Ib xlix 4 Issachar is a strong ass couching down between two burdens Ib 14 Unto the utmost bound of the everlasting hills Ib 26 Now there arose up a new king over Egypt, which knew not Joseph Exodus 1. 8
 She took for him an ark of bulrushes, and daubed it with slime. Ib ii 3
 Who made thee a prince and a judge over us? Ib. 14
 I have been a stranger in a strange land. Ib 22.
 Behold, the bush burned with fire, and the bush was not consumed. Ib iii. 2.
 Put off thy shoes from off thy feet, for the place whereon thou standest is holy ground Ib 5

As saith the proverb of the Ancients, Wickedness proceedeth from the wicked

Ib xxiv 13

I have played the fool

Ib xxvi. 21

The beauty of Israel is slain upon thy high places: how are the mighty fallen!

Tell it not in Gath, publish it not in the streets of Askelon, lest the daughters of the Philistines rejoice, lest the daughters of the uncircumcised triumph

Ye mountains of Gilboa, let there be no dew, neither let there be rain, upon you, nor fields of offerings: for there the shield of the mighty is vilely cast away

2 Samuel 1. 19

Saul and Jonathan were lovely and pleasant in their lives, and in their death they were not divided: they were swifter than eagles, they were stronger than lions

Ye daughters of Israel, weep over Saul, who clothed you in scarlet, with other delights, who put on ornaments of gold upon your apparel

How are the mighty fallen in the midst of the battle! O Jonathan, thou wast slain in thy high places

I am distressed for thee, my brother Jonathan: very pleasant hast thou been unto me: thy love to me was wonderful, passing the love of women.

How are the mighty fallen, and the weapons of war perished

 God hath made man upright, but they have sought out many inventions Ib 29
 There is no discharge in that war. Ib viii 8
 A man hath no better thing under the sun, than to eat, and to drink, and to be merry. Ib 15
 A living dog is better than a dead lion Ib ix 4
 Go thy way, eat thy bread with joy, and drink thy wine with a merry heart, for God now accepteth thy works Ib 7 Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might, for there is no work, nor device, nor knowledge, nor wisdom, in the grave, whither thou goest Ib 10
 The race is not to the swift, nor the battle to the strong Ib 11
 Dead flies cause the ointment of the apothecary to send forth a stinking savour. Ib x 1.
 He that diggeth a pit shall fall into it Ib 8 Wine maketh merry but money answereth all things Ib 19
 For a bird of the air shall carry the voice, and that which hath wings shall tell the matter Ib 20
 Cast thy bread upon the waters for thou shalt find it after many days Ib xi 1
 In the place where the tree falleth, there it shall be Ib 3
 He that observeth the wind shall not sow, and he that regardeth the clouds shall not reap. Ib 4
 In the morning sow thy seed, and in the evening withhold not thine hand Ib 6 Truly the light is sweet, and a pleasant thing it is for the eyes to behold the sun Ib. 7
 Rejoice, O young man, in thy youth, and let thy heart cheer thee in the days of thy youth. Ib 9
 Remember now thy Creator in the days of thy youth, while the evil days come not, nor the years draw nigh, when thou shalt say, I have no pleasure in them;
 While the sun, or the light, or the moon, or the stars, be not darkened, nor the clouds return after the rain
 In the day when the keepers of the house shall tremble, and the strong men shall bow themselves, and the grinders cease because they are few, and those that look out of the windows be darkened,
 And the doors shall be shut in the streets, when the sound of the grinding is low, and he shall rise up at the voice of the bird, and all the daughters of musick shall be brought low, Also when they shall be afraid of that which is high, and fears shall be in the way, and the almond tree shall flourish, and the grasshopper shall be a burden, and desire shall fail because man goeth to his long home, and the mourners go about the streets Or ever the silver cord be loosed, or the golden bowl be broken, or the pitcher be broken at the fountain, or the wheel broken at the cistern Then shall the dust return to the earth as it was and the spirit shall return unto God who gave it.

Ecclesiastes xii 1.

The words of the wise are as goads Ib 11 Of making many books there is no end, and much study is a weariness of the flesh Ib 12 Fear God, and keep his commandments for this is the whole duty of man For God shall bring every work into judgment, with every secret thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil Ib 13

The song of songs, which is Solomon's Let him kiss me with the kisses of his mouth for thy love is better than wine

The Song of Solomon, i 1

Thy name is an ointment poured forth, therefore do the virgins love thee Ib 3

I am black, but comely, O ye daughters of Jerusalem, as the tents of Kedar, as the curtains of Jerusalem
Ib 5

Tell me, O thou whom my soul loveth, where thou feedest, where thou makest thy flock to rest at noon Ib 7

O thou fairest among women Ib 8

A bundle of myrrh is my well beloved unto me, he shall lie all night betwixt my breasts Ib 13

I am the rose of Sharon, and the lily of the valleys Ib ii 1

His banner over me was love Ib 4

Stay me with flagons, comfort me with apples for I am sick of love

His left hand is under my head, and his right hand doth embrace me Ib 5

Rise up, my love, my fair one, and come away For, lo! the winter is past, the rain is over and gone, The flowers appear on the earth the time of the singing of birds is come, and the voice of the turtle is heard in our land Ib 10

Take us the foxes, the little foxes, that spoil the vines
Ib 15

My beloved is mine, and I am his he feedeth among the lilies

Until the day break, and the shadows flee away
Ib 16

By night on my bed I sought him whom my soul loveth Ib iii 1.

Behold, thou art fair, my love, behold, thou art fair, thou hast doves' eyes within thy locks: thy hair is as a flock of goats, that appear from mount Gilead Thy teeth are like a flock of sheep that are even shorn, which came up from the washing, whereof every one bear twins, and none is barren among them

Thy lips are like a thread of scarlet, and thy speech is comely thy temples are like a piece of a pomegranate within thy locks

Thy neck is like the tower of David builded for an armoury, whereon there hang a thousand bucklers, all shields of mighty men.

Thy breasts are like two young roes that are twins, which feed among the lilies Ib iv 1

Thou art all fair, my love, there is no spot in thee
Ib 7

A garden inclosed is my sister, my spouse, a spring shut up, a fountain scaled Ib 12

Awake, O north wind, and come, thou south, blow upon my garden, that the spices thereof may flow out Let my beloved come into his garden, and eat his pleasant fruits Ib 16

I sleep, but my heart waketh it is the voice of my beloved that knocketh, saying, Open to me, my sister, my love, my dove, my undefiled Ib v 2

My beloved put in his hand by the hole of the door, and my bowels were moved for him Ib 4

I opened to my beloved, but my beloved had withdrawn himself Ib 6

The watchmen that went about the city found me, they smote me, they wounded me, the keepers of the walls took away my veil from me

I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem, if ye find my beloved, that ye tell him, that I am sick of love What is thy beloved more than another beloved, O thou fairest among women? Ib 7

My beloved is white and ruddy, the chiefest among ten thousand Ib 10

His hands are as gold rings set with the beryl his belly is as bright ivory overlaid with sapphires His legs are as pillars of marble, set upon sockets of fine gold his countenance is as Lebanon, excellent as the cedars

His mouth is most sweet yea, he is altogether lovely This is my beloved, and this is my friend, O daughters of Jerusalem Ib 14

Who is she that looketh forth as the morning, fair as the moon, clear as the sun, and terrible as an army with banners? Ib vi. 10 Return, return, O Shulamite, return, return, that we may look upon thee Ib 13

How beautiful are thy feet with shoes, O prince's daughter! Ib vii 1

Thy navel is like a round goblet, which wanteth not liquor thy belly is like an heap of wheat set about with lilies Ib 2

Thy neck is as a tower of ivory, thine eyes like the fishpools in Heshbon, by the gate of Bath-rabbim thy nose is as the tower of Lebanon which looketh towards Damascus Ib 4

Like the best wine, for my beloved, that goeth down sweetly, causing the lips of those that are asleep to speak Ib 9

O that thou wert as my brother, that sucked the breasts of my mother! when I should find thee without, I would kiss thee, yea, I should not be despised

I would lead thee, and bring thee into my mother's house Ib viii. 1.

Who is this that cometh up from the wilderness, leaning upon her beloved? I raised thee up under the apple tree there thy mother brought thee forth there she brought thee forth that bare thee Set me as a seal upon thine heart, as a seal upon thine arm for love is strong as death, jealousy is cruel as the grave. The Song of Solomon viii 5.

Many waters cannot quench love, neither can the floods drown it if a man would give all the substance of his house for love, it would be utterly contemned Ib 7

We have a little sister, and she hath no breasts. Ib 8

Make haste, my beloved, and be thou like to a roe or to a young hart upon the mountain of spices
Ib 14

The ox knoweth his owner, and the ass his master's crib Isaiah 1 3

The whole head is sick, and the whole heart faint
Ib 5

As a lodge in a garden of cucumbers Ib 8

Bring no more vain oblations, incense is an abomination unto me, the new moons and sabbaths, the calling of assemblies, I cannot away with Ib 13

Though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be white as snow Ib 18

They shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruninghooks, nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more Ib 11 4

Cease ye from man, whose breath is in his nostrils
Ib 22

The stay and the staff, the whole stay of bread, and the whole stay of water Ib 11 1

Grind the faces of the poor. Ib 15

Walk with stretched forth necks and wanton eyes, walking and mincing as they go, and making a tinkling with their feet Ib 16

In that day seven women shall take hold of one man
Ib 14 1

My wellbeloved hath a vineyard in a very fruitful hill
Ib 5 1

And he looked that it should bring forth grapes, and it brought forth wild grapes Ib 2

And he looked for judgment, but behold oppression, for righteousness, but behold a cry. Ib 7

Woe unto them that join house to house, that lay field to field, till there be no place Ib 8

Woe unto them that rise up early in the morning, that they may follow strong drink Ib 11

Woe, woe unto them that draw iniquity with cords of vanity, and sin as it were with a cart rope
Ib 18

Woe unto them that call evil good, and good evil
Ib 20

For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still Ib 25

In the year that king Uzziah died I saw also the Lord sitting upon a throne, high and lifted up, and his train filled the temple

Above it stood the seraphims each one had six wings, with twain he covered his face, and with twain he covered his feet, and with twain he did fly

And one cried unto another, and said, Holy, holy, holy, is the Lord of hosts the whole earth is full of his glory.

And the posts of the door moved at the voice of him that cried, and the house was filled with smoke

Then said I, Woe is me! for I am undone, because I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips Ib vi 1

Whom shall I send, and who will go for us? Then said I, Here am I, send me Ib 8

Make the heart of this people fat, and make their ears heavy, and shut their eyes, lest they see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and convert, and be healed Ib 10

Then said I, Lord, how long? Ib 11

Behold, a virgin shall conceive, and bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel.

Butter and honey shall he eat, that he may know how to refuse the evil, and choose the good Ib vii 14

For a stone of stumbling and for a rock of offence Ib viii 14

The people that walked in darkness have seen a great light they that dwell in the land of the shadow of death, upon them hath the light shined.

Thou hast multiplied the nation, and not increased the joy they joy before thee according to the joy in harvest, and as men rejoice when they divide the spoil Ib ix 2

For every battle of the warrior is with confused noise, and garments rolled in blood Ib 5

For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given and the government shall be upon his shoulder and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace

Of the increase of his government and peace there shall be no end Ib 6

The zeal of the Lord of hosts will perform this
Ib 7

And there shall come forth a rod out of the stem of Jesse, and a Branch shall grow out of his roots

And the spirit of the Lord shall rest upon him, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge and of the fear of the Lord Ib xi 1

The wolf also shall dwell with the lamb, and the leopard shall lie down with the kid, and the calf and the young lion and the fatling together, and a little child shall lead them Ib 7

And the lion shall eat straw like the ox And the sucking child shall play on the hole of the asp, and the weaned child shall put his hand on the cockatrice' den

They shall not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain for the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the Lord, as the waters cover the sea Ib 7.

Dragons in their pleasant palaces. Ib. xiii 22

Hell from beneath is moved for thee to meet thee at thy coming Isaiah xiv 9

How art thou fallen from heaven, O Lucifer, son of the morning! Ib. 12

I will also make it a possession for the bitter, and pools of water and I will sweep it with the besom of destruction Ib. 23

And in mercy shall the throne be established Ib xvi 5

The burden of the desert of the sea Ib xxi. 1

Watchman, what of the night? Watchman, what of the night?

The watchman said, The morning cometh, and also the night Ib. 11

Let us eat and drink, for to morrow we shall die Ib. xxii 13

Fasten him as a nail in a sure place Ib 23

Whose merchants are princes Ib xxiii 8

Howl, ye ships of Tarshish Ib 14

A feast of fat things, a feast of wines on the lees Ib xxv. 6

We have as it were brought forth wind Ib xxvi 18

For precept must be upon precept, precept upon precept, line upon line, line upon line, here a little, and there a little Ib xxviii 10

They are drunken, but not with wine Ib xxix. 9

Their strength is to sit still Ib xxx. 7.

Now go, write it before them in a table, and note it in a book Ib 8

Speak unto us smooth things, prophesy deceits Ib 10

In quietness and in confidence shall be your strength. Ib 15

One thousand shall flee at the rebuke of one Ib 17.

This is the way, walk ye in it Ib 21

And a man shall be as an hiding place from the wind, and a covert from the tempest, as rivers of water in a dry place, as the shadow of a great rock in a weary land Ib xxxii 2

The liberal deviseth liberal things Ib 8

An habitation of dragons, and a court for owls Ib xxxiv 13

The wilderness and the solitary place shall be glad for them, and the desert shall rejoice, and blossom as the rose Ib xxxv 1.

Strengthen ye the weak hands, and confirm the feeble knees Ib 3

Then shall the lame man leap up as an hart, and the tongue of the dumb sing for in the wilderness shall waters break out, and streams in the desert. Ib 6

The wayfaring men, though fools, shall not err therein Ib 8

Sorrow and sighing shall flee away Ib 10.

Set thine house in order Ib xxxviii 1

I shall go softly all my years in the bitterness of my soul. Ib 15

Comfort ye, comfort ye my people, saith your God Speak ye comfortably to Jerusalem, and cry unto her, that her warfare is accomplished Ib. xl 1.

The voice of him that crieth in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make straight in the desert a highway for our God

Every valley shall be exalted, and every mountain and hill shall be made low and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough places plain

And the glory of the Lord shall be revealed, and all flesh shall be revealed together for the mouth of the Lord hath spoken it Ib 3

The voice said, Cry And he said, What shall I cry? All flesh is grass, and all the goodness thereof is as the flower of the field

The grass withereth, the flower fadeth because the spirit of the Lord bloweth upon it surely the people is grass Ib 6

He shall feed his flock like a shepherd he shall gather the lambs with his arm, and carry them in his bosom, and shall gently lead those that are with young Ib 11.

The nations are as a drop of a bucket, and are counted as the small dust of the balance behold, he taketh up the isles as a very little thing Ib. 15.

Have ye not known? hath it not been told you from the beginning? Ib 21

But they that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength they shall mount up with wings as eagles they shall run, and not be weary they shall walk, and not faint Ib 31.

A bruised reed shall he not break, and the smoking flax shall he not quench Ib xlii 3

He warmeth himself, and saith, Aha, I am warm, I have seen the fire Ib xliv 16

Verily thou art a God that hidest thyself Ib 15

I have chosen thee in the furnace of affliction Ib xlviii 10.

O that thou hadst hearkened to my commandments! then had thy peace been as a river, and thy righteousness as the waves of the sea Ib 18

There is no peace, saith the Lord, unto the wicked Ib 22

How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace, that bringeth good tidings of good, that publisheth salvation, that saith unto Zion, Thy God reigneth! Ib lii 7

For they shall see eye to eye, when the Lord shall bring again Zion

Break forth into joy, sing together, ye waste places of Jerusalem for the Lord hath comforted his people, he hath redeemed Jerusalem Ib 9

Who hath believed our report? and to whom is the arm of the Lord revealed? Ib liii. 1

He hath no form nor comeliness, and when we shall see him, there is no beauty that we should desire him. He is despised and rejected of men, a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief: and we hid as it were our faces from him, he was despised, and we esteemed him not.

Surely he hath borne our griefs, and carried our sorrows. Isaiah liii 2.

But he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him, and with his stripes we are healed.

All we like sheep have gone astray, we have turned every one to his own way, and the Lord hath laid on him the iniquity of us all.

He was oppressed, and he was afflicted, yet he opened not his mouth: he is brought as a lamb to the slaughter, and as a sheep before her shearers is dumb, so he openeth not his mouth. Ib 5

He was cut off out of the land of the living. Ib 8

He was numbered with the transgressors, and he bare the sins of many, and made intercession for the transgressors. Ib 12

Ho, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters, and he that hath no money, come ye, buy and eat, yea, come, buy wine and milk without money and without price.

Wherefore do ye spend money for that which is not bread? and your labour for that which satisfieth not? Ib. lv. 1.

Seek ye the Lord while he may be found, call ye upon him while he is near. Ib 6.

For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, saith the Lord. Ib 8

Instead of the thorn shall come up the fir tree, and instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle tree. Ib 13

I will give them an everlasting name, that shall not be cut off. Ib lvi 5

Peace to him that is far off, and to him that is near. Ib lvii 19

Is it such a fast that I have chosen? a day for a man to afflict his soul? Ib lviii 5

Is not this the fast that I have chosen? to loose the bands of wickedness, to undo the heavy burdens, and to let the oppressed go free, and that ye break every yoke? Ib 6

Then shall thy light break forth as the morning, and thine health shall spring forth speedily. Ib 8

Now there are diversities of gifts, but the same Spirit Ib. xii. 4

Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, and have not charity, I am become as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal Ib. xiii. 1

Though I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains, and have not charity, I am nothing

And though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, and have not charity, it profiteth me nothing

Charity suffereth long, and is kind, charity envieth not, charity vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up, Doth not behave itself unseemly, seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil,

Rejoiceth not in iniquity, but rejoiceth in the truth, Beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things

Charity never faileth but whether there be prophecies, they shall fail, whether there be tongues, they shall cease, whether there be knowledge, it shall vanish away

For we know in part, and we prophesy in part Ib. 2.

When I was a child, I spake as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child but when I became a man, I put away childish things

For now we see through a glass, darkly, but then face to face now I know in part, but then shall I know even as also I am known

And now abideth faith, hope, charity, these three, but the greatest of these is charity Ib. 11.

If the trumpet give an uncertain sound, who shall prepare himself to the battle? Ib. xiv. 8

Let your women keep silence in the churches for it is not permitted unto them to speak Ib. 34

If they will learn any thing, let them ask their husbands at home for it is a shame for women to speak in the church. Ib. 35.

Let all things be done decently and in order Ib. 40

Last of all he was seen of me also, as of one born out of due time

For I am the least of the apostles, that am not meet to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God

But by the grace of God I am what I am Ib. xv. 8

I laboured more abundantly than they all yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me. Ib. 10

We are of all men most miserable. Ib. 19.

But now is Christ risen from the dead, and become

For he looked for a city which hath foundations Ib 10	This wisdom descendeth not from above, but is earthly, sensual, devilish Ib 15
These all died in faith Ib 13	Resist the devil, and he will flee from you Ib iv 7
Esteeming the reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures in Egypt Ib 26	For what is your life? It is even a vapour, that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away Ib 14
Of whom the world was not worthy Ib 38	Ye have heard of the patience of Job Ib v 11
Wherefore seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us, Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith Ib xii 1.	Let your yea be yea, and your nay, nay Ib 12
Whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth Ib 6	Whom having not seen, ye love First Epistle General of Peter 1 8
He found no place of repentance, though he sought it carefully with tears Ib 17	All flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass The grass withereth, and the flower thereof falleth away Ib 24.
The spirits of just men made perfect Ib 23	As newborn babes, desire the sincere milk of the word. Ib ii 2
Let brotherly love continue Be not forgetful to entertain strangers for thereby some have entertained angels unawares Ib xiii 1	But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people Ib 9
Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and to day, and for ever Ib 8	Abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul Ib 11
For here have we no continuing city, but we seek one to come Ib 14	Honour all men Love the brotherhood Fear God. Honour the king Ib 17
To do good and to communicate forget not Ib 16	For what glory is it, if, when ye be buffeted for your faults, ye shall take it patiently? but if, when ye do well, and suffer for it, ye take it patiently, this is acceptable with God Ib 20
Let patience have her perfect work General Epistle of James 1 4	The Shepherd and Bishop of your souls Ib 25
If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not. Ib 5	Ornament of a meek and quiet spirit Ib iii 4
Blessed is the man that endureth temptation; for when he is tried, he shall receive the crown of life Ib 12	Giving honour unto the wife, as unto the weaker vessel Ib 7
Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning. Ib 17	Not rendering evil for evil, or railing for railing but contrariwise blessing Ib 9.
Be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath For the wrath of man worketh not the righteousness of God Ib 19.	The end of all things is at hand Ib iv 7
	Charity shall cover the multitude of sins Ib 8

Clouds they are without water, carried about of winds. Ib.

Raging waves of the sea, foaming out their own shame, wandering stars, to whom is reserved the blackness of darkness for ever. Ib. 13.

John to the seven churches which are in Asia Grace be unto you, and peace, from him which is, and which was, and which is to come

The Revelation of St John the Divine 1 4.

Behold, he cometh with clouds, and every eye shall see him, and they also which pierced him: and all kindreds of the earth shall wail because of him. Even so, Amen

I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ending, saith the Lord Ib. 7

I John, who also am your brother, and companion in tribulation, and in the kingdom and patience of Jesus Christ, was in the isle that is called Patmos, for the word of God, and for the testimony of Jesus Christ

I was in the spirit on the Lord's day, and heard behind me a great voice, as of a trumpet. Ib. 9

What thou seest, write in a book, and send it unto the seven churches which are in Asia Ib. 11.

Being turned, I saw seven golden candlesticks. Ib. 12

Clothed with a garment down to the foot, and girt about the paps with a golden girdle. Ib. 13.

His head and his hairs were white like wool, as white as snow, and his eyes were as a flame of fire, And his feet like unto fine brass, as if they burned in a furnace, and his voice as the sound of many waters

And he had in his right hand seven stars and out of his mouth went a sharp twoedged sword and his countenance was as the sun shineth in his strength And when I saw him, I fell at his feet as dead. Ib. 14.

I am he that liveth, and was dead, and, behold, I am alive for evermore, Amen, and have the keys of hell and of death Ib. 18.

I have somewhat against thee, because thou hast left thy first love. Ib. 11 4.

Be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life. Ib. 10

I will give him a white stone, and in the stone a new name written, which no man knoweth saving he that receiveth it Ib. 17

I will not blot out his name out of the book of life Ib. 11 5

I will write upon him my new name. Ib. 12

I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot I would thou wert cold or hot

So then because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spue thee out of my mouth. Ib. 15

Behold, I stand at the door, and knock Ib. 20

And he that sat was to look upon like a jasper and a sardine stone and there was a rainbow round about the throne, in sight like unto an emerald Ib. 14 3

And before the throne there was a sea of glass like unto crystal and in the midst of the throne, and round about the throne, were four beasts full of eyes before and behind. Ib. 6.

They were full of eyes within and they rest not day and night, saying, Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty, which was, and is, and is to come Ib. 8.

Thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they are and were created. Ib. 11

Who is worthy to open the book, and to loose the seals thereof? Ib. v 2

A Lamb as it had been slain, having seven horns and seven eyes. Ib. 6

Golden vials full of odours, which are the prayers of saints Ib. 8.

He went forth conquering, and to conquer Ib. vi 2

A measure of wheat for a penny, and three measures of barley for a penny, and see thou hurt not the oil and the wine Ib. 6.

And I looked, and behold a pale horse and his name that sat on him was Death Ib. 8

How long, O Lord, holy and true, dost thou not judge and avenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth? Ib. 10.

And the stars of heaven fell unto the earth, even as a fig-tree casteth her untimely figs, when she is shaken of a mighty wind. Ib. 13.

Said to the mountains and rocks, Fall on us, and hide us from the face of him that sitteth on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb Revelation vi 16.

A great multitude, which no man could number, of all nations, and kindreds, and people, and tongues Ib vii 9.

And all the angels stood round about the throne, and about the elders and the four beasts, and fell before the throne on their faces, and worshipped God Ib 11.

And one of the elders answered, saying unto me, What are these which are arrayed in white robes? and whence came they? Ib 13

These are they which came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. Ib 14.

They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more, neither shall the sun light on them, nor any heat. Ib. 16.

God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes Ib 17.

There was silence in heaven about the space of half an hour Ib viii 1.

And the name of the star is called Wormwood Ib 11.

Those men which have not the seal of God in their foreheads. Ib ix 4.

And in those days shall men seek death, and shall not find it, and shall desire to die, and death shall flee from them Ib 6.

And there were stings in their tails. Ib. 10.

It was in my mouth sweet as honey and as soon as I had eaten it, my belly was bitter Ib x 10

The kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of his Christ Ib xi 15.

And there appeared a great wonder in heaven, a woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and upon her head a crown of twelve stars. Ib xii 1.

And there was war in heaven Michael and his angels fought against the dragon, and the dragon fought and his angels Ib 7.

The devil is come down unto you, having great wrath, because he knoweth that he hath but a short time Ib. 12.

A time, and times, and half a time Ib. 14

Who is like unto the beast? who is able to make war with him? Ib xiii 4.

And that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name Ib 17.

The number of the beast for it is the number of a man, and his number is Six hundred threescore and six Ib 18.

They sung as it were a new song and no man could learn that song but the hundred and forty and four thousand, which were redeemed from the earth. Ib xiv. 3.

And in their mouth was found no guile for they are without fault before the throne of God Ib 5

Babylon is fallen, is fallen, that great city. Ib. 8.

And the smoke of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever: and they have no rest day nor night, who worship the beast and his image. Ib 11

Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours, and their works do follow them. Ib. 13

And I saw as it were a sea of glass mingled with fire. Ib xv. 2

Behold, I come as a thief. Ib xvi 15

And he gathered them together into a place called in the Hebrew tongue Armageddon Ib 16

I will shew unto thee the judgment of the great whore that sitteth upon many waters Ib xvii 1

MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH

And I saw the woman drunken with the blood of the saints Ib 5.

And a mighty angel took up a stone like a great millstone, and cast it into the sea, saying, Thus with violence shall that great city Babylon be thrown down, and shall be found no more at all, Ib xviii 21

Blessed are they which are called unto the marriage supper of the Lamb. Ib xix 9.

And I fell at his feet to worship him And he said unto me, See thou do it not I am thy fellow-servant Ib. 10.

And I saw heaven opened, and behold a white horse, and he that sat upon him was called Faithful and True Ib. 11.

And he hath on his vesture and on his thigh a name written, KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS Ib 16.

The key of the bottomless pit Ib xx 1.

And he laid hold on the dragon, that old serpent, which is the Devil, and Satan, and bound him a thousand years Ib. 2.

On such the second death hath no power Ib 6

And I saw a great white throne. Ib 11.

And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God, and the books were opened Ib 12

And the sea gave up the dead which were in it Ib 13

And I saw a new heaven and a new earth for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away, and there was no more sea

And I John saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband Ib xxi. 1.

And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes, and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain for the former things are passed away

And he that sat upon the throne said, Behold, I make all things new And he said unto me, Write for these words are true and faithful Ib 4

I will give unto him that is athirst of the fountain of the water of life freely. Ib. 6.

The city was pure gold, like unto clear glass Revelation xxi. 18.
 The first foundation was jasper, the second, sapphire; the third, a chalcedony, the fourth, an emerald, The fifth, sardonyx, the sixth, sardius, the seventh, chrysolite, the eighth, beryl, the ninth, a topaz, the tenth, a chrysoprasus, the eleventh, a jacinth, the twelfth, an amethyst Ib 19.
 The twelve gates were twelve pearls. Ib 21.
 The street of the city was pure gold. Ib
 And I saw no temple therein Ib 22 And the city had no need of the sun, neither of the moon, to shine in it for the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the light thereof Ib 23 And he shewed me a pure river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God and of the Lamb Ib xxii 1.
 And the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations Ib 2.

He that is unjust, let him be unjust still and he which is filthy, let him be filthy still and he that is righteous, let him be righteous still and he that is holy, let him be holy still And, behold, I come quickly Ib 11.
 Whosoever loveth and maketh a lie. Ib 15 I am the root and the offspring of David, and the bright and morning star And the Spirit and the bride say, Come And let him that heareth say, Come And let him that is athirst come And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely Ib 16.
 If any man shall add unto these things, God shall add unto him the plagues that are written in this book Ib 18
 God shall take away his part out of the book of life, and out of the holy city, and from the things which are written in this book Ib 19 Amen Even so, come, Lord Jesus. Ib 20.

Ib Jamie Douglas

O waly, waly, up the bank,
 And waly, waly, doun the brae,
 And waly, waly, yon burn-side, Where I and my Love went to gae!

I lean'd my back unto an aik, I thocht it was a trustie tree;
 But first it bow'd and syne it brake—Sae my true love did lichtle me.

O waly, waly, gin love be bonnie A little time while it is new!
 But when 'tis auld it waxeth cauld,
 And fades awa' like morning dew.

O wherefore should I busk my heid, Or wherefore should I kame my hair?
 For my true Love has me forsook, And says he'll never lo'e me mair.

Ib

But had I wist, before I kist, That love had been sae ill to win,
 I had lock'd my heart in a case o' gowd,
 And pinn'd it wi' a siller pin

And O! if my young babe were born, And set upon the nurse's knee,
 And I mysel' were dead and gane,
 And the green grass growing over me!

O come ye here to fight, young lord, Or come ye here to play?
 Or come ye here to drink good wine Upon the weddin'-day?

Ib Katharine Johnstone.

Ye Highlands and ye Lawlands, O where hae ye been?
 They hae slain the Earl of Murray,
 And hae laid him on the green

Ib.

Ib The Bonny Earl of Murray.

He was a braw gallant,
 And he rid at the ring,
 And the bonny Earl of Murray,
 O he might hae been a king!

Ib.

He was a braw gallant,
 And he play'd at the gluvie,
 And the bonny Earl of Murray,
 O he was the Queen's luvie!

O lang will his Lady Look owre the Castle Downe, Ere she see the Earl of Murray Come sounding through the town!

The Percy out of Northumberland, An avow to God made he That he would hunt in the mountains Of Cheviot within days three,
 In the maugre of doughty Douglas,
 And all that e'er with him be

Ib Chevy Chase, 1 1

This began on a Monday at morn, In Cheviot the hills so hye,
 The child may rue that is unborn, It was the more pitye.

'But I hae dream'd a dreary dream, Beyond the Isle of Sky,
 I saw a dead man win a fight,
 And I think that man was I'

Ib [xix in the Scottish version, but not included in the Oxford Book version]

For Witherington my heart was woe That ever he slain should be For when both his legs were hewn in two Yet he kneel'd and fought on his knee

Ib 11. 1.

'God have mercy on his soul,' said King Harry,
 'Good Lord, if thy will it be!
 I've a hundred captains in England,' he said, 'As good as ever was he But Percy, an I brook my life, Thy death well quit shall be' Ib lviii.

A ship I have got in the North Country And she goes by the name of the Golden Vanty, O I fear she will be taken by a Spanish Ga-la-lee, As she sails by the Low-lands low Ib The Golden Vanty

He bored with his augur, he bored once and twice, And some were playing cards, and some were playing dice,

When the water flowed in it dazzled their eyes,
 And she sank by the Lowlands low
 So the Cabin-boy did swim all to the larboard side, Saying 'Captain! take me in, I am drifting with the tide!'

'I will shoot you! I will kill you!' the cruel Captain cried,

'You may sink by the Low-lands low' Ib

Then they laid him on the deck, and he closed his eyes and died,

As they sailed by the Low-lands low Ib.

O is my basnet a widow's curch?
 Or my lance a wand of the willow-tree?

Or my arm a lady's lily hand,
 That an English lord should lightly me!

Ib Kinmont Wilhe, x

He is either himself a devil frae hell, Or else his mother a witch maun be,

I wadna have ridden that wan water For a' the gowd in Christentie. Ib xlv

I wish I were where Helen lies, Night and day on me she cries,

O that I were where Helen lies, On fair Kirkconnell lea! Ib Helen of Kirkconnell

Lady Nancy she died out of pure, pure grief, Lord Lovel he died out of sorrow Ib Lord Lovel

All the trees they are so high,
 The leaves they are so green,

The day is past and gone, sweet-heart,
 That you and I have seen

It is cold winter's night, You and I must bide alone

Whilst my pretty lad is young And is growing Ib The Trees so High

In Scarlet town, where I was born, There was a fair maid dwellin',

Made every youth cry Well-a-way!
 Her name was Barbara Allen

All in the merry month of May,
 When green buds they were swellin',

Young Jemmy Grove on his death-bed lay, For love of Barbara Allen

Ib Barbara Allen's Cruelty

So slowly, slowly rase she up,
 And slowly she came nigh him,

And when she drew the curtain by—'Young man, I think you're dyin'!' Ib

'O mother, mother, make my bed, O make it saft and narrow My love has died for me to-day, I'll die for him to-morrow' Ib.

'Farewell,' she said, 'ye virgins all,
 And shun the fault I fell in Henceforth take warning by the fall Of cruel Barbara Allen' Ib.

And the Lowlands o' Holland has twin'd my love and me Ib The Lowlands o' Holland

'O haud your tongue, my daughter dear, be still and be content,

There are mair lads in Galloway, ye neen nae sair

'O there is none in Gallow, there's none at a' for me, For I never loved a love but one, and he's drown'd in the sea' Ib

There was a youth, and a well-beloved youth,
 And he was an esquire's son,

He loved the bailiff's daughter dear, That lived in Islington Ib The Bailiff's Daughter of Islington

But when his friends did understand His fond and foolish mind,

They sent him up to fair London, An apprentice for to bind. Ib

She stept to him, as red as any rose,
 And took him by the bridle-ring

'I pray you, kind sir, give me one penny, To ease my weary limb.'

'I prithee, sweetheart, canst thou tell me, Where that thou wast born?'

'At Islington, kind sir,' said she,
 'Where I have had many a scorn'

'I prithee, sweetheart, canst thou tell me Whether thou dost know

'The bailiff's daughter of Islington?'
 'She's dead, sir, long ago'

'Then will I sell my goodly steed, My saddle and my bow,

I will into some far country, Where no man doth me know'

'O stay, O stay, thou goodly youth!
 She's alive, she is not dead,

Hie she standeth by thy side,
 And is ready to be thy bride' Ib

When captains courageous, whom death could not daunt,

Did march to the siege of the city of Gaunt, They mustered their soldiers by two and by three,

And the foremost in battle was Mary Ambree Mary Ambree.

'Tom Pearse, Tom Pearse, lend me your grey mare, All along, down along, out along, lee.

NURSERY RHYMES

- Old King Cole
Was a merry old soul,
And a merry old soul was he,
He called for his pipe,
He called for his bowl,
And he called for his fiddlers three Nursery Rhymes Collected by James Orchard Halliwell (Phillipps), 1
- I had a little nut-tree, nothing would it bear But a silver nutmeg and a golden pear, The king of Spain's daughter came to visit me,
And all because of my little nut tree Ib. 5.
- The King of France went up the hill, With twenty thousand men,
The King of France came down the hill, And ne'er went up again Ib. 8
- Please to remember
The Fifth of November,

Seven, eight,
Lay them straight,
Nine, ten,
A good fat hen Ib. 35
- Pat-a-cake, pat-a-cake baker's man!
So I will, master, as fast as I can Pat, and prick it, and mark it with T, Put in the oven for Tony and me Ib. 36
- Taffy was a Welshman, Taffy was a thief, Taffy came to my house and stole a piece of beef I went to Taffy's house, Taffy was not at home, Taffy came to my house and stole a marrow-bone I went to Taffy's house, Taffy was not in, Taffy came to my house and stole a silver pin I went to Taffy's house, Taffy was in bed, I took up a poker and flung it at his head Ib. 42
- Little Jack Horner sat in the corner, Eating a Christmas pie
He put in his thumb, and he took out a plum, And said, 'What a good boy am I!' Ib. 43

He found a crooked shpence against a crooked stile He bought a crooked cat, which caught a crooked mouse, And they all lived together in a little crooked house Ib. 46
- The lion and the unicorn Were fighting for the crown, The lion beat the unicorn All round about the town
- Some gave them white bread, And some gave them brown,
Some gave them plum-cake,
And sent them out of town Ib. 56
- Three wise men of Gotham Went to sea in a bowl
And if the bowl had been stronger, My song would have been longer Ib. 59
- Tom, Tom, the piper's son, Stole a pig, and away he run!
The pig was cat, and Tom was beat,
And Tom went roaring down the street Ib. 61.
- Simple Simon met a pieman Going to the fair Says Simple Simon to the pieman, 'Let me taste your ware' Ib. 63
- The Queen of Hearts
She made some tarts,
All on a summer's day
The Knave of Hearts
He stole the tarts,
And took them clean away Ib. 65.
- Solomon Grundy,
Born on a Monday, Christened on a Tuesday, Married on a Wednesday, Took ill on Thursday, Worse on Friday,
Died on Saturday, Buried on Sunday
This is the end Of Solomon Grundy Ib. 67
- They that wash on Monday Have all the week to dry, 'They that wash on Tuesday Are not so much awry,
'They that wash on Wednesday Are not so much to blame, 'They that wash on Thursday Wash for shame,
'They that wash on Friday, Wash in need,
And they that wash on Saturday, Oh! they're sluts indeed Ib. 73
- He that would thrive Must rise at five,
He that hath thriven May lie till seven Ib. 76
- See a pin and pick it up, All the day you'll have good luck, See a pin and let it lay, Bad luck you'll have all the day! Ib. 77.
- When the wind is in the east,
'Tis neither good for man nor beast,
When the wind is in the north,
The skilful fisher goes not forth, When the wind is in the south, It blows the bait in the fishes' mouth;
When the wind is in the west, Then 'tis at the very best Ib. 79.

- Cross patch,
Draw the latch,
Sit by the fire and spin Take a cup,
And drink it up, Then call your neighbours in Cry, baby, cry,
Put your finger in your eye,
And tell your mother it wasn't I Mistress Mary, quite contrary, How does your garden grow?
With cockle shells, and silver bells,
And mussels all a row Tell tale, tit!
Your tongue shall be split,
And all the dogs in the town Shall have a little bit Multiplication is vexation, Division is as bad,
The Rule of Three doth puzzle me,
And Practice drives me mad Thirty days hath September, April, June, and November, February has twenty-eight alone,
All the rest have thirty-one, Excepting leap-year, that's the time When February's days are twenty-nine Three blind mice, see how they run!
They all ran after a farmer's wife, Who cut off their tails with the carving-knife, Did you ever see such fools in your life?
Three blind mice
If I'd as much money as I could spend,
I never would cry old chairs to mend,
Cry chairs to mend, old chairs to mend,
I never would cry old chairs to mend
The fox jumped up on a moonlight night Tom he was a piper's son, He learned to play when he was young,
But all the tunes that he could play, Was 'Over the hills and far away' London bridge is broken down, Dance o'er my lady lee
The north wind doth blow,
And we shall have snow,
And what will poor robin do then?
Poor thing!
He'll sit in a barn,
And to keep himself warm,
Will hide his head under his wing Poor thing!
Little Bo-Peep has lost her sheep,
And can't tell where to find them, Let them alone, and they'll come home,
And bring their tails behind them.
Sing a song of sixpence, A bag full of rye,
Four and twenty blackbirds, Baked in a pie,
When the pie was opened,
The birds began to sing,
Was not that a dainty dish To set before the king?
- The king was in his counting-house Counting out his money, The queen was in the parlour Eating bread and honey, The maid was in the garden Hanging out the clothes, There came a little blackbird, And snapt off her nose
As I was going to St Ives, I met a man with seven wives, Every wife had seven sacks, Every sack had seven cats, Every cat had seven kits, Kits, cats, sacks, and wives, How many were there going to St Ives?
Humpty Dumpty sat on a wall, Humpty Dumpty had a great fall, Three score men and three score more Cannot place Humpty Dumpty as he was before Pease-porridge hot, pease-porridge cold, Pease-porridge in the pot, nine days old King Charles walked and talked Half an hour after his head was cut off Peter Piper picked a peck of pickled pepper, A peck of pickled pepper Peter Piper picked,
If Peter Piper picked a peck of pickled pepper, Where's the peck of pickled pepper that Peter Piper picked?
Lark a mercy on me, this is none of ill
There was an old woman who lived in a shoe, She had so many children she didn't know what to do,
She gave them some broth without any bread, She whipped them all well and put them to bed Old Mother Hubbard Went to the cupboard,
To get her poor dog a bone, But when she came there
The cupboard was bare,
And so the poor dog had none Gay go up and gay go down, To ring the bells of London town Oranges and lemons
Say the bells of St Clement's When will you pay me?
Say the bells at Old Bailey When I grow rich, Say the bells at Shoreditch Here comes a candle to light you to bed,
And here comes a chopper to chop off your head.
See, saw, Margery Daw, Sold her bed and lay upon straw,
Was not she a dirty slut,
To sell her bed and lie in the dirt!
Ride a cock-horse to Banbury-cross,
To see an old lady ride upon a white horse, Rings on her fingers, and bells on her toes,
And so she makes music wherever she goes This pig went to market, This pig stayed at home,
This pig had a bit of meat,
And this pig had none,
This pig said, Wee, wee, wee!
I can't find my way home.

- Hickory, Dickory, Dock,
The mouse ran up the clock,
The clock struck one,
The mouse was gone;
O, U, T, spells out!
- Ib.* 226.
- How many miles is it to Babylon?— Threescore miles and ten Can I get there by candle-light?— Yes, and back again!
If you are nimble and light,
You may get there by candle-light
- Ib.* 230
- The man in the wilderness asked me, How many strawberries grow in the sea?
I answered him, as I thought good,
As many as red herrings grew in the wood
- Ib.* 259
- Bye, baby bunting, Daddy's gone a-hunting,
To get a little hare's skin To wrap a baby bunting in
- Ib.* 274
- Ding, dong, bell,
Pussy's in the well!
Who put her in?
Little Tommy Lin
- Ib.* 283
- Cock a doodle doo!
My dame has lost her shoe, My master's lost his fiddling-stick,
And don't know what to do.
- Ib.* 285.
- Hey! diddle-diddle,
The cat and the fiddle,
The cow jumped over the moon,
The little dog laughed
To see such craft,
While the dish ran after the spoon
- Ib.* 301.
- Jack Sprat could eat no fat,
His wife could eat no lean,
And so, between them both, you see, They licked the platter clean
- Ib.* 327.
- Rowley Poley, pudding and pie, Kissed the girls and made them cry, When the girls began to cry, Rowley Poley ran away
- Ib.* 347
- Four and twenty tailors went to kill a snail, The best man among them durst not touch her tail She put out her horns like a little Kyloe cow, Run, tailors, run, or she'll kill you all e'en now
- Ib.* 359
- Pussy cat, pussy cat, where have you been?
I've been up to London to look at the queen Pussy cat, pussy cat, what did you there?
I frightened a little mouse under the chair
- Ib.* 362
- Hickety, pickety, my black hen, She lays eggs for gentlemen, Gentlemen come every day To see what my black hen doth lay
- Ib.* 373
- Lady-cow, lady-cow, fly thy way home, Thy house is on fire, thy children all gone,
All but one that ligs under a stone, Ply thee home, lady-cow, ere it be gone
- Ib.* 380
- This is the farmer sowing his corn,
'That kept the cock that crowed in the morn, That waked the priest all shaven and shorn, That married the man all tattered and torn,
That kissed the maiden all forlorn, That milked the cow with the crumpled horn,
- That tossed the dog,
That worried the cat,
That killed the rat,
That ate the malt
That lay in the house that Jack built
- Ib.* 398.
- Goosey goosey gander, Whither shall I wander?
Up stairs, down stairs,
And in my lady's chamber,
There I met an old man
That would not say his prayers, I took him by the left leg,
And threw him down stairs
- Ib.* 414.
- What are little boys made of, made of?
What are little boys made of?
Snaps and snails, and puppy-dogs' tails, And that's what little boys are made of, made of What are little girls made of, made of, made of?
What are little girls made of?
Sugar and spice, and all that's nice, And that's what little girls are made of, made of
- Ib.* 416.
- Who comes here?
A grenadier
What do you want?
A pot of beer
Where is your money?
I've forgot
Get you gone,
You drunken sot!
- Ib.* 420.
- Bah, bah, black sheep,
Have you any wool?
Yes, marry, have I,
Three bags full—
One for my master,
And one for my dame,
But none for the little boy Who cries in the lane.
- Ib.* 440
- Daffy-down-dilly has come up to town,
In a yellow petticoat, and a green gown.
- Ib.* 444.
- Little Tom Tucker
Sings for his supper,
What shall he eat?
White bread and butter.
How shall he eat it Without e'er a knife?
How will he be married Without e'er a wife?
- Ib.* 446.
- Come, let's to bed, Says Sleepy-head, Tarry a while, says Slow;
Put on the pot,
Says Greedy-gut,
Let's sup before we go.
- Ib.* 447.
- When I was a little boy, I had but little wit, It is some time to go, and I've no more yet, Nor ever ever shall, until that I die, For the longer I live, the more fool am I
- Ib.* 455.
- Rain, rain, go away,
Come again another day, Little Arthur wants to play
- Ib.* 457
- Girls and boys come out to play, The moon doth shine as bright as day
- Ib.* 466.

Little boy blue, come blow up your horn,
The sheep's in the meadow, the cow's in the corn, Where's the little boy that looks after the sheep?
He's under the haystack fast asleep.
Will you wake him? No, not I,
For if I do, he'll be sure to cry Ib 468 Little Polly Flinders
Sate among the cinders,

Warming her pretty little toes Her mother came and caught her,
And whipped her little daughter For spoiling her nice new clothes. Ib 486.

One a penny, two a penny, hot cross-buns, If your daughters do not like them, give them to your sons. Ib 494.

THOMAS A KEMPIS

1380-1471

Opto magis sentire compunctionem quam scire eius definitionem

I had rather feel compunction, than understand the definition thereof Imitatio Christi, ch 1, § iii Trans by Anthony Hoskins

Sic transit gloria mundi

O, how quickly doth the glory of the world pass away! Ib ch 3, § vi

Passione interdum movemur et zelum putamus

We are sometimes moved with passion, and we think it to be zeal Quoted in ib ch 5, § 1.

Multo tutius est stare in subiectione quam in prae-latura

It is much safer to obey, than to govern Ib ch 9, § 1

Si libenter crucem portas portabit te

If thou bear the Cross cheerfully, it will bear thee Ib ch 12, § v

Nunquam sis ex toto otiosus, sed aut legens, aut scribens, aut orans, aut meditans, aut aliquid utili-tatis pro communi laborans

Never be entirely idle but either be reading, or writing, or praying, or meditating, or endeavouring something for the public good Ib ch 19, § iv.

Utinam per unam diem essemus bene conversati in hoc mundo

O that we had spent but one day in this world thoroughly well! Ib ch 23, § ii

ALCUIN

ST. AMBROSE

c 340-397

Si fueris Romae, Romano vivito more; Si fueris alibi, vivito sicut ibi

If you are at Rome live in the Roman style, if you are elsewhere live as they live elsewhere Quoted by Jeremy Taylor, Ductor Dubitantum, i 1 5

ST AUGUSTINE

354-430

Fecisti nos ad te et inquietum est cor nostrum, donec requiescat in te

Thou hast created us for thyself, and our heart cannot be quieted till it may find repose in thee Confessions, bk 1, ch 1 Trans by Watts Et illa erant fercula, in quibus mihi esurienti te inferebatur sol et luna

And these were the dishes wherein to me, hunger-starven for thee, they served up the sun and moon Ib bk iii, ch 6

Fieri non potest, ut filius istarum lacrimarum pereat It is not possible that the son of these tears should be lost Ib ch 12

Da mihi castitatem et continentiam, sed noli modo GIVE me chastity and continency, but do not give it yet Ib bk viii, ch 7.

Tolle lege, tolle lege

Take up and read, take up and read Ib ch 12.

Sero te amavi, pulchritudo tam antiqua et tam nova, sero te amavi et ecce intus eras et ego foris, et ibi te quaerebam

Too late came I to love thee, O thou Beauty both so ancient and so fresh, yet too late came I to love thee And behold, thou wert within me, and I out of myself, where I made search for thee Ib bk x, ch 27.

Continentiam iubes da quod iubes et iube quod vis Thou commandest me continency give me what thou commandest, and command what thou wilt Ib ch 29

Securus iudicat orbis terrarum

The verdict of the world is conclusive Contra Epist Parmen iii 24.

Salus extra ecclesiam non est

No salvation exists outside the church De Bapt iv, c, xvi, 24, referring back to St Cyprian's 'Habere non potest Deum patrem qui ecclesiam non habet matrem' (He cannot have God for his Father who has not the church for his mother), De Cath Eccl Umtate. vi.

Audi alteram partem

Hear the other side De Duabus Annabus, xiv ii.

Ama et fac quod vis

Love and do what you will

Popular version of St Augustine's 'Dilige et quod vis fac' (Love and do what you will), In Joann vii 8

Roma locuta est, causa finita est

Rome has spoken, the case is concluded Sermons, Bk 1

De vitis nostris scalam nobis facimus, si vitia ipsa calcamus

We make a ladder of our vices, if we trample those same vices underfoot Ib iii De Ascensione

AUGUSTUS CAESAR

63 B C - A D 14

Quintili Vare, legiones redde

Varus, give me back my legions Suetonius, Divus Augustus, 23.

Urbem . . . excoluit adeo, ut iure sit glorius marmoream se relinquere, quam latericiam accepisset He so improved the city that he justly boasted that he found it brick and left it marble Ib 28

JOSHUA BARNES?

Deus quos vult perdere, dementat prius Whom God would destroy, He first sends mad In his ed. of Euripides, Index Prior, s v Deus

ST. BERNARD

1091-1153

Liberavi animam meam.

I have freed my soul Epistle 371

CALIGULA

A D 12-41

Utinam populus Romanus unam cervicem haberet!
Would that the Roman people had but one neck!
Suetonius, Life of Caligula, 30

CATO THE ELDER

234-149 B C

Delenda est Carthago

Carthage must be destroyed Plutarch, Life of Cato

CATULLUS

87-54? B C

Cui dono lepidum novum libellum Arido modo pumice expolitur?

Here's my small book out, nice and new,
Fresh-bound—whom shall I give it to?
Carmine, 1, trans by Sir W. Marris

Namque tu solebas Meas esse aliquid putare nugas To you (Cornelius), who of yore Upon my trifles set some store

Ib

Plus uno maneant perenne saeclo

May it outlive an hundred year. Ib.

Lugete, O Veneres Cupidinesque, Et quantum est hominum venustiorum.
Passer mortuus est meae puellae, Passer, deliciae meae puellae.

Come, all ye Loves and Cupids, haste To mourn, and all ye men of taste, My lady's sparrow, O, he's sped,
The bird my lady loved is dead! Ib iii.

Qui nunc it per iter tenebrososum Illuc, unde negant redire quenquam And now he treads the gloomy track Whence no one, so they say, comes back Ib.

Sed haec prius fuere All this is over now Ib. iv.

Vivamus, mea Lesbia, atque amemus, Rumoresque senum severiorum Omnes unius aestimemus assis Soles occidere et redire possunt.
Nobis cum semel occidit brevis lux Nox est perpetua una dormienda Lesbia mine, let's live and love!

Give no doir for tattle of Crabbed old censorious men, Suns may set and rise again,
But when our short day takes flight Sleep we must one endless night Ib. v.

Da mi basia mille Kiss me times a thousand o'er Ib.

Miser Catulle, desinas ineptire Forgo your dream, poor fool of love. Ib viii.

At tu, Catulle, destinatus obdura But bide, Catullus, firm and set Ib.

Nec meum respectet, ut ante, amorem, Qui illius culpa cecidit velut prati Ultimi flos, praetereunte postquam Tactus aratro est

But ne'er look back again to find my love, My love, which for her fault has wilted now, Like meadow flower, upon the marge thereof, Touched by a passing plough Ib xi.

Totum ut te faciant, Fabulle, nasum To make you nose and only nose Ib xiii

O quid solutus est beatus curis?
Cum mens onus reponit, ac peregrino Labore fessi venimus larem ad nostrum, Desideratoque acquiescimus lecto Hoc est quod unum est pro laboribus tantis.
Salve O venusta Sirmio atque hero gaudet, Gaudete vosque O Lydiae lacus undae, Ridete quidquid est domi cachinnorum

What joy is like it? to be quit of care And drop my load, and after weary miles Come home, and sink upon the bed that so I used to dream of this one thing is worth All that long service Hail, sweet Sirmio!
Welcome thy lord with laughter, and give back Your laughter, waters of the Lydian lake Laugh, home of mine, with all your maddest mirth Ib. xxxi.

Quidquid est, ubicumque est, Quodcumque agit, renidet hunc habet morbum, Neque elegantem, ut arbitror, neque urbanum Whate'er the case, where'er he be,
 Or does, he smiles, with him it is a vice,
 And not, I think, a pretty one, nor nice Carmina, xxxix

Nam risu inepto res ineptior nulla est Untimely grinning is the silliest sin Ib Iam ver egehdos refert tepores Now Spring restores the balmy days Ib xlvi.

Gratias tibi maximas Catullus Agit pessimus omnium poeta, Tanto pessimus omnium poeta, Quanto tu optimus omnium's patronum Catullus gives you warmest thanks, And he the worst of poets ranks,
 As much the worst of bards confessed, As you of advocates the best Ib xlix

Ille mi par esse deo videtur, Ille, si fas est, superare divos, Qui sedens adversus identidem te Spectat et audit
 Dulce ridentem, misero quod omnis Eripit sensus mihi

Like to a god he seems to me, Above the gods, if so may be,
 Who sitting often close to thee May see and hear Thy lovely laugh ah, luckless man! Ib li

Quid est, Catulle? quid moraris emori?
 How now? why not be quick and die?
 Salaputium disertum!
 He can talk, that little cuss! Ib liii

Caeli, Lesbia nostra, Lesbia illa, Illa Lesbia, quam Catullus unam Plus quam se atque suos amavit omnes, Nunc in quadruvis et angiportis Glubit magnanimis Remi nepotes My Lesbia,—Lesbia, whom once Catullus loved of girls alone Above himself and all his own—Now into lanes and corners runs To traffic with proud Remus' sons Ib lviii

Torquatus volo parvulus Matris e gremio suae Porrigens teneras manus, Dulce rideat ad patrem Semihante labello Sit suo similis patri Manlio et facile insciis Noscitur ab omnibus, Et pudicitiam suo Matris indicet ore

I'd a wee Torquatus see Stretch soft finger-tips From his mother's lap, and smile Sweetly at his sire the while With half-parted lips,
 To his father Manlius so Very like, in sooth Even strangers him shall know,
 And his face alone shall show Forth his mother's truth. Ib lxi 209

Vesper adest, iuvenes, consurgite Vesper Olympo Expectata diu vix tandem lumina tollit Up, lads! 'tis Eve at last to longing eyes Upon Olympus Hesper lifts his ray Ib lxii. 1.
 Quid datur a divis felici optatus hora?
 What gift hath heaven to match thy happy hour?
Ib 30.

Ut flos in saeptis secretus nascitur hortis, Ignotus pecori, nullo contusus aratro, Quem mulcent aurae, firmat sol, educat imber; Multi illum pueri, multae optavere puellae.
 As grows a flower within a garden close, Known to no cattle, by no ploughshare smit, Suns give it strength, rain growth, and air repose,
 And many lads and lasses long for it Ib 39

Omnia fanda nefanda malo permixta furore, Iustificam nobis mentem avertere deorum.
 Then right and wrong confused and all at odds Turned from us the just judgment of the gods Ib lxiv 406

Sed mulier cupido quod dicit amanti, In vento et rapida scribere oportet aqua.
 But a woman's sayings to her lover, Should be in wind and running water writ Ib lxx.
 Desine de quoquam quicquam bene velle mereri, Aut alquem fieri posse putare pium Cease to expect to win men's gratitude, To think that human beings can be grateful.
Ib lxxiii.

Siqua recordanti benefacta priora voluptas Est homini
 If it be good to mind each kindly act. Ib lxxvi.

Difficile est longum subito deponere amorem.
 'Tis hard to drop at once old-standing love. Ib.

Si vitam puriter egi If my life be fair Ib.

O di, reddite mi hoc pro pietate mea.
 Gods, grant me this thing for my piety. Ib.

Chommoda dicebat, si quando commoda vellet Dicere
 'Hallowances' said Arnus, (meaning 'allowances') Ib lxxxiv.

Odi et amo quare id faciam, fortasse requiris Nescio, sed fieri sentio et excrucior I hate, I love—the cause thereof Belike you ask of me I do not know, but feel 'tis so,
 And I'm in agony. Ib lxxxv.

Si quicquam mutis gratum acceptumve sepulcris Accidere a nostro, Calve, dolore potest If the dumb grave, my Calvus, can receive Aught that is dear or grateful from our grief Ib xcvi

Multas per gentes et multa per aequora vectus Advenio has miseras, frater, ad inferias, Ut te postremo donarem munere mortis Et mutam nequiquam alloquerer cinerem Quandoquidem fortuna mihi tete abstulit ipsum, Heu miser indigne frater adempte mihi,

Nunc tamen interea haec prisco quae more parentum Tradita sunt tristi munere ad inferias, Accipe fraterno multum manantia fletu, Atque in perpetuum, frater, ave atque vale

By many lands and over many a wave I come, my brother, to your piteous grave, To bring you the last offering in death And o'er dumb dust expend an idle breath, For fate has torn your living self from me,
And snatched you, brother, O, how cruelly!
Yet take these gifts, brought as our fathers bade For sorrow's tribute to the passing shade, A brother's tears have wet thine o'er and o'er,
And so, my brother, hail, and farewell evermore!
Carmina, c.

At non effugies meos iambos

You shan't evade
These rhymes I've made

Ib. i xxii 82.

Nunquam se minus otiosum esse quam cum otiosus, nec minus solum quam cum solus esset

Never less idle than when wholly idle, nor less alone than when wholly alone. Ib. iii 1 1.

O fortunatam natam me consule Romam!

O happy Rome born when I was consul!
Quoted in Juvenal, x. 122

Omnes artes quae ad humanitatem pertinent habent quoddam commune vinculum et quasi cognatione quodam inter se continentur

All arts which have anything to do with man have a common bond and as it were contain within themselves a certain affinity

Pro Archia, i 11

Haec studia adolescentiam aconunt, senectutem oblectant, secundas res ornant, adversis perfugium ac solacium praebent, delectant domum, non impediunt foris, pernoctant nobiscum, peregrinantur, rusticantur

These studies are an impetus to youth, and a delight to age, they are an adornment to good fortune, refuge and relief in trouble, they enrich private and do not hamper public life, they are with us by night, they are with us on long journeys, they are with us in the depths of the country Ib. vii xvi

Oderint, dum metuant

Let them hate so long as they fear Philippic, i 14 (quoted from the tragedian Accius)

Quod di omen avertant

May the gods avert the omen Ib. iii xiv 35

Silent enim leges inter arma

Laws are inoperative in war Pro Milone, iv xi

Cui bono

To whose profit Ib. xii xxiii

Ne quid res publica detrimenti caperet

Lest any harm should come to the state Ib. xxvi lxx, quoting the senatorial 'ultimate decree', beginning 'caveant consules' (let the consuls see to it)

Quousque tandem abutere, Catilina, patientia nostra?

How long will you abuse our patience, Catiline?
In Catilinam, i 1 1

O tempora, O mores!

O what times, O what habits! Ib.

Abiit, excessit, evasit, erupit.

He departed, he withdrew, he went out, he broke forth In Catilinam, ii 1 1

Salus populi suprema est lex

The good of the people is the chief law

'Pictoribus atque poetis

Quidlibet audendi semper fuit aequa potestas'

Scimus, et hanc veniam petimusque damusque vicissim.

'Poets and painters,' you say, 'have always had an equal licence in daring invention' We know it this liberty we claim for ourselves and give again to others. Ib. 9

Inceptis gravibus plerumque et magna professis

Purpureus, late qui splendeat, unus et alter

Adsutur pannus

Often on a work of grave purpose and high promises is tacked a purple patch or two to give an effect of colour Ib. 14

Amphora coepit

Institutur currente rota cur urceus exit?

It was a wine-jar that was to be moulded as the wheel runs round why does it come out a pitcher? Ib. 21.

Brevis esse laboro,

Obscurus fio,

It is when I am struggling to be brief that I become unintelligible Ib. 25

Dixeris egregie notum si callida verbum

Reddidit iunctura novum.

You may gain the finest effects in language by the skilful setting which makes a well-known word new Ib. 47

Multa renascentur quae iam cecidere, cadentque

Quae nunc sunt in honore vocabula, si volet usus,

Quem penes arbitrium est et ius et norma loquendi

Many a term which has fallen from use shall have a second birth, and those shall fall that are now in high honour, if so Usage shall will it, in whose hands is the arbitrament, the right and rule of speech Ib. 70.

Grammatici certant et adhuc sub iudice lis est.

Scholars dispute, and the case is still before the courts Ib. 78.

feel pain yourself Ib 102

Servetur ad imum

Qualis ab incepto processerit, et sibi constet

Difficile est proprie communia dicere

See that it [a fresh character in a play] is kept to the end such as it starts at the beginning and is self-consistent

It is a hard task to treat what is common in a way of your own Ib 126

Parturient montes, nascetur ridiculus mus.

Mountains will be in labour, the birth will be a single laughable little mouse Ib 139

Dic mihi, Musa, virum, captæ post tempora Troiae

Qui mores hominum multorum vidit et urbis

Of him, my Muse, who, when Troy's ramparts fell, Saw many cities and men's manners, tell

Non fumum ex fulgore, sed ex fumo dare lucem

Cogitat

His thought is not to give flame first and then smoke, but from smoke to let light break out

Semper ad eventum festinat et in medias res

Non secus ac notas auditorem rapit

He ever hastens to the issue, and hurries his hearers into the midst of the story as if they knew it before Ib 148

Difficilis, querulus, laudator temporis acti

Se puero, castigator, censorque minorum

Multa ferunt anni venientes commoda secum,

Multa recedentes adiungunt

Testy, a grumbler, inclined to praise the way the world went when he was a boy, to play the critic and censor of the new generation The tide of years as it rises brings many conveniences, as it ebbs carries many away Ib 173

Ne pueros coram populo Medea trucidet

You will not let Medea slay her boys before the audience. Ib 185

Quodcumque ostendis mihi sic, incredulus odi

So I will play the part of a whetstone which can make steel sharp, though it has no power itself of cutting Ib 304.

Grais ingenium, Grais dedit ore rotundo

Musa loqui

It was the Greeks who had at the Muse's hand the native gift, the Greeks who had the utterance of finished grace Ib 323

Omne tulit punctum qui miscuit utile dulci,

Lectorem delectando pariterque monendo

He has gained every vote who has mingled profit with pleasure by delighting the reader at once and instructing him Ib 343

Indignor quandoque bonus dormitat Homerus

But if Homer, usually good, nods for a moment, I think it shame Ib 359

Ut pictura poesis

As with the painter's work, so with the poet's
Ib 361.

Mediocribus esse poetas

Non homines, non di, non concessere columnae

To poets to be second-rate is a privilege which neither men, nor gods, nor bookstalls ever allowed Ib 372

Tu nihil invita dices faciesve Minerva

You will say nothing, do nothing, unless Minerva pleases Ib 385

Nonumque prematur in annum

Let it be kept quiet till the ninth year Ib 388

Solve senescentem mature sanus equum, ne

Pecchet ad extremum ridendus et ilia ducat

Be wise in time, and turn your horse out to grass when he shows signs of age, lest he end in a ludicrous breakdown with straining flanks

Epistles, I 1 8, trans by Wickham

Nullius addictus iurare in verba magistri,

Quo me cumque rapit tempestas, deferor hospes

I am not bound over to swear allegiance to any master where the wind carries me, I put into port and make myself at home Ib 14

Virtus est vitium fugere, et sapientia prima

Stultitia caruisse

To flee vice is the beginning of virtue, and the beginning of wisdom is to have got rid of folly

Ib 41

Hic murus aeneus esto,

Nil conscire sibi, nulla pallescere culpa

Be this your wall of brass, to have no guilty secrets, no wrong-doing that makes you turn pale Ib 60

Si possis recte, si non, quocumque modo rem

Money by right means if you can, if not, by any means, money Ib 66

Olum quod vulpes aegrotò cauta leoni

Respondit referam 'quia me vestigia terrent,

Omnia te adversum spectantia, nulla retrorsum'

The wary fox in the fable answered the sick lion 'Because I am frightened at seeing that all the footprints point towards your den and none the other way' Ib 73

Qui quid sit pulchrum, quid turpe, quid utile, quid non,

Planius ac melius Chrysippo et Crantore dicit

Who shows us what is fair, what is foul, what is profitable, what not, more plainly and better than a Chrysippus or a Crantor Epist, I 11. 3.

Quidquid delirant reges plectuntur Achivi

For every folly of their princes the Greeks feel the scourge Epistles, I ii 14

Rursus quid virtus et quid sapientia possit

Utile proposuit nobis exemplar Ulixen Again, of the power of virtue and of wisdom he has given us a profitable example in Ulysses Ib 17

Nos numerus sumus et fruges consumere nati

We are the ciphers, fit for nothing but to eat our share of earth's fruits Ib 27.

Dimidium facti qui coepit habet sapere aude

He who has begun his task has half done it Have the courage to be wise Ib 40

Ira furor brevis est

Anger is a short madness Ib 62.

Omnem credere diem tibi diluxisse supremum

Grata superveniet quae non sperabitur hora Me pinguem et nitidum bene curata cute vides Cum ridere voles Epicuri de grege porcum Hold for yourself the belief that each day that dawns is your last the hour to which you do not look forward will be a pleasant surprise If you ask of myself, you will find me, whenever you want something to laugh at, in good case, fat and sleek, a true hog of Epicurus' herd Epis, I iv. 13

Nil admirari prope res est una, Numici,

Solaque quae possit facere et servare beatum Nought to admire is perhaps the one and only thing, Numicius, that can make a man happy and keep him so Epis, I vi 1

Naturam expelles furca, tamen usque recurrit

If you drive nature out with a pitchfork, she will soon find a way back Epis, I x 24

Tamen illic vivere vellem,

Oblitusque meorum obliviscendus et illis Yet I could find it in my heart to live there, forgetting my friends and forgotten by them Epis, I xi 8

Caelum non animus mutant qui trans mare currunt,

Strenua nos excreet inertia navibus atque Quadrigris petimus bene vivere Quod petis hic est, Est Ulubris, animus si te non deficit aequus

They change their sky, not their soul, who run across the sea We work hard at doing nothing we seek happiness in yachts and four-horse coaches What you seek is here—is at Ulubrae—if an even soul does not fail you. Ib 27

Concordia discors

Harmony in discord Epis, I xii 19

Principibus placuisse viuis non ultima laus est

Non cuius homini contingit adire Corinthum To have found favour with leaders of mankind is not the meanest of glories It is not every one that can get to Corinth Epis, I xvii 35

Et semel emissum volat irrevocabile verbum.

A word once let out of the cage cannot be whistled back again Epis, I xviii 71

Nam tua res agitur, paries cum proximus ardet

It is your own interest that is at stake when your next neighbour's wall is ablaze Ib 84

Tu, dum tua navis in alto est,

Hoc age, ne mutata retrorsum te ferat aura Oderunt hilarem tristes tristemque iocosum

For yourself, my friend, while your bark is on the sea, give all heed lest the breeze shift and turn your course back again The gloomy hate the cheerful, the mirthful the gloomy Ib 87.

Fallentis semita vitae

The untrodden paths of life. Ib 103

Sit mihi quod nunc est, etiam minus, et mihi vivam

Quod superest aevi, si quid superesse volunt di, Sit bona librorum et provisae frugis in annum Copia, neu flutem dubiae spe pendulus horae.
Sed satis est orare Iovem qui ponit et aufert, Det vitam, det opes aequum mi animum ipse parabo

Give me what I have, or even less, and therewith let me live to myself for what remains of life, if the gods will that anything remain Let me have a generous supply of books and of food stored a year ahead, nor let me hang and tremble on the hope of the uncertain hour Nay, it is enough to ask Jove, who gives them and takes them away, that he grant life and subsistence, a balanced mind I will find for myself Ib 107

Prisco si credis, Maecenas docti, Cratino, Nulla placere diu nec vivere carmina possunt Quae scribuntur aquae potioribus.

You know, Maecenas, as well as I, that, if you trust old Cratinus, no poems can please long, nor live, which are written by water-drinkers Epis, I xix 1

O imitatores, servum pecus.

O imitators, you slavish herd. Ib 19

Graecia capta ferum victorem cepit et artes Intulit agresti Latio

When Greece had been enslaved she made a slave of her rough conqueror, and introduced the arts into Latium, still rude Epis, II i 156

Si forte in terris, rideret Democritus

If he were on earth, Democritus would laugh at the sight Ib 194

Atque inter silvas Academae quaerere verum

And seek for truth in the garden of Academus Epis, II ii 45

Singula de nobis anni praedantur euntes

Years as they pass plunder us of one thing after another. Ib 55.

Multa fero, ut placem genus irritabile vatum

I have to submit to much in order to pacify the sensitive race of poets Ib 102

At qui legitimum cupiet fecisse poema, Cum tabulis animus censoris sumet honesti.

But the man who shall desire to leave behind him a poem true to the laws of art, when he takes his tables to write will take also the spirit of an honest censor Ib 109

Obscurata diu populo bonus eruet atque Proferet in lucem speciosa vocabula rerum, Quae prisca memorata Catonibus atque Cethegis Nunc situs informis premit et deserta vetustas

Phrases of beauty that have been lost to popular view he will kindly disinter and bring into the light, phrases which, though they were on the lips of a Cato and a Cethegus of old time, now lie uncouth because out of fashion and disused because old. Epistles, II II 115

Quid te exempta iuvat spinis de pluribus una?

Vivere si recte nescis, decede peritis Lusisti satis, edisti satis atque bibisti Tempus abire tibi est

How does it relieve you to pluck one thorn out of many? If you do not know how to live aright, make way for those who do. You have played enough, have eaten and drunk enough. It is time for you to leave the scene Ib 212

Beatus ille, qui procul negotiis,

Ut prisca gens mortalium, Paterna rura bubus exercet suis, Solutus omni faenore

Happy the man who far from schemes of business, like the early generations of mankind, ploughs and ploughs again his ancestral land with oxen of his own breeding, with no yoke of usury on his neck! Epodes, II 1

Maeceas atavis edite regibus, O et praesidium et dulce decus meum Maeceas, in lineage the child of kings, but oh! to me, my protector, pride, and joy Odes, I I 1, trans. by Wickham

Indocilis pauperiem pati.

To be content without wealth he finds too hard a lesson Ib 18

Quodsi me lyricis vatibus inseres, Sublimi feriam sidera vertice.

But if you give me a place among the bards of the lyre, I shall lift my head till it strikes the stars Ib 35

Audiet pugnas vitio parentum Rara iuventus

How they fought shall be told to a young generation scant in number for their parents' crimes Odes, I II 23

Animae dimidium meae

The half of my own life Odes, I. III 8

Illi robur et aes triplex

Circa pectus erat, qui fragilem truci Commisit pelago ratem

Primus.

His heart was mailed in oak and triple brass who was the first to commit a frail bark to the rough seas. Ib 9.

Audax omnia perpeti

Gens humana ruit per vitium nefas

In its boldness to bear and to dare all things, the race of man rushes headlong into sin, despite of law Ib 25.

Nil mortalibus ardui est

No height is too arduous for mortal men. Ib. 37

Pallida Mors aequo pulsata pede pauperum tabernas Regumque turris

Pale Death with impartial foot knocks at the doors of poor men's hovels and of kings' palaces Odes, I IV. 13.

Vitae summa brevis spem nos vetat incohare longam.

Life's short span forbids us to enter on far-reaching hopes. Ib 15

Quis multa gracilis te puer in rosa

Perfusus liquidis urget odoribus Grato, Pyrrha, sub antro?

Cui flavam religas comam,

Simplex munditius?

What delicate stripling is it, Pyrrha, that now, steeped in liquid perfumes, is wooing thee on the heaped rose-leaves in some pleasant grove?
 For whose eyes dost thou braid those flaxen locks, so trim, so simple? Odes, I V 1

Nil desperandum Teucro duce et auspice Teucro

No lot is desperate under Teucer's conduct and Teucer's star Odes, I VII 27

Cras ingens iterabimus aequor

To-morrow we set out once more upon the boundless sea Ib 32.

Permitte divi cetera

All else leave to the gods Odes, I IX 9

Quid sit futurum cras fuge quaerere et

Quem Fors dierum cumque dabit lucro

Appone

What shall be to-morrow, think not of asking Each day that Fortune gives you, be it what it may, set down for gain Ib 13

Donec virenti canities abest

Morosa

So long as youth is green and testy old age is far off Ib 17

Tu ne quaesieris, scire nefas

Pray, ask not,—such knowledge is not for us Odes, I XI 1

Dum loquimur, fugerit invida

Aetas carpe diem, quam minimum credula postero

Even while we speak, Time, the churl, will have been running. Snatch the sleeve of to-day, and trust as little as you may to to-morrow Ib 7

Velut inter ignis

Luna minores

As shines the moon among the lesser fires

Odes, I XII 47

Felices ter et amplius

Quos irrupta tenet copula nec malis

Divulsus querimoniae

Suprema citius solvet amoris die

Thrice happy they, and more than thrice, whom an unbroken bond holds fast, and whom love, never torn asunder by foolish quarrellings, will not loose till life's last day! Odes, I XIII 17.

O matre pulchra filia pulchrior

O fairer daughter of a fair mother Odes, I XVI 1.

Mater saeva Cupidinum

The impenious mother of Loves Odes, I XIX 1.

Integer vitae scelerisque purus

He that is unstained in life and pure from guilt Odes, I xxii 1

Dulce ridentem Lalagen amabo, Dulce loquentem

Still shall I love Lalage and her sweet laughter, Lalage and her sweet prattle Ib 23

Quis desiderio sit pudor aut modus Tam cari capitis?

What shame or measure should there be in grief for one so dear? Odes, I xxiv 1

Multis ille bonis flebilis occidit

Many a good man may weep for his death Ib 9

Durum sed levius fit patientia Quidquid corrigere est nefas

'Tis hard But what may not be altered is made lighter by patience Ib 19.

Parcus deorum cultor et infrequens.

A grudging and infrequent worshipper of the gods.
Odes, I xxxiv 1.

Nunc est bibendum, nunc pede libero Pulsanda tellus

Now we must drink, now beat the earth with free step. Odes, I xxxvii. 1.

Persicos odi, puer, apparatus

Persian luxury, boy, I hate Odes, I xxxviii 1

Mitte sectari, rosa quo locorum Sera moretur

Cease your efforts to find where the last rose lingers
Ib 3

Incedis per ignis

Suppositos cineri doloso Treading over fires hidden under a treacherous crust of ashes Odes, II 1 7

Crescit indulgens sibi dirus hydrops

The dread dropsy grows by indulging itself Odes, II 11 13

Aequam memento rebus in arduis

Servare mentem Remember when life's path is steep to keep your mind even Odes, II 111 1

Omnes eodem cogimur

We all are driven one road Ib 25

Ille terrarum mihi praeter omnis Angulus ridet

That nook of earth's surface has a smile for me before all other places. Odes, II. vi. 13.

Auream quisquis mediocritatem Diligit

Whoso loves well the golden mean Odes, II x 5

Sperat infestis, metuit secundis Alteram sortem bene praeparatum Pectus

The heart that is well forearmed hopes when times are adverse, and when they are favourable fears, a change of fortune Ib 13

Neque semper arcum

Tendit Apollo
Nor keeps Apollo his bow for ever strung
Ib 19

Eheu fugaces, Postume, Postume, Labuntur anni

Ah me, Postumus, Postumus, the fleeting years are slipping by Odes, II xiv, 1

Uxor

House and wife of our choice Ib 21

Nihil est ab omni Parte beatum

No lot is happy on all sides Odes, II xvi 27

Credite posteri

Believe it, after-years! Odes, II xix 2

Compulse clamorem ac sepulchri

Mitte supervacuos honores Check all cries, and let be the meaningless honours of the tomb. Odes, II xx 23

Odi profanum vulgus et arceo;

Favete linguis, carmina non prius Audita Musarum sacerdos Virginibus puerisque canto

I hate the uninitiate crowd and bid them avaunt.
Listen all in silence! Strains unheard before I, the Muses' microphone, now chant to maidens and to boys Odes, III 1 1

Omne capax movet urna nomen

Every name alike is shaken in her roomy urn Ib 16.

Post equitem sedet atra Cura

Black Care mounts on the horseman's pillion
Ib 40

Cur valle permute Sabina Divitias opesiores?

Why should I exchange my Sabine valley for wealth which adds to trouble? Ib. 47

Dulce et decorum est pro patria mori

To die for fatherland is a sweet thing and becoming Odes, III 11. 13

Virtus repulsae nescia sordidae Intaminatis fulget honoribus, Nec sumit aut ponit securis Arbitrio popularis aurae.

Virtue, which cannot know the disgrace of rejection, shines bright with honours that have no stain on them, nor takes nor resigns the rods at the shifting breath of the people's pleasure. Ib 17.

Raro antecedentem scelestum Deseruit pede Poena claudo.

Rarely has Punishment, though halt of foot, left the track of the criminal in the way before her
Ib 31.

Iustum et tenacem propositi virum

Non civium ardor prava iubentium, Non vultus instantis tyranni Mente quatit solida

The just man and firm of purpose not the heat of fellow citizens clamouring for what is wrong, nor presence of threatening tyrant can shake in his rocklike soul Odes, III 111. 1.

Si fractus illabatur orbis, Impavidum ferient ruinae

If the round sky should crack and fall upon him, the wreck will strike him fearless still

Odes, III iii 7

Aurum irrepertum et sic melius situm

The gold unfound, and so the better placed Ib 49

Non hoc iocosae conveniet lyrae

Quo, Musa, tendis?

This will not suit a mirthful lyre Whither away, my Muse? Ib 69

Auditus an me ludit amabilis Insania?

Do you hear it? Or is it a delightful madness that makes sport of me? Odes, III iv 5

Non sine dis animosus infans

A brave babe, surely, and some god's special care
Ib 20

Fratresque tendentes opaco

Pelion imposuisse Olympo

The brothers who strove to leave Pelion set on the top of leafy Olympus Ib 51

Vis consilii expers mole ruit sua

Force without mind falls by its own weight
Ib 65

O magna Carthago, probris

Altior Italiae ruinis!

O mighty Carthage, lifted higher for the shameful downfall of Italy! Odes, III v 39

Delicta maiorum immeritus lues

For the sins of your sire, albeit you had no hand in them, you must suffer Odes, III vi 1

Aetas parentum peior avis tulit

Nos nequiores, mox daturos

Progeniem vitiosorem

Our sires' age was worse than our grandsires' We their sons are more worthless than they so in our turn we shall give the world a progeny yet more corrupt Ib 46

Docte sermones utriusque linguae.

Learned . . . in the lore of either tongue Odes, III viii 5

Donec gratus eram tibi

So long as I found favour in your sight Odes, III ix 1

Tecum vivere amem, tecum obeam libens

With you I should love to live, with you be ready to die. Ib 24

Splendide mendax et in omne virgo

Nobilis aevum

With glorious falsehood , a maid famous to all time. Odes, III xi 35.

Miserarum est neque amor dare ludum neque dulci

Mala vino lavare

Poor maidens! who may neither let love have his way, nor wash away their troubles in sweet wine Odes, III. xii 1

O fons Bandusiae splendidior vitro.

O spring of Bandusia, more brilliant than glass.
Odes, III. xiii 1.

Non ego hoc ferrem calidus iuventa Consule Plancio.

I should not have borne it in my youth's hot blood when Plancus was consul Odes, III xiv 27.

Magnas inter opes inops.

A pauper in the midst of wealth Odes, III xvi 28.

O nata mecum consule Manlio pia testa

O born with me when Manlius was consul, my gentle wine-jar Odes, III xxi 1.

Quid leges sine moribus Vanae proficiunt?

What profit laws, which without lives are empty?
Odes, III. xxiv 35.

Vixi puellis nuper idoneus

Et militavi non sine gloria,

Nunc arma defunctumque bello

Barbiton hic paries habebit

Though that life is past, I was but now still meet for ladies' love, and fought my battles not without glory Now my armour and the lute, whose campaigns are over, will hang here on yonder wall.
Odes, III xxvi 1.

Fumum et opes strepitumque Romae

The smoke, and the grandeur and the noise . . of Rome Odes, III xxix 12.

Ille potens sui

Laetusque deget, cui licet in diem

Dixisse 'vixi cras vel atra

Nube polum Pater occupato

Vel sole puro'

He will through life be master of himself and a happy man who from day to day can have said, 'I have lived to-morrow the Sire may fill the sky with black clouds or with cloudless sunshine'
Ib 41.

Exegi monumentum aere perennius.

My work is done, the memorial more enduring than brass Odes, III xxx 1.

Non omnis moriar

I shall not all die Ib 6.

Non sum qualis eram bonae

Sub regno Cинаrae Desine, dulcium

I am other than I was when poor Cинаra was queen 'Try no more, 'imperious mother of sweet loves'.
[Cf Horace, Odes, I xix 1] Odes, IV 1 3

Numerisque fectur

Leges solutus

As he pours along in lawless rhythms Odes, IV ii. 11.

Quod spiro et placeo, si placeo, tuum est

Breath of song and power to please, if please I may, are alike of thee Odes, IV. iii. 24.

Fortes creantur fortibus et bonis

Gallant sons spring from the gallant and good Odes, IV iv 29.

Duris ut ilex tonsa bipennibus Nigrae feraci frondis in Algidis, Per darma, per caedis, ab ipso Ducit opes animumque ferro.

Like the holm-oak shorn by ruthless axes on Algidus where black leaves grow thick, through loss, through havoc, from the very edge of the steel draws new strength and heart

Merses profundo pulchrior evenit

Plunge it in the depth—it comes forth the fairer
Ib 65.

Occidit, occidit

Spes omnis et fortuna nostri Nominis Hasdrubale interempto

Fallen, fallen is all our hope and the fortune of our name in the death of Hasdrubal Ib 70

Diffugere nives, redeunt iam gramina campis Arboribus comae.

The snows have scattered and fled, already the grass comes again in the fields and the leaves on the trees Odes, iv vii 1

Immortalia ne speres, monet annus et alium Quae rapit hora diem

That you hope for nothing to last for ever, is the lesson of the revolving year and of the flight of time which snatches from us the sunny days Ib 7.

Damna tamen celeres reparant caelestia lunae Nos ubi decidimus

Quo pater Aeneas, quo Tullus dives et Ancus, Pulvis et umbra sumus

Yet change and loss in the heavens the swift moons make up again For us, when we have descended where is father Aeneas, where are rich old Tullus and Ancus, we are but some dust and a shadow.
Ib 13.

Dignum laude virum Musa vetat mori.

The hero who is worthy of her praise the Muse will not let die Odes, iv viii 28

Vivere fortes ante Agamemnona

Multi, sed omnes illacrimabiles

Urgentur ignotique longa

Nocte, carent quia vate sacro

Gallant heroes lived before Agamemnon, not a few but on all alike, unwept and unknown, eternal night lies heavy because they lack a sacred poet.
Odes, iv. ix. 25.

Quotiens bonus atque fidus

Iudex honestum praetulit utili

So often as, on a judgement-seat, generous and leal, he has set honour before expediency. Ib 40

Non possidentem multa vocaveris

Recte beatum rectius occupat

Nomen beati, qui deorum

Muneribus sapienter uti

Duramque callet pauperiem pati

Peiusque leto flagitium timet

It is not the possessor of many things whom you will rightly call happy The name of the happy man is claimed more justly by him who has learnt the art wisely to use what the gods give, and who can endure the hardships of poverty, who dreads disgrace as something worse than death.
Ib 45.

Misce stultitiam consiliis brevem

Dulce est desipere in loco

Mix with your sage counsels some brief folly In due place to forget one's wisdom is sweet Odes, iv xii 27.

Qui fit, Maecenas, ut nemo, quam sibi sortem

Seu ratio dederit seu fors obiecerit, illa

Contentus vivat, laudet diversa sequentes?

How comes it, Maecenas, that, whether it be self-chosen or flung to him by chance, every one is discontented with his own lot and keeps his praises for those who tread some other path?

Satires, i i 1. Trans by Wickham

Quamquam ridentem dicere verum

Quid vetat? Ut pueris olim dant crustula blandi Doctores, elementa velint ut discere prima

And yet, why may one not be telling truth while one laughs, as teachers sometimes give little boys cakes to coax them into learning their letters?

Mutato nomine de te

Fabula narratur

Change but the name, and it is of yourself that tale is told Ib 69

Est modus in rebus, sunt certi denique fines,

Quos ultra citraque nequit consistere rectum.

There is measure in everything There are fixed limits beyond which and short of which right cannot find resting-place. Ib 106

Hoc genus omne

All their kith and kin.

Sat, i ii 2

At ingenium ingens

Inculto latet hoc sub corpore

But under that uncouth outside are hidden vast gifts of mind Sat, i iii 33

Stans pede in uno

Without effort.

Sat, i iv 10.

Faenum habet in cornu

He carries hay on his horns

Ib 34.

Etam disiecti membra poetae

Even in his dismembered state, the limbs of a poet

Ib 62

Hic niger est, hunc tu, Romane, caveto

That man is black at heart Mark and avoid him, if you are a Roman indeed. Ib 85

Ad inguem

Factus homo

The pink of accomplishment

Sat, i v 32

Credat Iudaeus Apella,

Non ego

Apella the Jew must believe it, not I

Ib 100.

Naso suspendis aduncos

Ignotos

Hang on the crook of your nose those of unknown origin Sat, i vi 5

Sic me servavit Apollo

So Apollo bore me from the fray Sat, i ix 78

Solventur risu tabulae, tu missus abibis

In a tempest of laughter the Tables will go to pieces You will leave the court without a stain on your character Sat, ii i 86

Nec meus hic sermo est, sed quae praeceptum Ofellus Rusticus, abnormis sapiens crassaque Minerva

This is no talk of my own, but the teaching of Ofellus, the countryman, a philosopher, though not from the schools, but of home-spun wit

Sat, II II 2.

Par nobile fratrum

A noble pair of brothers. Sat, II III. 243.

Hoc erat in votis modus agri non ita magnus,

Hortus ubi et tecto vicinus iugis aquae fons

Et paulum silvae super his foret

This used to be among my prayers—a portion of land not so very large, but which should contain a garden, and near the homestead a spring of everflowing water, and a bit of forest to complete it

Sat, II VI 1

O rus, quando ego te aspiciam? quandoque licebit Nunc veterum libris, nunc somno et inertibus horis, Ducere sollicitae iucunda obliviae vitae?

O country home, when shall I look on you again! when shall I be allowed, between my library of classics and sleep and hours of idleness, to drink the sweet draughts that make us forget the troubles of life?

Ib. 60

O noctes cenaecae deum!

O nights and suppers of gods! Ib. 65

Responsare cupidinibus, contemnere honores

Fortis, et in se ipso totus, teres, atque rotundus

Who has courage to say no again and again to desires, to despise the objects of ambition, who is a whole in himself, smoothed and rounded

Sat, II VII 85

JULIUS CAESAR¹

102?-44 B.C.

Veni, vidi, vici

I came, I saw, I conquered

Suetonius, Divus Julius, xxxvii 2 (Inscription displayed in Caesar's Pontic triumph, or, according to Plutarch, I 2, written in a letter by Caesar, announcing the victory of Zela which concluded the Pontic campaign)

Iacta alea est

The die is cast.

Ib. xxxii.

(Caesar at the crossing of the Rubicon)

Et tu, Brute?

You also, Brutus?

Of unknown origin. Quoted by Shakespeare, 'Julius Caesar', III 1, perhaps from the (lost) Latin play 'Caesar Interfectus', probably from 'The True Tragedie of Richard Duke of York'. Some have written that as M. Brutus came running upon him, he said "καὶ σὺ, τέκνον", "and you, my son" (Holland's Suetonius, p. 33)

Gallia est omnis divisa in partes tres

All Gaul is divided into three parts

Si natura negat, facit indignatio versum

If nature denies the power, indignation would give birth to verses Ib. 79.

Quidquid agunt homines, votum timor ira voluptas Gaudia discursus nostri farrago libelli est

All that men are engaged in, their wishes, fears, anger, pleasures, joys, and varied pursuits, form the hotch-potch of my book Ib. 85

Dat veniam corvis, vexat censura columbas

Censure acquits the raven, but falls foul of the dove Ib. II 63

Nemo repente fuit turpissimus

No one ever reached the climax of vice at one step Ib. 83

Grammaticus rhetor geometres pictor aliptes

Augur schoenobates medicus magus, omnia novit

Graeculus esuriens, in caelum miseris, ibi (Alternative reading of last line in coelum iusseris, ibi)

Grammarians, rhetoricians, geometers, painters, trainers, soothsayers, rope-dancers, physicians, wizards—he knows everything. Bid the hungry Greekling go to heaven! He'll go. Ib. III 76

Nil habet infelix paupertas durius in se

Quam quod ridiculos homines facit

Poverty, bitter though it be, has no sharper pang than this, that it makes men ridiculous Ib. 152.

Haud facile emergunt quorum virtutibus opstat

Res angusta domi

Difficult indeed is it for those to emerge from obscurity whose noble qualities are cramped by narrow means at home. Ib. 164.

Your prayer must be that you may have a sound mind in a sound body. Pray for a bold spirit, free from all dread of death, that reckons the closing scene of life among Nature's kindly boons
Ib 356.

Nullum numen habes si sit prudentia, nos te,

Nos facimus, Fortuna, deam caeloque locamus

If we have wise foresight, thou, Fortune, hast no divinity. It is we that make thee a deity, and place thy throne in heaven!
Ib 365.

Iudice nemo nocens absolvitur

This is the punishment that first lights upon him, that by the verdict of his own breast no guilty man is acquitted Ib xiii 2.

Quippe minuti

Semper et infirmi est animi cuiusque voluptas

Ultio Continuo sic collige, quod vindicta

Nemo magis gaudet quam femina

Since revenge is ever the pleasure of a paltry spirit, a weak and abject mind! Draw this conclusion at once from the fact, that no one delights in revenge more than a woman
Ib 189

Maxima debetur puero reverentia, siquid

Turpe piras, nec tu pueri contempseris annos

The greatest reverence is due to a child! If you are contemplating a disgraceful act, despise not your child's tender years

Sweet it is, when on the great sea the winds are buffeting the waters, to gaze from the land on another's great struggles, not because it is pleasure or joy that any one should be distressed, but because it is sweet to perceive from what misfortune you yourself are free Sweet is it too, to behold great contests of war in full array over the plains, when you have no part in the danger But nothing is more gladdening than to dwell in the calm high places, firmly embattled on the heights by the teaching of the wise, whence you can look down on others, and see them wandering hither and thither, going astray as they seek the way of life, in strife matching their wits or rival claims of birth, struggling night and day by surpassing effort to rise up to the height of power and gain possession of the world Ib ii 1

Sic rerum summa novatur

Semper, et inter se mortales mutua vivunt

Augescent aliae gentes, aliae minuantur,

Inque brevi spatio mutantur saecula animantum

Et quasi cursores vitae lampada tradunt

Thus the sum of things is ever being replenished, and mortals live one and all by give and take Some races wax and others wane, and in a short space the tribes of living things are changed, and like runners hand on the torch of life Ib 75.

It was the hour when the first sleep of suffering mortality begins, and, by the grace of Heaven, steals on its sweetest errand of mercy Ib 268

Quantum mutatus ab illo Hectore qui redit exuvias indutus Achilli How was he changed from that Hector, who wended homeward, clad in the spoils of Achilles Ib 274-

Iam proximus aiet Ucalegon
Already neighbour Ucalegon burns Ib. 311.

Fumus Troes, fuit Ilium et ingens Gloria Teucrorum Trojans we are no more, Ilium is no more, and the great glory of the Teucrians is departed! Ib 325.

Una salus victis nullam sperare salutem There is but one safety to the vanquished—to hope not safety! Ib 354

Dis alter visum Heaven's thought was otherwise Ib. 428.

Non tali auxilio nec defensoribus istis Tempus eget
The hour calls not for such succour, nor such defenders Ib 521.

Sequiturque patrem non passibus aequis Follows his father with unmatched step Ib. 724.

Quid non mortalia pectora cogis, Auri sacra fames!
O cursed lust of gold, to what canst thou not compel the heart of man! Ib 111 56

Monstrum horrendum, informe, ingens, cui lumen ademptum
A monster fearful and hideous, vast and eyeless
Ib 658.

Agnosco veteris vestigia flammae I feel again a spark of that ancient flame. Ib. iv. 23.

Virisque adquirit eundo At every step she gathers strength. Ib. 175.

Sese interea
Temptaturum aditus et quae molissima fandi Tempora Himself meanwhile would assay to find access and watch what hour might be the smoothest for his tale Ib 291

Quis fallere possit amantem?
Who shall deceive a lover's thought? Ib 296

Nec me meminisse piget Elissae Dum memor ipse mei, dum spiritus hos regit artus Nor ever shall the thought of Elissa be bitter to me, while yet I have remembrance of myself and the breath governs these limbs Ib. 335

Varium et mutabile semper Femina
A fickle thing and changeful is woman always!
Ib 569.

Exoriare aliquis nostris ex ossibus ultor Arise, thou avenger to come, out of my ashes
Ib 625.

Hos successus alit possunt, quia posse videntur.

To those success was good, and the semblance of power gave power indeed Aeneid, v. 231

Facilis descensus Averno

Noctes atque dies patet atri ianua Ditis, Sed revocare gradum superasque evadere ad auras, Hoc opus, hic labor est

Light is the descent to Avernus! Night and day the portals of gloomy Dis stand wide but to recall thy step and issue to the upper air—there is the toil and there the task! Ib vi 126

Primo avulso non deficit alter

Aureus, et simili frondescit virga metallo

When the first is rent away a second, golden no less, succeeds, and the bough blossoms with ore as precious Ib 143

'Procul, o procul este, profani'

Hence, O hence, ye that are uninitiated! Ib 258

Nunc animus opus, Aenea, nunc pectore firmo

Now is the hour, Aeneas, for the dauntless spirit —now for the stout heart Ib 261

Vestibulum ante ipsum primis in faucibus Orci

Luctus et ultrices posuere cubilia Curae, Pallentesque habitant Morbi tristisque Senectus,

Et Metus et malesuada Fames ac turpis Egestas Hard before the portal, in the opening jaws of Hell, Grief and avenging Cares have made their couch, and with them dwell wan Disease and sorrowful Age, and Fear, and Hunger, temptress to Sin, and loathly Want Ib 273

Tendebantque manus ripae ulterioris amore

Their hands outstretched in yearning for the farther shore Ib 314

Inventas aut qui vitam excoluere per artis,

Quique sui memores alios fecere merendo

Or who ennobled life by arts discovered, with all whose service to their kind won them remembrance among men Ib 663

Spiritus intus alit, totamque infusa per artus

Mens agitat molem et magno se corpore muscet

An indwelling spirit sustains, and a mind fused throughout the limbs sways the whole mass and mingles with the giant frame Ib 726

Igneus est ollis vigor et caelestis origo

Seminibus

To these seeds a flame-like vigour pertains and an origin celestial Ib 730

Tu regere imperio populos, Romane, memento (Hae tibi erunt artes), pacisque imponere morem, Parcere subiectis et debellare superbos

Roman, be this thy care—these thine arts—to bear dominion over the nations and to impose the law of peace, to spare the humbled and to war down the proud! Ib 851

Sunt geminae Somni portae, quarum altera fertur

Cornu, qua veris facilis datus exitus umbris,

Altera candenti perfecta nitens elephanto,

Sed falsa ad caelum mittunt insomnia manes

There are two gates of Sleep —of horn, fame tells, the one, through which the spirits of truth find an easy passage, the other, wrought smooth-gleaming with sheen of ivory, but false the visions that the nether powers speed therefrom to the heaven above. Ib 893

Genumque loci precat.

Implored the Genius of the place. Ib vii 136.

Flectere si nequeo superos, Acheronta movebo

And if Heaven be inflexible, Hell shall be unleashed! Ib 312.

O mihi praeteritos referat si Iuppiter annos

O, would Jupiter restore me the years that are fled!
Ib viii 560

Quadripedante putrem sonitu quatit ungula campum

The sound of galloping hooves shook the crumbling plain Ib 596

Me, me, adsum qui feci, in me convertite ferrum.

On me,—here I stand who did the deed,—on me turn your steel Ib ix 427.

Dum domus Aeneae Capitoli immobilis saxum

Accolet imperrumque pater Romanus habebit

So long as the house of Aeneas shall dwell by the Capitol's unmoved rock and the Father of Rome bear sceptre! Ib 448

Macte nova virtute, puer, sic itur ad astra

Good speed to thy youthful valour, child! So shalt thou scale the stars! Ib 641

Audentis Fortuna iuvat

Fortune is ally to the brave. Ib x 284.

Experto credite

Credit one who has proved. Ib xi 283.

Audit et voti Phoebeus succedere partem Mente dedit, partem volucris dispersit in auras.

Phoebeus heard, and in thought vouchsafed that half his vow should prosper half he scattered to the fleet winds Ib xi 794.

Di me terrent et Iuppiter hostis

The gods dismay me, and Jove my foe! Ib xii 895.

Tityre, tu patulae recubans sub tegmine fagi

Silvestrem tenui musam meditaris avena

Tityrus, thou liest canopied beneath thy spreading beech and wooing the silvan Muse on thy slender oat Eclues, i i Trans by Jackson

Formosam resonare doces Amaryllida silvas.

Thou teachest the responsive woods to call Amaryllis fair! Ib 5

O Meliboeus, deus nobis haec otia fecit

O Meliboeus, it was a god gave us this peace Ib 6

Non equidem invidéo, miror magis

As for me I grudge thee not—rather I marvel!
Ib 11

Verum haec tantum alias inter caput extulit urbes

Quantum lenta solent inter viburna cypressi

But, above all other cities, this so far exalts her head as the cypress above the lissom osiers!

Et penitus toto divisos orbe Britannos

Or where the Briton dwells utterly estranged from all the world! Ib 66

Formosum pastor Corydon ardebat Alexim

Shepherd Corydon was all aflame for fair Alexim Ib ii 1.

O formose puer, nimium ne crede colori!

Sweet boy, trust not over much to thy hue!

Eclogues, II 17

Quem fugis, a, demens? Habitatundi quoque silvas.

Ah, madman, whom dost thou flee? Even gods have dwelt in woods. Ib 60

Trahit sua quemque voluptas

Each draws to his best-beloved Ib 65

Nunc frondent silvae, nunc formosissimus annus

Now the woods are green, and the year is loveliest Ib III 57.

Ab Iove principium musae.

From Jove my lay begins. Ib 60.

Malo me Galatea petat, lasciva puella,

Et fugiat salices et se cupit ante videri Galatea, wayward girl, pelts me with apples, then runs behind the willows—and hopes I saw her first! Ib 64

Latet angus in herba

A cold snake lurks in the grass! Ib 93

Non nostrum inter vos tantas componere lites

Not ours to decide such high dispute! Ib 108

Claudite iam rivos, pueri, sat prata biberunt Swains, close now the springs The meadows have drunk enough! Ib 111.

Sicelides Musae, paulo maiora canamus!

Non omnis arbusta iuvant humilisque myrica

Si canimus silvas, silvae sint consule dignae

Ultima Cumaei venit iam carminis aetas, Magnus ab integro saeculorum nascitur ordo.

Iam redit et virgo, redeunt Saturnia regna

Iam nova progenies caelo demittitur alto.

Sicilian Muses, let us raise a somewhat loftier strain Not all do orchards and the lowly tamarisk delight If the woodland be our theme, let our woods be worthy of a consul's ear! The last age, heralded in Cumean song, is come, and the great march of the centuries begins anew Now the Virgin returns now Saturn is king again, and a new and better race descends from on high

Ib IV 1

Incipe, parve puer, risu cognoscere matrem

Begin, baby boy, to know thy mother with a smile
Ib 60

Incipe, parve puer qui non risere parenti,

Nec deus hunc mensa, dea nec dignata cubili est Begin, baby boy! Him who had never a smile for a parent, no god honours with his board, no goddess with her bed! Ib 62

Arcades ambo,

Et cantare pares et respondere parati.

Both Arcadians, both ready to sing in even contest, both ready to make reply! Ib VII 4

Saepebus in nostris parvam te roscida mala

(Dux ego vester eram) vidi cum matre legentem

Alter ab undecimo tum me iam acceperat annus,

Iam fragilis poteram a terra contingere ramos

Ut vidi, ut perii, ut me malus abstulit error!

Within our orchard's walls I saw thee—for I was there to point the way—a little maid gathering dewy apples with my mother! Eleven years I had numbered, and the twelfth already claimed me, from the ground already I could reach the frail boughs Ah, how I saw! How I fell! How that fatal blindness swept me away! Ib VIII 37

Nunc scio quid sit Amor

Now do I know what Love is! Ib 43.

Non omnia possumus omnes.

All power is not to all. Ib 63.

Et me fecere poetam

Pierides, sunt et mihi carmina, me quoque dicunt

Vatem pastores, sed non ego credulus illis

Nam neque adhuc Vario videor nec dicere Cinna

Digna, sed argutos inter strepere anser olores

Me, too, the Pierian sisters have made a singer, I, too, have songs ay, and the shepherds dub me poet, but I trust them not! For as yet, methinks, my strains befit not a Varius nor a Cinna, but, gooselike, I cackle amid quiring swans! Ib IX 32.

Omnia vincit Amor et nos cedamus Amori

Love is lord of all yield we, too, to Love!
Ib X 69

Ite domum saturae, venit Hesperus, ite capellae

Get ye home, my full-fed goats, get ye home—the Evening-star draws on! Ib 77

Ultima Thule

Farthest Thule Georgics, I 30 Trans by Jackson.

Labor omnia vincit

Improbis et duris urgens in rebus egestas.

Never-flinching labour proved lord of all, and the stress of need in a life of struggles! Ib 145

Imponere Pelio Ossam

Sicilicet, atque Ossae frondosum involvere Olympum

In sooth to pile Ossa on Pelion and roll leaf-crowned Olympus on Ossa Ib 281.

Miscueruntque herbas et non innoxia verba

Mingled herbs and charms of bale Ib II 129.

Salve, magna parens frugum, Saturnia tellus,

Magna virum

Hail, Saturn's land, great mother of the harvest, great mother of men! Ib 173

O fortunatos nimium, sua si bona norint, Agricolae! Quibus ipsa procul discordibus armis Fundit humo facilem victum iustissima tellus

Ah, blest beyond all bliss the husbandmen, did they but know their happiness! On whom, far from the clash of arms, the most just Earth showers from her bosom a toilless sustenance
Ib 458

Felix qui potuit rerum cognoscere causas

Happy he, who has availed to read the causes of things Ib 490.

Streptumque Acherontis avari

The roaring of the hungry stream of Death! Ib 492.

Fortunatus et ille deos qui novit agrestis

And happy he, who has knowledge of the woodland gods Ib 493

Temptanda via est, qua me quoque possim Tollere humo victorque virum volitare per ora

I must assay a path, whereby I may raise me from earth and flit conqueror through the mouths of men! Georgics, iii. 8

Optima quaeque dies miseris mortalibus aevi Prima fugit subeunt morbi tristisque senectus Et labor, et durae rapit inclementia mortis

It is ever the brightest day of life that is first to bid adieu to our hapless mortality disease and gloomy old steal upon us, and anon suffering, and the ruthless tyranny of Death, sweep us away Ib 66

Sed fugit interea, fugit irreparabile tempus.

Meanwhile, Time is flying—flying, never to return Ib 284

Hi motus animorum atque haec certamina tanta Pulvis exigui iactu compressa quiescent

Yet all this tumult of soul and all this savagery of conflict may be quelled and laid to rest by the scattering of a little dust! Ib iv 86

Agmine facto

Ignavum fucus pecus a praesepebus arcent

They form in array and cast out the drones and their idle bands from the homestead Ib 167.

At genus immortale manet, multosque per annos Stat fortuna domus, et avi numerantur avorum

Yet the race abides immortal, the star of their house sets not through many years, and grand-sire's grandsire is numbered in the roll Ib 208

Victorque volentis

Per populos dat iura viamque adfectat Olympo

Assigning, in victorious march, laws to the willing nations, and assaying on earth the path to Heaven! Ib 561

VULGATE

Fiat lux

Let there be light Genesis 1. 3.

Dominus illuminatio mea.

The Lord is my light. Psalms 27.

Quo vadis?

Whither goest thou? John xvi 5

Ecce homo

Behold the man. Ib xix 5

NOTE

THE order of the index both in the keywords and in the entries under the keywords is strictly alphabetical. To save space the keyword is replaced by its initial letter in the individual entries, and the following abbreviations have been used with the same intention—shd, wd, cd, yr, yrs, for should, would, could, your, and yours. The general plan has been to allow two words of index for each line of verse—though it has been found impossible to limit the number to two in the most well-known quotations—and to index the principal words in the prose passages. The entries have been made as intelligible as possible in the limited space in order that the index may be used not only to track a known or half-known quo-tion but to supply a quotation on some particular subject.

Irregular spellings (such as occur in Dickens, Artemus Ward, &c.), early English words, dialect words, and Cockneyisms are indexed under their correct or English equivalents, except where the words have no such exact equivalent—thus alleybi, blude, vision, fluce, trouthe, &c., are indexed under alibi, blood, vision, face, and truth respectively, while arts, galumphing, latoun, tapsalteerie, &c., have entries of their own.

Greek, Latin, and other foreign quotations each have a separate index of their own following after the English index.

Day (cont.)

superluous burden loads the d sweet d, so cool, so calm that d shd be so soon the better d, the worse deed the brightness of the d the d and the way we met the d be never so long the d breaks not the d but one the d gone by the d is aye fair the d is gone the d must dawn the d of spirits the d will be to-day the gentle d dapples the east the great, the important d the long d done there's night and d, brother this and every d this d I breathed first this d is called Crispian the d is yr own this d may be the last this d shall gentle his condition this good d new-born thus long weary d have end this petty pace from d to d those eyes, the break of d tho' the d be never so long thousand Blossoms with the D till next d, there she lay to hold from this d forward until the breaking of the d until the d break unto my dying d, sir welcom the lamp of d w en de great d comes what a d may bring forth what glance of d when this d is named while the d ran by wished for the d withstand in the evil d woe worth the dark d yield d to night young dawn of our eternal d !
Daybreak white tremendous d Day-dreams of melancholy men Daylight and the d's part between the dark and d d comes, comes in the light in death yr d finish long and lone d night is but the d sick see a church by d we burn d 141a, 355b Days all our d are gone all the d that's in the week Ancient of d 172b, 504a as thy d, so shall thy strength beauty and length of d because the d are evil born to inglorious d brave d of old childish d, that were as long considered the d of old d and moments quickly flying d dividing lover and lover d in goodness spent d may come, the d may go d of danger, nights of waking d of man are but as grass d of our tropic youth d seem lank and long d that are no more d that are one with human art d that are over d thought of grief refuse dreams of d forsaken even as our d do grow even from my boyish d evil d come not fain see good d fall'n on evil d fall from the d that have been find it after many d forty d and forty nights full of d, riches, and honour green d in forests

Days (cont.)

how many d will finish year I am but two d old
I am weary of d and hours I have put my d out of mind in her d every man shall eat man is of few d my d among the dead are passed my d are in the yellow leaf my d are swifter than shuttle my d are trances my d wh are at best but dull my salad d no other things diurnal not without honour my d ran one of my well-looking d past our dancing d praise my d for all they bring psalm of green d remember d that have gone by Rosa of all my d seven d and nights seven whole d she has seen dark d before sit here on and off, for d and d six d shall thou labour sound wh in those d I heard spring full of sweet d then, if ever, come perfect d three whole d together thy d may be long in the land thy young d shaded time d draw'd out to lengthen our d to lose good d to scape stormy d we have seen better d we shall shortly see better d what dark d seen wh the d never know whose d are dwindled wish my d to be with multitude of d world of happy d wrought in ancient d you lament not the d Day-star so sinks the d Day-time I cry in the d Dayrolles a chair

Dazed all d with flowers Dazzle mine eyes d see the sights that d you d my eye Dazzled by the paint Dazzles at it, as at eternity

Dearer (cont.)

d yet the brotherhood O d far than light was there a d one Dearest assure you she's the d girl d her constancy d idol I have known then, d 'ance 'tis so Dearie for thinking on my d my ain kind d O my arms about my d O flew o'er me and my d my bonnie d Dearest a distant d in the hill Dearest nature swears, the lovely d Dearth all whom war, d, age, agues inhuman d of noble natures measure in a year of d pine within and suffer d Death absence worse than d a covenant with d Adam brought d into the world after my d I wish no herald against the hour of d a lightning before d all seasons for thine own, O D all the joy before d a man that apprehends d anarchy the laws of d ancients dreaded d and back resounded, D and the shadow of d angel of d has been abroad Angel of D spread his wings armed against all d 's endeavour arms of cool-enfolding d at my d, thy 'un shall shine back to a world of d be absolute for d be dashed with rotten d be thou faithful unto d bitterness of d is past body of this d breast of the old nurse, D brought d into the world but my after his d moot wepe Byron's eyes were shut in d call in thy d 's-head there can this be d certain d by shame attended certain, except d and taxes charmer in the silent halls of d come away, d come to the bridal-chamber, D commands she be stoned to d counts d kind Nature's signal dare e'en D to die for thee daughter at the point of d daughter of D and Priapus day of d than the day of birth dear, beautiful d d after life does greatly please d amusing in itself D and his brother Sleep D, that's what's For Ever d, a necessary end d, as the Psalmist saith, is certain d bandaged my eyes d been his next-door neighbour d, be not proud d broke at once the vital chain d by slanderous tongues d came with friendly care d closes all d comes to young men d cometh soon or late d complete the same d distinguished from dying D I ere thou hast aland another d extinguisheth envy d has done all d can d has left on her only d has made his darkness d has no more dominion d hath so many doors d hath ten thousand doors d have we hated d, in itself, is nothing D in the cup
d in the pot

Death (cont.)

d is but a groom d is d, but we shall die d is our physician d is parting d is still working d is the cure of all diseases d is the privilege of nature d is the veil d joins us to the majority d lays his icy hand on kings d lies dead d, like a narrow sea, divides d met d too, and saw the dawn d must be like all the rest d my days shd explete D My lord? A grave d of a dear friend d of each day's life d of Nelson was felt in England d of poor Cock Robin d of the Blatant Beast d of y' daughter a blessing D once dead
d opens unknown doors D, poor man's dearest friend d 's dead and nought d shall lie from them d 's imperishable wing d 's pale flag is not advanced d 's second self d 's self is sorry d stands above me d 's untimely frost D, the consoler d the journey's end D, the last best friend D, the Skeleton
d thou shalt die d took him mellow d unloads thee D, when'er he call too soon d will come when thou art dead d will find me before I tire d will have his day d will turn to your slave delivered my soul from d dens, and shades of d desultory feet of D die a dry d die not, poor d die the life of the righteous d dreadful they had disappointed by that stroke of d Doctor said that D was but a fact doom'd to d, tho' fated dotard D drank d like wine at Austerlitz d read of someth' after d dreadful, brink of obvious d eaten to d with rust eloquent, just, and mighty D face to meet with d faith that looks thro' d fear d danger of violent d fears d to feel the fog fears only the stroke of d fed on the fullness of d first day of d is fled fluting a wild carol ere her d for any pains of d, to fall for D had illumined the land for d 's sweet chrism retain'd for restless d I cry foreknow in d 's worst hour friend and enemy is but D from sudden d gave me liberty or gave me d glad to d 's mystery go hand in hand to d gone to her d guiltless d I die half dead, a living d harbours of blood and d here importune d awhile here life has d for neighbour he shall be our guide unto d his d, wh' happened in his berth his means of d his name that sat on him was D hob-and-nob with brother D

honour in one eye d i' the other 337b how wonderful is D 393b hungry stream of D 557b I cd not look on D 228b if die, brave d 370a if it d alone must die 445a I fled, and cry'd out, D 273a if thou canst D defy 372a I have often thought upon d 16b in d they were not divided 405b in d yr daylight finish 48b in the vasty Hall of D 7b in his eyes forlorn, beside of d 46b in life, in d, O Lord, abide 251b in love with careful D 220a in our very d and burial 228a in the hour of d 478b in those days shall men seek d 519a into the gulf of d 391b into the jaws of D 426a into the valley of Death 426a it is but D who comes 318a I will be a bridegroom in my d 324b joins issues with d 51b keep a league till d 376a keeps D his court 375b keys of hell and d 518b King D hath asses' ears 24a kiss the image of my d 138a kneeling by his bed of d 137b lapwings feel the leaden d 304a last enemy as d 72b last look by d revealed 309b lead him to D 107b life d does end 441a life is a coquetry of D 44a Life, the shadow of d 420b life to him wd be d to me 223b little room do we take up in d 401a look on d itself 348a love is strong as d 501a lovely and soothing d 458b love thee better after d 44a made a covenant with d 502a make d proud to take us 324b make one in love with d 391b marriage and d and division 421a masters the fear of d 14a meetest for d 354b men fear d as children 14a midst of life we are in d 356a most cruel d of Pyramus 309a must hate and d return? 371a my part of d no one so true 350a nativity, chance or d 517b neither d, nor life, nor angels 410b neither wish d nor fear 22b no drinking after d 238b no life, but lively form of d 520b none blessed before his d 457a nor d 's cold flood 383b nor shall d brag thou wander'st 47b not born for d 220a not d, but, dying, wh is terrible 151a not D, but I love 43b not plucked, for d mature 276b not so much afraid of d 41b now boast thee, d 325b now to D devote 436a O D in I life 515a
 O d, where is thy sting? 443b of Night, purchase of D 13b old men go to d 44b one life and one d 47b one of the new terrors of d 519b on such the second d no power 337a O proud d ! what feast is toward 220b or else swoon to d 495a ought but d part thee and me 41b our Jubilee is d 489a pains of d, xat hold upon me 47b pain without the peace of d 144b parting image of d 510b passed from d unto life 244b play to you, 'tis d to us 441a pontifical D 278a quiet us in d a no noble 281b ranks of d, you'll find him 248a Reaper whose name is D

red fruit of thy d 422b ruling passion strong in d 302a Saul was consenting unto his d 512a secret of the shrouded d 203b sense of d in apprehension 352a shall thou feed on D 380b sights of ugly d within mine eyes 384b silence deep as d 76b since by man came d 515a sisters D and Night 457b sit in the shadow of d 508b sleep, brother to d 177a sleep, death's counterfeit 348a sleep is a d 42a [sleep is] in fine, so like d 30b sleep the sleep of d 459a snares of d compassed me 322b some mettle in d 139a some sad lover's d 458b sooner or later, delicate d 174a soothe the dull, cold ear of d 76b so peace instead of d 346a strange images of d 352a stroke of d is as a lover's pinch 132b strong and long-lived d 346b studied in his d 185a sundown splend' d D 428b sweet is d who puts an end 30a sword he sung a song of d 339a taste of d but once 396a that d is slumber 333a that sleep of d 98b the d -shes danced 530a the d I was to die 312a their life was d 162a the pang preceding d 248a there is no D 1 38b there is not room for D 519b there shall be no more d 478a the sharpness of d 352a the warrant, Claudio, for thy d 488b the way to dusty d 337a they were even hard at d's door 46a this fell sergeant, d 41b this is d and the sole d 308b this reasonable moderator Death 378b thou of d must dream 312a thou owest God a d 399a thy son heeded in d 531a thy brother D came 309a thy d well quit shall be 302b till d like sleep steal on me 481b till D us do part 422b till life is dead, and d remember 392b 'tis D to forget, not he 513b to be carnally minded is d 457a to my soul at I t'ry 18a too low crawling, for d 150a truly to thee till d 438b truly longed for d 209a what a d ? you'll love me yet 472b what shd it know of d ? 352a what we fear of d 408a when d shall all subdue 376b when D to either shall come 366b when men are at the point of d 251b where is d's sting? 392a where kingly D keeps court 211b who can run the race with D ? 517b whom d cd not daunt 248a whose peril we call D 157b why fear d ? It is adventure 351a wish them to a fairer d 437a Earth (cont.)

 e's old and weary cry e's returns for whole centuries E's shadows fly e stood hard as iron e's vain shadows flee e, that bears thee dead e that is not filled e, tadless and inert e to e, ashes to ashes e was feverous and did shake e was without form e where cares abound E will live by hers e, with her thousand voices heaven nor e have been at peace Heaven tries e if it be in tune hclp to make e happy hcr all on e her clarion o'er the dreaming e he who is laid upon e high in comparison of the e his head upon the lap of e honour back, as a king to e hope of all the cinds of the e huge foundation of the e I create new heavens and a new e if all the e were paper indifferent children of the e in e's firmament do shine in that rich e

 I saw a new heaven and a new e I saw nought common on thy E is thy e so marred I swing the e a trinket I will move the e kindly fruits of the e laid the foundations of the e lay her I the e lay luxury gentle e let me cat e upon thy heart let me enjoy the e let us stay stayer on the e lie heavy on him, I! long age in the deep-delved e Lord and Master of E man marks the e with run meantime, there is our e here muck shall inherit the e more beautiful than the e more than on e is thought mortal mixture of E's mould neath the breast of E needs find out new heaven, new e not on things on the e O E, lie heavily upon her eyes o'er e's green fields of the e, earthy on e I am a stranger

E—a happy land we know E and Saint George
E I awake! awake!
E's bashfulness in religion E bound in with the sea E does not love coalitions E expects every man E has been in a dreadful state E has saved herself
E the need of thee
E, Home, and Beauty
E invented the phrase E is a garden
E is a nation of shopkeepers F is a paradise for women F is the mother of Parliaments E mourns for her dead
E, my E
E, my own F's Allied named E's being hammered E's green and pleasant bowers E's green and pleasant land E shall bide till Judgement E's high Chancellor E's Milton equals both in fame E's on the anvil E's the one land, I know E's Walhalla
E's winding sheet
E, that it was wont to conquer E to be the workshop of world E under the drugs of men E was merry E
E, we love thee better E, where they are most potent ere I's griefs began I Florence, Elizabeth in F foreign field that is forever E France influenced manners in E further off from E gentlemen in E, now a-bed get me to E, once again go anywhere in E God-gifted organ-voice of E Greece, Italy and I

heralds of E's march here did E help me he that is mad, and sent into E high road that leads him to E history of E is of progress Honour unto E's Jane how can I help E?
I am E's queen
I am in E, everywhere if E to itself do rest but true if E was what E seems in E seven halfpenny leaves sold my e's song for ever in regard to this aged F insignificant men as any in F Ireland gives E her soldiers it was never merry world in E I've a hundred captains in F knew what E means know of F who only I know? knuckle-end of I marriages of E men of E, wherefore plough men of light and leading in E men that worked for F mythic time of E's prime no amusements in E but vice noon wakes on E nor, E I did I know till then not E the of our dreams oats in E given to horses O F, full of sin O E I model to thy greatness of a king E to F of all the trees in F

England (cont.)

oh, to be in E old E is lost old E is our home old E to adorn

 some f of his wedded wife see a kindred soul out to his f see a glimpse of His bright f seek His f seek no wonder but the human f see my f to f see the other's umber'd f set my ten commandments in yr f set upon it a good f she has a lovely f she looked in my f she painted her f sharing morning f showed the paint, but hid the f shown no glorious morning f since first I saw yr f since I no more do see yr f smiling f—a dream of Spring so exquisitely fair a f so sweet a f, such angel grace sorrow of yr changing f sprinkles another's laughing f still we find her f tears run down f is dappled f the moment that his f I see that very f, far from vanish that our f the f of this tall pile the f the index of a mind the flower-like f the garden of yr f there is a garden in her f they that lovely f who view thrusts the thing in our f thy f across his fancy comes thy hyacinth hair, thy classic f thy most kiss-worthy f two strong men stand f to f upon the f of the waters visit her f too roughly was never eye, did see that f was never f so pleased with his prism and silent f with the bewey'd f whose f the one wd meet white f in the coffin with how wan a f! woos me with its crystal f ye have a singing f you find one f there yr f, and the God-urist sun yr f, my quarry was yr f, my thane, is as a book Faces among so many million of f around the man bend other f brake them to our f canvas, grace-proud f daub their natural f dusk-f with white turbans f are but a gallery of pictures flame of fair f hid as it were our f I have seen better f I know the f I shall see in nice clean f in the f of men and women lords and owners of their f make our f vizards to our hearts men have rosy f mild monastic f

Fail (cont.)
 not ashm'd to f sooner f than not the greatest succeed in that it seems to f the many f the onc succeeds there is no such word as—f when mine f me, I'll complain you auld f dyin' you're poety sure to f Failed The Light that I tried a little, f much when thro' weariness they f Faithful charity never f f now even denie the dramer whose goodness f never Failing mercy to every f but their own principal f occurred she had one f Failings c'n his f lean'd to Virtue's Fails she never f to please Failure another Faithful f pays the f of years Failures half the f in life Fain we are f of thee would f see good days Faint always to pray, and not to f a man, so f, so spiritless eating hay when you're f f and far away f heart never won fair lady f not nor fear f, now, as farewell f, yet pursuing felt f—and never dared uplift he was ready to f I do f thereof the wandering aars they f they f on hill or field they shall walk, and not f we shall reap, if we f not with watching and with study f Fainted I shd utterly have f Faintest why f thou?
 Faints f, entangled in their mazes f the cold world the enemy f not, nor faith Fair a f where thousands meet a Mistress moderately f all her care was but to be f all so excellently f all f and soft, and sweet all those f, and fragrant things anything but what's right and f as f s'er was s'c'n Bacchus ev'r f, and ever young be f and yet not fond behold thou art f, my love every f from f sometimes declines f and f, and twice so f f and softly, John, he said f and was good f as is the rose in May f be their wives, right lovesom f dafools, we weep to see f, fat, and forty f is foul, and foul is f f too foul an epithet f not she fall f stood the wind for France f white linen clad f with orchard lawns growth to f instead of plun heaven not grim but f of huc holy, f and wise is she how near to good is what is f I have found out a gift to my f I have sworn thee f Irish are a f people is she kind as she is f?
 Lady Jane was f let me say that thou wert f lives a woman true and f lose possession of that f more than most f most divinely f never yet was foolish that was f not anything to show more f O f O sweet outward be f, how ev'r foul within f, divinely f, fit love

Fair (cont.)
 sh's is not f to outward view she that was ev'r f she that was young and f she was more f than words so f a fancy few wd weave so f, so calm, so softly scal'd so young, so f sweet and f she seems that was only f the brave deserves the f the day is aye f the f commands the song the hand that made you f thou art f, my love thou art dead, as young and f thou love, and she be f thou, that didst appear so f thou wcdl who art so lovely f thus wondrous f to make itself, in thee f were it fifty times as f were she pitiful as she is f what care I how f she be wondrous still the charming f yr heart's ambition to be f I have seen she f than the day f far than this fair day f person lost not Heav'n f than any wakened eyes behold f than feigned old f than the evening air her very frowns are f far lily of a day is f far in May the f way is not much about you shall be yet far f Fairest f among women f things have fleetest end O f of creation!

Faith (cont.)
 f shines equal, arming me f's transcendent power f substance of things hoped for f that looks thro' death f that right makes might f unfaithful kept him f unfaithful forsworn f without works is dead fight the good fight of f for modes of f let zealots fight he must gather his f together his f, in some nice tenets if I break f, the word shall speak if thy F is entire if ye break f with us who die I have kept the f
 I have not found so great f I mean the f's Defender impossibilities for an active f increase of f, hope, and charity in f and hope the world disagree in thy f and fear
 'I shd have more f', he said I shd not alter in my f of him let f be given live in thy f, by admiration made of f and service more f in honest doubt my f that every flower enjoys my life upon her f!
 my staff of f to walk upon my strong f shall purchase me not f, but mere Philosophy not for all his f can see no tricks in plain and simple f not the dying for a f now abideth f, hope, charity of heaven, f, and inward gleam our f, our pride O thou of little f O welcome pure-ey'd F puts me from my f sacred dictates of thy f sanctified by reason, blest by f sea of f was once at the full shake a man's f in himself simple f than Norman blood that he hold the Catholic F the f that launched her dart the f that ye share the just the love by f them that do not have the f these all died in f the shield of f tho' f and form be sunder'd tho' I have all f tis a point of f vain f, and courage vain want of f in all welcome home again discarded f we walk by f what of the f and fire within us when F is kneeling by his bed which constitutes poetic f wh I accept every one do keep Faithless f's cry Faithful Abdel, f found army of the f as I am a Christian f man be thou f unto death called I and True
 f in that wh is least f of thy word f only he f to God and thee he was my friend, f and just I have been to thee, C'nara O come, all ye f O f shepherd! to come to the f herdman's art belongs Faithfulness his f and truth Faithless be not f, but believing f as the winds or seas mortal, but f was she Faiths both were F, and both are gone f and empires gleam f are wafer-cakes the old f loosen and Falcon, my good biting f Falcon dapple-dawn-drawn F

Father (cont)

F, forgive them, for they knownot F, I cannot tell a lie F, I have sinned against thee F, in Heaven who lovest all F, in Thy gracious keeping F, into thy hands I commend F, is rather vulgar, my dear F, let me deduce F, Mother and Me
 f, of all in ev'ry age f, O f! what do we here F, of lights! what sunny seed f, of such as dwell in tents f, of the fatherless f's sorrow, f's joy F, who didst all create features of my f's face foredoomed has f's soul to cross full fathom five thy f's his had it been his f hath the rain a f?
 have a turnup than his f have we not all one f? her f loved me he took my f grossly his f's sword, he's girded on his f was before him his mother on his f hum begot Holy f, in Thy mercy honour thy f and thy mother how many a f have I seen I am thy f's spirit
 I go to the f
 I had it from my f
 I thank thee, O F it is a wise f it kept his f's asses King, f, royal lane lead us, Heavenly f har, and the f of it light upon him from his f's eyes like as a f's pitheth his children Lord, shew us the f man leave his f and his mother mighty God, The everlasting F my f and my mother forsake me my f argued sair my f chastised you my f did something smack my f feeds his flocks my f's brother no more my f my f sold me my f was in a button maker my f wept my poor f used to say O f of all of us only begotten of the F on the king my f's death our fair f Christ our f wh art in heaven picture of his f's face resembled my f as he slept she follow d my poor f's body she has deceived her f the Child is f of the Man the f of good news the wanton smiled, f wept thicker than my f's loins this is my true-begotten f tho' f and mother gave me thus with his f dwelleth thy wish was f to that thought with his great F bends we cry, Abba, F what my f used to say when thy f first did see were son maketh a glad f with His F work us a peace without f bred ye are of my f the devil you are old, F, William your f was no glazier Fathered, bend so f Fatherland guard and bless our f Fatherless he defendeth the f Fatherly then, f, not less than I Fathers ashes of his f a sojourner, as all my f were blood is fet from f of war-proof city of the healthiest f

Fathers (cont)

excellent his f's hand our f of old exiles from our f's land faith of our f I holy faith f, provoke not your children f, like so many Alexanders follow the generation of his f for whose sake our f died God of our f, be the God God of our f, known of old I like to be as my f were instead of thy f have children Lord God of yr f loud croud the f all our f have declared unto us our f that begat us our f worshipped stocks sins of the f upon the children slept with his f the f have eaten sour grapes we sons succeed their f's praise your f, where art they?
 Fathers- forth, he f whose beauty I athom full f five thy father lies all men make f all old f and follies are forgot best men are moulded out of f be to thy f a little blind cleanse thou me from my secret f drown all my f England, with all thy f f had she, child of Adam's stern f so nearly allied to caxcellence f they commit, the earth coverth for I acknowledge my f friendly eye cd never see such f gossip count her f has she no f his f he gently on him! if he had any f if our f whipped them not I know most f

 Jesus with all thy f I love thee my f ye quote not for thy f, but mine some f to make us men teeth and forehead of our f to ask advice, to tout for f 102b who f yr l's worth his having 210a woman gained by every sort of f 91a Flavia's wit 302a Flavour f of mild decay 194a till it's losing its f 20a flavory gives it all its f 111b vich wandy do you like the f on 127a Hary it has no kind of fault or f 169b it's a f in happiness 217b Flaws wished the f were fewer 46a Flax smoking f shall he not quench 502b Flayed belted you an f you 210a Flea clog the foot of a f 171b f in his ear 23a precedence between a louse and a f 211a take the life of a f 20a very f of his dog 215b Pleas in a bath smaller f 215b beggars, f, and vines 226a that that praised his f 476a f is good for a dog 156a great f have little f 283b Fled all but he had f 184b but he had f 305b f murmuring 274b

 f f him, down the nights 441b I waked, she f 308a kissed it and then f 408b still as he f 244b they're all f with thee 504b Flee f from the wrath to come 59a he can speak and f 486a that hate him f before him 473b they f from me, that did me seek 177b Fleec f was white as snow 486b like the run into a f 420b the first f of fire bestow 115a yr is white but 'tis too cold 453a Fleeces so clean and white 161a flect all in the Downs the f 410b British f a-riding at anchor 529a fire and f candle-light 420b f smiles and beautiful 41a how f 'twas on those little flect 400a O thou most f 100a Spanish f thou canst not see 154b where the f of stars is anchored 76b yield, proud f, thy f 219b Fleet Street, dull in f 4b Fleet of foot than the kid 169b Fleets ten thousand f sweep over 176b vain, mightiest f of iron 517b Flesh all f is as grass 502b all f is grass 502b all f shall be revealed 286b Boston man east wind made f 508a bring me f and bring me wine 379a but the f is weak 492a cd not all this f keep in life? 478b closed up the f instead 88b conversion of Godhead into f 196b fedde with roasted f f and blood so cheap

Flesh (cont)
 f and blood wh did in Adam fail 289a f helps woe 416b f, how art thou fished! 365b f lusth against the spirit 515b f of f, bone of my bone 276b f of my f 402a given to me a thorn in the f 515b going the way of all f 424b I want to make yr l cieep 126a give the way of all f 376a gross f sinks downwards 407a hur of my f stood up 336b her far and unpolluted f 378b I have more f than another man 485a I will eat bulls' f 513b kinsmen according to the f 514a m'ke not provision for the f 339a men ear f and blood 89b milk and tender f 513b mud the things of the f 485b
 I want to make yr l cieep 126a my f also longth after thee 50b nor soul helps f 478b of human f substing 104a one f leaves 'em still two fools 333a shocks that f is h'ar to 481a since f meat is f 39a sinful lusts of the f 50b soul to feel the f 500a spite of this f to-day 132b study is a weariness of the f 478b these our f upright 513b the world, the f, and the devil 423a they sh all be one f 375b they that are after the f 423a this f of mine might be 133b this f wh walls about 366b this f wh prisons of f 322b this world-wearied f 321b thou dost eat strange f 310a 'tis the way of all f 485b too too solid f wd melt 276b unto thee shall all f come 89b we are one, one f 147a weyeth milk, and f 510b wh lust and f enough invest 516a within this circle of f 497a Word was made f 379a wrestle not against f 53b yet in my f shall I see God 398a Fleshed thy maiden sword 357a Fleshly school of poetry 357a Flespots when we eat by the f 515a Flethy tables of the heart 98a Flew round and round it f 357a I lewd so f, so sanded 96b Flics chase e'en now the f 254a f and pursuers were mingled 343b Fles as f to wanton boys, are we 403b butchers' shops with large blue f cobwebs, where small f were caught 13b dead f cause the ointment 188a f of estate and sunshine 160b f on summer's day 453a f, or int, entombed in amber 11b f, worms, and flowers 311b he that f mought fight again 300b lean black craft like f 438a sholl looly as it f 79b thir the link be gon f 79b unfading mark, immortal f 5a unto you at last sh f 294b Light alarms of struggle and f 255b by a frintic f of courtsey 247a dark was the day of their f 268b from an eagle in his f 359a he at the link be gon f 312b his f is madness 247b in what fond f 218b not attained by sudden f 261a on uptoe for a f 399a prepared to longer f 210a swift in the 350a the beetle's wheels his droning f 350a Flights upon the banks of Thames 23a Flighty purpose never is o'ertook 417b Flim-flam a pretty f 51a ne wear out the everlasting f 365b set your faces like a f 54a weariness can snore upon the f 129a I-hrt how can he [a bishop] f 404b Irtation birth of that word f 91a murely innocent f 185b Flit I will f into it with my lyre 218b Flitting I am f about many years 96a Flittings thou tellest my f 485b Float f double, swan and shadow 473a f upon the wings of silence 207a little lead best fits a little 485b Floated out flew the web and f wide 431b Float-fishing angling or f 214a Floating his f home for ever left 107b Floats f tho unseen among us 301b that f on high o'er vales 407a Flock feed his f like a shepherd 502b half his f were in their beds 474a leave the f without shelter 318b maketh thy f to rest at noon 500a one sickly sheep infects the f 451a the silent was the f in woolly fold 221b tauted whether the f 734b there is no f, how'er watched 243a into my f, I daily preached 524a Flocks f of shivv pleiades 102a f of the memories of the day 265a in fleecy f of light 376b my f feed not 21a sweet buds like f to feed in air 301b watch d then f by night 424b whiter than be the f 176a Floodn's fatal field 318b Flooding he was in the habit of f me 445b less f in our great schools 408b Flood beached verge of the salt f 368a bridge much broader than the f 158a bridge that arched the f 146b by f and field 760a drink to thee across the f 427a Empire vast across the f 202b fellows I ed was away 102b fording thro' the rising f 27a kap with me into this angry f 137b love you ten years before the F 260a nearly spoiled to f 12b never came information in a f 781b noiter tenants of the f 110b not to be thought of that the f 407a passage o'er a restless f 109a struggle thro' such a raging f 251b taken at the f 341a the f may bear me far 426a the giant race before the f 140a thorough f, thorough fate 356b to such a sudden f of mutiny 340a winds that curl the f 240b Flood-brim unto the furthest f 312b Flood-gate into o'er-bearing 350b in yr decp f diown 155b neither can the f down it 501a the f are risen, O Lord 487b the f have lit up their voice 487b the f lift up their voices 487b the thickest to his f decline 37b Floor beneath the watery f 270a f hy priv'd with broken hearts 240b glimmering o'er my fleecy-like f 301a how the f of heaven is thick inland 345a I ed f them all 129a I swept the f 166a the nicely sanded f 168b thy sad f an altar 60b windless, glassy f 231a Floored with gemlike plains 452b floors of silent seas 745a Flop in favour of yr husband 127b Flopping must go f yourself down 127b Flora nor I's pride 42b

Glory (cont.)
 for gain, not g for the hope of g for what g is it from another star in g gain of our best g g above all the earth g and loveliness have pass'd away g and the freshness of a dream g and the nothing of a name g be to thee, O Lord most High g dropped from their youth g is in their shame g, jest, riddle of the world g leads the way g, like the phoenix g of Europe is extinguished g of God did lighten it g of man as the flower of grass g of the cunning of the Lord G of the Garden
 g of the Lord is risen g of the Lord shall be revealed g of the Lord shone round g of the world pass away g of this world, I hate ye g of youth glow'd g shone around g's no compensation g's thrill is o'er g that redounds therefrom g that shall be revealed g that was Greece g to God in the highest g to the King of kings g to the newborn King go where g waits him who walked in g his work g done Ichahod the g is departed I felt it was g in a sea of g in its g's full array in its g peep it is a to her joy and thou g must be kingdoms of the world, and the g King of g, King of peace King of g shall come in left him alone with his g I shall G, g fancies let others write for g lick madness is the g of this life like thy g, Titan is to be mellow g of the Attic stage Memnonium was in all its g my gown of g never hope for g of the deed the g shall remain pised away a g from the earth paths of g lead but to the grave pride of the peacock g of God return the g of yr prime?
 so doth the greater g Solomon in all his g so much g and so much shame storehouse for the g of the Creator that will be g for me the brightness of his g the g and the dream the joy and the g must be the power, and the g there's g for you the soiled g thou gon' write g wits ye thus I count the g of my crown thy laund, thy g
 'tis to g we steer to the greater g of God trailing clouds of g do we come trod the ways of g uncertain g of an April day visions of g spare my sight walking in an au of g we beheld his g
 What Price G?
 when can thou g fade?
 when gout and g seat me where is that g now? who refuse to g, or the grave why in the name of G

G random all good men G planted a garden
G proved them, and found them G pursuing, the maiden hid G rest you merry, gentlemen G 's a good man
G said, let there be light G saw, great George G save our gracious King G save the king 79b, 193a, 376a G saw that it was good G scarce seemed there to be G self-slain on his own altar G send every gentleman G send us all good ending G 's finger touched him G 's first Creature, wh was Light G 's gifts put man's to shame G 's grace is the only grace G 's greatness flowed around G 's great Vente
G shall add unto him
G shall bring every work G shall help her
G shall send forth his mercy G shall unite these G shall take away his part G shall wipe away all tears G shall wound the head G shalt make my darkness G 's Heart in a garden G shed His grace
G 's in his heaven
G 's laughing in heaven G so commanded
G so loved the world
G 's own ear lists delighted G 's own name upon a lie G spoke once, and twice G 's pile Praetorian G 's soldier be he G stooping shows sufficient G strikes a silence thro' you all G 's universal law
G 's a text
G, that giveth to all men liberally G, that hidest thyself G that maketh men to be one G the All-terrible
G, the best maker of marriages G whether turns a divine G the first garden made G the herdsman goads them G, thou knowest my simplicity G unmakes but to remake G walking in the garden G was very merciful to the birds G who best taught song
G who made shall gather G whose puppets are we G will provide for sacrifice G will provide himself a lamb G will take care of that G within the shadow G wd have her shown
G wd make a man miserable G wrote the bill
G wanted science to G above G Great G I'd rather be a pagan G great what do I see and hear G great just, good
G grete g of Loves name G had I but served G
G had I but served my G G hand folks over to G 's mercy G handman perfect G 's sight G haurt ye up to the Throne of G G hath not one G created us?
G have a G become her lover G have G for his father G have not the seal of G G hear one rack the name of G G hear within, and G, o'erhead G heaven, for it is G 's throne G he for G only G heirs of G, and joint-heirs with G Christ
G here in the sight of G G here is G 's plenty G here 's G down on us

God (cont)

her fathers' G, before her hur last republic cried to G he sung of G he trusted in G, deliver him he was not for G took him Hey for G Almighty himself from G he cd not free his Father and his G his own word as if his G 's holy, acceptable unto G honest G 's the noblest work of man how odd of G to choose the Jews how shd G perceive it I am a G, and cannot find it I bless G I am worth more I cannot tell G knoweth if G be for us if G did not exist if he be not of kin to G if this friend happen to be—G if we were G 's spies in apprehension how like a g inclines to think there is a G in favour with G and man I G 's a universe in my flesh shall I see G in that he liveth, he liveth unto G in the beginning G created in the bush with G may meet in the faces of men see G in the great hand of G I stand into the hands of the living G into the sanctuary of G invisible, except to G alone invite G, and his angels thither I press G 's lamp close I remembered my G is, and it is not, the voice of G I saw the dead stand before G I the Lord thy G am a jealous G it is an attribute to G himself it is the voice of a G I who saw the face of G crusades coming down from G Jew, by G demented just are the ways of G just G, forgive! justify G 's ways to man justify the ways of G to men know us are by G appointed knowledge makes a G of me know that I am G label men for G Lamb of G to dwell in England land wh the Lord thy G giveth leap up to my G leave the issues calmly to G led him to confess a G let G arise let G be true let not G speak with us let not G drop
Let us worship G Light, G 's eldest daughter like a G in pain lion is the wisdom of G Lo, here is G, and there is G length my soul after thee, O G Lord G, Almighty, wh was, and is Lord G formed man of the dust Lord G made them all Lord G of Battles aid
Lord thy G is with thee Lord, ye know as G indeed lost in G in Godhead found love G whom he hath not seen? love thy G and love Him only make me a clean heart, O G make no long tarrying, O my G man sent from G?
many are afraid of G men not afraid of G, afraid of me might G forget him Milton in fetters wrote of G Mother of G I no lady my duty towards G my G, I love wonderful Thou art 149b my G, I love I thee 86b my G, my G, I look upon me 483a my G, why hast thou forsaken me? 507a my soul for G's grace 37a nakedness of woman of G 31a Name of the Lord thy G in vain 480a nearer, my G, to thee 1a nearer the church further from G 4a nearer to G's Altar trod 115a neck G made for other use 198b neither our love from G 112a neither shd. a G intervene 422a no man hath seen G 510b none other but the house of G 393a nor asks of G, but of his stirs 302a no respect of persons with G 513a not G in gardens 41a not G's, and not the bests 46a not G, sometimes withheld in mercy 281a nothing, not G, is greater to one 453a not I, but the grace of G 511b not one is forgotten before G 509b not three Gods but one G 478b now, G be thanked who has matched 40a of all the thoughts of G 44a oft names G in oaths 132a of what I call G 51b O G, for as much as without Thee O G, I there be 1 G 525a O G, of battles' steel my soldiers 381a O G, of Bethel 131b

 O G, our help in ages past 451a O G, when thou westest forth 486a O G within my breast 18b Oh! for a closer walk with G 109b Oh G! Oh Montreal 67a
 Oh my G, I cry in the day-time 431a only man of G 441a once a man who said 'G' 527a one G, one law, one element 431a one more insult to G 48a one, on G's side, a majority 206b one, that ed circumvent G 336a on their faces, and worshipped G 519a on, to the City of G 7b others call it G 86a the nation of G 101b the noblest work of G 101b the other to the Altar's G 115a the people, the voice of G 309a there is in G—some say—a deep 405a 'there is no G', the wicked saith 96a the true G's priest 79a the Word of G is quick 505a the Word was G 510b they said, G forbid 510a they shall see G 505a they shall see our G 224a they that deny a G destroy 15a this is acceptable with G 517b this thing is G 422a this, throws himself on G 471a those whom G hath joined 481b tho' the mills of G grind slowly 248a thou art G from everlasting 487b thou city of G 487a thou g of our idolatry, the press 301a 'Thou, my G, art in't' 101a thou, O G, hast proved us 486a thou, O G, sentest a gracious rain 486a thou owest G a death 178b thousand voices praise G 101a thou shalt have one G only 196b thro' his garden walketh G 52a thro' nature up to nature's G 301b thy G my G 495a thy G's, and truth's 386a thy G, thy life, thy cure 448a thy soul and G and sure 51a 'tis G gives skill 106b to bring us, daily, nearer G 224a to deem himself a g, or beast 301a to G of the devil's leavings 103a to see G only 134a

Gratitude (cont.)

g also to his Majesty was ample g of place-expectants g sense of future favours Gratulations our g flow in streams Grave a-buried in one g a g He shall not live a g's one violet a g unto a soul a just precedence in the g a little, little g, an obscure g a mould'ring in the g an untimely g approach thy g, like one who wraps a soldier's g, for thee the best be gentle grave unto me bends to the g with decay between the cradle and the g bewept to the g did go birth and the g botanize upon his mother's g but she is in her g call'd our mother, but our g come from the g, to tell us country a kind of healthy g crowned upon the g thereof dread my g at each remove dig the g and let me die dread the g as little as my bed Duncan is in his g earliest at His g eat our pot of honey on the g echo arose from the suicide's g empires and cities in a common g fame stands upon the g from the cradle to the g I look funeral marches to the g gently steer from g to light g hides all things beautiful g is not its god g of Clotho-na-Bare g's a fine and private place g shall have a living monument with rising flowers be dressed have sunk into the g her heart into his g his vast and wandering g Humours, whether g or mellow ignominy sleep with thee in in cold g she was lain in his g rain'd many a tear in the cold g, under the deep sea in the dark and silent g is that ayont the g, man I will pay you the g jealousy is cruel as the g keep a dream or g apart know the g doth gape for thee lads are in love with the g laugh'd at the grip of the G lead but to the g lead these graces to the g like Aleasts from the g made me a g so rough man pompous in the g mild o'er her g mountains my large kingdom for a little g nor wisdom, in the g not have strewed thy g O g, where is thy victory?
O Leary in the g on his g, with shining eyes on my g, as now my bel peace is in the g renowned by thy g! reprofs ought to be g road lies dusty to the g rush to glory or the g shall lead thee to thy g soldier's g, for thee the best the g, and the barren womb there lies a lonely g there's no repentance in the g this side of the g thought shall be my g thy foolish tears upon my g thy humble g adorned thy root is ever in its g
'tis everywhere her g to steer from g to g to that dark inn, the g!

Grave (cont.)

travelling towards the g true lover never find my g when my g is broke where, G, thy victory? without a g, unknell'd how good he is, how g shd be how judgent the g how very small the very g I only know it shall be g I shall be very proud and g just as he promised something g know well I am not g little seemed to him g lives of g men all remind us made many people think him g man is only truly g neither too humble nor too g no force, however g no g, no small to the Soul no g, man lives in vain nor it's g scholars g men nothing g was ever achieved only truly g who are truly good packs and sets of g ones perfumed chambers of the g Pharaoh surnamed the g poorly rich, and meanly g make me at all h, without you makes a nation h, and keeps it so makes a scotchman h [whisky] methinks it were a h life more h, if less wise ne'er be made h by compulsion no Irish lad was so h as I no one can be h till all are h one is never so h as one thinks only one thing to make me h period human race was most h physicians of all men are most h so long as you're h that thou art h, owe to God the h who have called thee so then, h low, lie down there is a h land things that do attain the h life thrice h he who, not mistook to be good is to be h to die, 'twere now to be most h too h, h tree too h in thine happiness

'Tis ray is h now

Hard does it not seem h to you h as a piece of millstone h, h the glory of the winning h grey weather
'h, replied the Dodger h to catch and conquer he finds it h, without spectacles how very h it is to be a Christian it seem'd so h at first it was h for me nothing's so h but search will find now it seems as h to stay thou art h man though 'tis h for you
'tis not h, to keep the peace unlike the h, the selfish weather breeds h English men woman is so h upon the woman Hardens it h within Hardest misfortunes h to bear Hardly shall they that have riches Hardness without h will be sages Heaven (cont.)

there is the kingdom of h thurs spirits are in H the lark, at h's gate sings then h mocks itself th' opening bud to H conveyed there may be h there's h above there's husbandry in h there was silence in h there was war in h the seat we must change for H this is the gate of h thorny way to h those who win h, blest are they threw him from the face of h thro' H's wide champion thy soul's flight, if it find h till in H the deed appears 'tis h points out an hereafter 'tis like a little H below to be young was very h to-day, between Hll and H to grow old in H is to grow young top of it reached to h to the very bourne of h to wh H has joined great issues to wh the H I suffer seems a H tradesman hope to go to h trouble dead h with my cries turn thy back on h under an English h unlock the gate of H let us in unconquered as yet to h uttermost part of the h voice of Rome is the consent of h waiting for the spail from H warring in H against H's King was light from H watched h with their tears waves that beat on H's shore we are all going to h weariness of climbing h we know the way to h by water we shall practise in h what they do in h we are ignorant when earth was nigher h when they come to model H whither in H ye wander fur wh in old days moved earth and h who knows save h whose h shd be true Woman why stand ye gazing up into h? wish'd H mad her such a man with him either in h or in hell without a thought of H or Hell women (differ) in H and Hell yon are the hills o' H Heavenly even in h place that busy archer h paradise is that place once more the H Power thy beauty's birth is h Heavens all the H thou hast in Him ancient H, in silent awe awake! the h look bright blue h above us bent distorts the H from pole to pole eternal in the h feds the h he bare had I the h 'em considered cloths h declare the glory of God h dropped at the presence of God h fill with shouting his fibre of the H hath left how many h at once hung be the h with black I create new h in the h like a white fawn I will consider thy h most ancient h, thro' Thee, are fresh pure as the naked h the h are not so high the h my wide roof-tree the h themselves blaze forth the h themselves, the planets the starry h above me the starry h above that plain till you are clothed with the h when the h are bare

I (cont)
 I again, what else did you expect?
 I am a good man too
 I am always about in the Quad I am among you as he I am like that liveth, and was dead I am I, thou art thou
 I am rather tall and stately I am that I am
 I am the door
 I am the High
 I, and you, and all of us I, I also am an American I in my bed again
 I John saw the holy city I'm Mackail, and who are you I mys'l were dead and gane
 'I', said the Fly
 'I', said the Sparrow
 I, singularly moved to love I the elder and more terrible I the Lord thy God
 I the Trinity illustrate I think that man was I it is I, be not afraid I to Him, and He to me
 I told you, I had, have not been idle I, with many a fear no more I that doct' it say, did that lad be I? that I am he, let me a little show there am I in the midst of them this is none of I thou art I I hou, Lord, and I what am I? an infant crying yet not I, but the grace of God Iago but yet the pity of I concerning an I as an Imogen Ianibus march from short to long lanthe find I's name again from you, I, little troubles pass Iberians the dark I come Ice as soon seek I in June Ixyed along the polished I I did I with a thunder-fit I, mast high, came floating by I on summer seas
 I was here, the I was there it is good to break the I like the skater on I pleasure came with caves of I I guess I truck-ribbed I skating over thin I to smooth the I Iachabod the glory is departed Iceicle chaste as the I I on a Dutchman's beard Iceicles hang them up in silent I when I hang by the wall Iccumen sister is I in Ida dear mother I, hearken O mother I, many-fountain'd I there lies a vale in I when I was I's shady brow Italian Queen
 Idea he had only one I I of her life shall creep one I, and that is a wrong one teach the young I the mighty abstract I I have Ideal I of a manly career softly sleeps the calm I the I American who is all wrong Idias all sorts of dead I champagne gives gentlemanly I entertain such inhuman I Idler I of words sung divine I below Identity his I presses upon me Ides beware the I of March that work the I of March begun the I of March are come Idiom for the I of words very little Idiot an I race to honour lost as e'er the bautoous I spoke a tale told by an I him whom you love, yr I Boy I who praises all centuries like a blank I Idle ev'ry I man shall speak

Idle (cont.)

for i hands to do happy when i am i as a painted ship if you are i, be not solitary I too, my Lord, have not been i most 'scrutinating' stand ye all like the day? we wd all be i, if we cd wise, i, childish things Idleness bear such i so near conceives by i feet of joy in i frivolous work of polished i grief is a species of i i the refuge of weak minds round of strenuous i unyo'd humour of yr i Idler every man hopes to be, an i hath been an i in the land Idlers, game-preservers Idling to enjoy i thoroughly Idly bent on him that enters Idol dearest i I have known kisses on an 'eaten i's foot water'at that i be worship off the i for the saint Idolatres bow'd to its i a patient knee Idolatry for that were I god of my i it might breed i on this side i
'tis mad i to make the service Idols four classes of I God keeps a niche hold our i Idyll high diddle diddle i If i'd go and wake them, i i at i'd you don't succeed 'i' is the only peacemaker i you can keep yr head much virtue in 'i' Ifs talk't tho to me of 'i'/?
Igm's fatuus reason an I of the mind Ignebe base and i creature yet the end was not i Ignominy i of our natures thy i sleep with thee Ignorance alike in i, his reason such blind and naked i delivers bliss wh i is the lot of happy i boldness is a child of i distinguished for i drunk to heavy I from i our comfort flows from knowledge i I is not innocence i, madam, pure i i of the law excuses no man I pity his i and despise him it was a childish i let me not burst in i more than Gothic i no sun but i putting us to i again the smallest allowance for i thro' y ye did it understand a writer's i what i of pain?
where i is bliss yr i cramps my conversation Ignorances negligences and i Ignorant be not i of anything confound the i i of his understanding most i of what he's most assur'd right of the i man we, i of ourselves Ignorantly I did it ignorantly Iliad an I of woes Iliion cloud-kissing I Ilium burnt the topless towers of I I is no more than i Ill attending captain i cannot be i, cannot be good cure for this i is not to sit still did not care to speak i of any enchains us to permitted i gey i to live w give the i he cannot cure a name

Ill (cont.)

good i the final goal of i he thinks no i how i all's here about my heart if it is i has a frightened look looking i prevail make strong themselves by i no i can come nothing i come near thee nought shall go i O benefit of i i of every i, a woman is the worst seal up the avenues of i tempt you to all harm and i that i rail at the i there is some i a-brewing there's nothing i can dwell to do i our sole delight to speak i of it Ill-bred illiberal and so i Ill-dread ill-kept and i Ill-favoured thing, sir, but mine own Ill-fed, ill-killed Illiberal so i and so ill-bred Ill-luck so fond of i Illness without the i shd attend it Ills claim of all human i fear, the last of i i have no weight long versed in human i no sense have they of i to come o'er a the i o' life victorious quite b rather bear those i we have to hastening i a prey what i from beauty spring when nae real i perplex them Ill-tempered think him i and queer illumine what in me is dark i Illusion for man's i given only one i left so thankful for i Illustrious i predecessors scarce less i goes the clerk Ilyria tall a man as any's in i Why do I do in i?
Ilyrian green i hills Illy looks on I downs Image an i gay, to haunt best i of myself Caesar's i is effaced content of the creature express i of his person I am in His i made i of Lewtl i of my death i that, flying still before me i that Nebuchadnezzar set up in his own i the Creator made its wrinkled i lies kills the i of God in the eye let us make man in our i man's i and his cry nor i of thine eyes scatter'd his Maker's i see the great doom's i shalt not make any graven i stamp'd with the i of the King the fleeting i of a shade the i of eternity whose word i doth unfix my hair whose is this i worship the beast and his i yr i at our hearts we bear i that blossoms a rose Zoroaster met his own i Imagines garlanded with carven i Imagines shd come natural Images express the i of their minds strange i of death thro' a garden of bright i Imagination appear so fair to fond i are of i all compact as bodies forth the forms a thing i boggles at by bare i of a feast civet to sweeten my i creep into his study of i fairy writing wh depends on i his i wings of an ostrich how abhorred in my i i

Imagination (cont.)

if i amend them i cold and barren i droops her pinion i of a boy is healthy i of man's heart is evil i the rudder i to give them shape i, wh i but another name in ages of i in the i of their hearts is to defile the i O Sleep charm my i reined play of the i such tricks hath strong i the truth of i to his i for his facts to save those that have no i were it not for i, Sir what the i seizes as beauty whispering chambers of i Imaginations my i are as foul as Vulcan's perish thro' their own i Imaginative or domestic passages Imagine all that they i is to do me evil
the people i a vain thng?
Imagined exhausted worlds, and then i new i such a device Imagings dreams and the light i less than horrible i Imbower high over-arch'd i Imitate i the action of the tiger obliged to i himself Imitation i the sincerest of flattery
not a good i of Johnson there can be no i vocation were endless i Imitations poorest of all i imitators, you slayish herd Imlac captain of a poet, said I Immanuel call his name i Immensely busy form Immensity belie thy soul's i i cloistered in thy womb Immodest words admit of no defence Immortal as that most i m'n Immodest being a thing i as itself driven away from our i day Heav'n had wanted our i song Helen, make me i with a kiss his biting is i I have i longings in me I have lost the i part i diamond, so i diamond i in his own despite i, though no more sole thing of worth i the minute makes i thou must be made i what i hand or eye Immortal born i I long to believe in i like a load of i nurslings of i over whom thy i broods slumber out their i the field of i the steadfast rock of i they gave, their i this longing after i this mortal must assume its i 'tis i his l, I'm sure, was in the right his l is a watch or a vision his l was gentle his name out of the book of l

 his name out of the book of l his unkindness may defeat my l holdeth our soul in l how good is man's l how hard a l her servant lives I am the resurrection, and the l I bear a charmed l I count l just a stuff idea of her l shall creep I fill upon the thorns of l I fetch my l and being if I did ride upon a point if I was bitter to thee if recalling to l I had wrung l dry
 I have set before you l I have set my l upon a crest I love long l better than figs immortal l, in never-fading words I must live or bear no l in all my l like this in his pleasure is l in l, in death abide with me in l's cool evening in l's last scene what prodiges in l's small things be resolute in our l alone does Nature live intend to lead a new l in the threat of human l in the time of this mortal l in tragic l, God wot into his nostrils the breath of l is l a boot?
 is L worth living?
 I shd live the same l isn't yr l extremely flat? it may be l, but ain't it slow I've had a happy l I will give thee a crown of l knot intrinsicate of l untie large as l, and twice as natural last of l, of wh the first later l renew law of human l may be Effort lay down his l for his friends lay hold on eternal l

Life (cont)

lay hold on l lead a holy Christian l lead l to sovereign power lead we not here a jolly l Leaves of L keep falling lesser l shall be as the greater let me read thy l L, a fiery slinging flame l ain't all beer l and all shall cease l and light be thine L at best of drawing conclusions l at heart is but an im-l, being weary of these bars l can little more supply L, Death, and that vast l or Ever l death does end l death, miracles of St Somebody l did harbour give l, exempt from public haunt L Force supplies us l for l, eye for eye l from the dead is in thirt word l has passed with me but roughly l have we loved l in low state began L is a coquetry
 L is a jest
 L is a joke that's just begun l is all a variorum l is all chequered l is an incurable disease l is a Permanent Possibility l is a state to be endured l is but a froward child l is but an empty dream l is but the shadow of death l is fading fast as l is good, and joy runs high l is (I think) a blunder l is just a chance of the prize l is just one damned thing l is like a froward child l is made up of sob's, snuffles l is made from my bubble l is never the same again l isn't all beer and skittles l is one demd horrid grund l is perfected by Death l is process of getting tired L is real, L is earnest l is the desert l is thorny l is very sweet, brother l is with such ill beer L, Joy, I'm pie
 l, like a dome of coloured glass l may change, but it may fly not l may perfect be l more than meat l of a man a heroic poem l offers, to deny!
 L of l, l thy lips enkindle l more less than span l on the ocean wave l piled on l were all too little l protracted is protracted woe L's a single pilgrim l's business being the choice l's but a span l's but a walking shadow l's early cup with such a draught l's enchanted cup with sparkles l's first native source L's five windows of the soul l's little ironies l's so fast doth fly l's poor play is o'er l's race well run l's road, so dim and dirty l's short span forbids us l's too short for chass l's uncertain voyage l's wild restless sea l tedious as a twice-told tale L, that dars send a challenge L that in me has rest l that leads mclodious days L, the shadow of death l time's tool

as if they feared the l as I fell short a well of love, a spring of l bathic the world in l beauty from the l retired blasted with excess of l bright as l, and clear as wind burning and a shining l but he holds the l but in unapproached l dwell but soft! what l breaks thro' by the l of the moon by thine own sweet l can again thy form l restore can thy l rume celestial l shine inward child of l thy limbs are burning come forth into the l of things contend with growing l darkness and the l to thee alike daylight comes, comes in the l depth of burning l dim religious l each one a lovely l each others l to dim enable with practical l enjoyed the self-same l fade into the l of common day faint in the l that she loves fame beareth up things l fiery l wh beats upon a throne fleece flocks of l flowers made of l fond Memory brings the l for thy l is come forward, the l Brigate gave him l in his ways glorious l of jurisprudence gloom for that celestial l God appears, and God is L God of life, and power, and l God said, let there be l God's first Creature, wh was L golden and silver l gone into a world of l greater l to rule the day had she been l, like you hail holy l halls of dazzling l Harrist, Hail l of my eye have seen a great l here there is no l her non-radiant l he that has l within hide, hide yr golden l l his endeavours are an inward l if L can thus deceive if once we lose this l if you are nimble and l in a Noose of L informed by the l of nature in its plumes the various l in robes of l array d in the dusk with a l behind her in the l of the living it is the l of l crutch Lumb is the l thereof land is scattered with l lead, kindly L leave the l of Hope behind!
Let Newton be! and all was l lets in new l let there be l let there be l l Liberty let yr l so shine before men like a shaft of l l and leading in England L and Mrs Humphry Ward l and the half-l l, and will aspire l but the shadow of God l dies before thy uncraving word l gains make thy nurses L (God's eldest daughter) l in the darkness, sailor l in the dust lies dead l of all their day l of a whole life dies l of nature, led him to confess l of other days is faded

Light (cont)

of the bright world dies of thy countenance upon us of thy story l she was and like a fairy l shined in darkness l that is in thee be darkness l, that lies in woman's eyes l that never was, on sea or land l thicken - the crow makes wing l to shine upon the road l up my own mind l upon him from his father's l upon the shining sea l we sought is shining still l wh is in thee be not darkness l wh leads astray is from Heaven like l dissolved in star-showers line of festal l in Christ-Church line of yellow l dies fast live by thy l live out thy life as the l living lamps, by whose dear l long l shakes across the lakes Lord is my l, and my salvation love darkness rather than l love l full constant l love like l can lovely lady, garmented in l love who art a l to guide make my darkness to be l man of l and leading mellowed to that tender l more by yr number, than yr l more l my new-cut ashlar takes the l myriad spots of l Myrradness saw such l night, the shadow of l no l, but rather darkness nor 'ny change of l nothing goes for sense, or l now is l increased O, my only L once put out thy l once let us out little l opponent of the children of the l or with taper l to seek out of hell leads up to l plant and flower of l Presumptuous Servants of L pure duty perfect l pursuit of sweetness and l put on the armour of l put out the l put upon us the armour of l righteousness as clear as the l ring of pure and endless l rule of streaming l sailed on a river of crystal l scat of desolation, void of l shall never see l shed a ray of l Divine sheds lingering l she is all of l shuneth the everlasting l shower of l is poetry shows sufficient of His l something of angelic l sometimes a l surprises such a affliction sun, or the l, be not darkened take his l away teach l to counterfeit the just as the shining l the L of Lights looks always the L that Failed the l that loves then shall thy l break forth the orient when the gracious l third among the sons of l tho' Peace to L thy word a l unto my paths the hours of l return to bring the false to l to give l to them in darkness travels much faster than l trifles l as air true l, wh lighteth every man true l is sweet turn'd thy darkness into l too like the l Lightnings arrows of l the l Thy sword vailing all the l of his song Lights all the l wax dim all these l of the world are but broken l of Thee coastwise l of England cometh down from the Father of l Father of l l whit sunny seed glorious the northern l l that do mislead the morn l the evening star old men and the l scene l of heaven silent silver l and darks spent l quiver and gleam that l the wigwam the l around the shore the l begin to twinkle turn up the l whose l are fled your l burning Like always l it the least each to other l every one as they l how l to this kernel I know what l l I l him, but he loves me l l to be liked l l you, and your book l said, it was nothing l it l shd l to have one l—but oh how different l doth quit l

Love (cont)

never doubt I l never I was so abused never, my l, repent of how never seek to tell thy l new every morning is the l new L, pine at them no blessed leisure for l no l lost between us
 'no l, quoth he, 'but vanity' no man dies for l no more, dear l no natural l of the 'chaste music' none knew thee but to l thine none other I can l none profane my Holy See of l none to praise and very few to l no new light on l or liquor nor fettered L, from dying nor L her body from her soul nor l thy life, nor hate not Death, but L not enough to make us l nothing all my l avails not in our power to l or hate not l her, is thy point not unworthy to l her now warm in l oh for grace to l thee more!
 Oh L, I thou bane
 oh l who bewalest the frailty O L, I has she done this to thee O l, my l I if I no more shed O l, O fire! once he drew O L, 's but a dance
 O l what hours were thine O L will venture in O lyric L, half angel O mightie l! Man is one world one born to l you, sweet one jot of former, l retain one of l's April-fools one to another with brotherly l only in command, nothing in l only l sprung from my only hue or bid me l, and I will give O spirit of l! how quick ostentation of our l our l hath no decay our l is frail as is our life our l shall live outward parts, 's always seen over her husband as hir l Ovid, the sweet philosopher of l owe a duty, where I cannot l O wisest l! that flesh and blood pains of l be sweeter far pangs of disappointed l partly w/ l o'ercome passing the l of women passion the l o' women pass our long l's day perfect l casteth out fear perhaps was sick, in l pity is sworn servant unto l place to stand and l in planet of L is on high poets' food is l poor excommunicate from l poor heretics in l pray, l, remember pray thee leave l me no more presume too much upon my l prosperity's the very bond of l prove an unrelenting foe, to l prov'd dice my best, as l prove my l, with sloth maligns purple light of l purple with l's wound quarrels of lovers' renewal of l quench my great l reason, and the l of good and ill rebuke is better than a cret l recognition and pledge of l regain l once possessed remembrance of my former l restore my wandering l rhymes of a l never woo'd right to dissent, yr l rise up, My l, My fair one 262a, 500a

rites of connubial l refused Romeo! if thou dost l rosy red, l's proper hue same sweet eternity of l Saturn and L, their long repose Scotland led in l and le seals of l, but seal'd in vain see thee, look pale with love separate us from the l of God sets l a task like that shackles of an old l shall my sense pierce l shall set l to rhyme she bid me take l easy she never told her l shepherd grew acquainted with L she said, 'l! thee true! she whom l l is hard to catch she will l him truly shocks of young l-like show a fitter l for me show of l as l was wont to have shows of l to other men side-long looks of l sighed for the l of a lady silence was the song of l since I am l's martyr singularly moved to l the lovely sit with my l in the hay society, friendship, and l so dear l l him so faithful in l soft eyes looked l so ill-bred as to l a husband so many times do l l thee some are fou o' l divine some l but little policy some obscure episodes of l something to l he lends so sweet l seemed so true a fool is l sows what L shall never reap speak low, if you speak l 'spirit' of power and of l spirit l gushed from my heart still make l anew stony limits cannot hold l out stories of thy hnt l study the way to l each other substance of his house for l such was l's wry such I account thy l sweetest l, I do not go sweet is true l sweets and the bitters of l tale of l and languishment tell him, that I am sick of l tell me, my heart if this be l tell the lady our l tell this youth what 'tis to l tell us how they l us thank the Lord, for all His L that l's cause, pass on that l my never cease that my love is weak and faint the fool of l their l may be called appetite their tales of l shall tell the last flower of Catholic l the l bore to learning the l of l
 the l of the turtle the l that lingers there the l that loves a scarlet coat the l that moves the sun there shall doth us bind then must the L be great then they dream of l the prize of learning l therefore I l l there is no fear in l there my dear l sits him down there shall be no l lost the right true end of l the service of my l the wise want l they all l Jack they happy are, and that they l they l need who quail as they they l the better still 29a

they shall prosper that l thee they sin who tell us l can die this bud of l tho' I knew His l Who followed tho' last, not least in l tho' l repine, and reason chafe those that l them that l those those who l want wisdom those who l you well thou art goodly, O l thou art l and lifel thou dravest l from thee thou dost l cd never change thou hast left thy first l thou knowest that l l thee thou shalt l and be loved by thou shalt l thy neighbour thro' l's long residence thro' l, thro' hope thro' our l that we have loved thy l is better than wine thy l to me was wonderful thy l was far more better thy sweet l remembered till l and fame to nothingness I time was when L, l
 'tis brief, my lord As woman's l to all who l him to be wise and cke to l to be wise, and l to be wroth with one we l to live is like l to l, and bear to l and be loved by me to l and to cherish to l a woman for singing to l, cherish and to obey to l but a liberal education to l him as myself to l is wise to l one maiden only to l with zealous humble duty to l was pleasant to l, my l, I hate, and L to see her as to l her to see her was to l her to the seat where l is throned true life is only l true L, in this differs from gold true l sitting down to breakfast trust that thou l turning mortal for thy l two fond hearts in equal l type of true l kept under under a canopy of l virginity first l's first cry wait her l to come again waly, waly gun l be bonnie wander hand in hand with l was not this l indeed? we all l a pretty girl we have seen thee, O l well dost thou, L we being in l we l but while we may we l, Tool, for the good we do we l our House of Peers we're far from the lips we l Werther and a l for Charlotte we serve, because we freely l what a mischievous devil L is what is l? It is a pretty thing what is l? 'tis not hereafter what lady wd not l a shepherd what l I bore to thee what l is it thou wdst be taught what l of thine own kind? what thing is l what we have loved, others will l when l l thee not, chaos is com when l begins to sicken when l grows diseased when l is done when l is grown to ripeness when L speaks when L with unconfin'd wings when my l swears when one is in l where l must not marry where l marry, cannot l where I is great where my L abideth while we can, the sports of I who gave that I sublime whom having not seen, ye I whom the gods I die young Whose I will never die willing to I all mankind with a I I seemed to love with all their quantity of I with all thy faults I I thee still with I brooding there with music sweet as I without I, hatred, joy, or fear with their I the breath between woman's friendship ends in I women passions vanity and I words of I then spoken wouldn't be too ladylike in I yea, I'm in I, I feel it now yet I'll her till I die 156a, yet I'll that too 383b you did all I him 390a you'll I me yet! 50a you made me I you 256a you must I him ere to you you must sit down, says L you (my L) as high as Heaven yr true I's coming 370b youth means I 51a you who do not I her you wonder why, I you you, you wonder why I none Love-adapt dreaming like a I Love-adventure shd be lost Loved all we I of him shd be better I yr canna be better I you'll never be better to have I and lost but I have I too long Dante, who I will daughter wh he I passing well 112b ever I that I not at first sight 259a, 127a for some we I, the loveliest God so I the world 153b had we never I see blindly had we never I see kindly had you I me once 424a hiving I this present world heart that his truly I he had I her love 160a how I, how honoured once I I I you will 423a

 I have I long since 288b
 I have I thee, Ocean 60b
 I have not I the world
 I I a lass, a fair one
 I I her that she did pity I I him for him'd I
 I I him not 241a
 I I thee once 12a
 I I the man on this side idoltry 211b I never I a love but one I never I a true or flower 75b, 282a I only know we I in vain 72b I saw and I 101b
 I that I and you that liked I that I thee since my day 439a I wd love infinitely, and be I I keep our I ones, now far absent known and I so long 365b Iavinu therefore must be I life have we I 284a Lol some we I, the lovhest I and still loves 310a
 I at home, revered abroad 59b I not wisely but too well 304b I lovers shd be I again 198b I the sorrows of your face I when all was young 226a I yr beauty with love false many I yr moments of grace men that I you well 284a might she have I me? most he I a happy human face most I, despised 341b never the time and the I one never to have been I never to have I at all 430a nor no man ever I 389a

 Lord, what is a I 105b
 I and sensualist 185b
 I forsaken a new love may get 450a I of life shall join the hater 171b I of literature never fastidious 407a I's ears will hear the lowest 345a

I's eyes will gaze an eagle 345a maguette's penpathe I 165b muck I of the good 146a my fause I stole my rose 63b O all the plagues a I bears 450a O I hate I that can dare 104b
 O Lord, thou I of souls 520a O of my life I 517b one was round her I 257b on her I's arm she leant 426b paler Titan-woman like a I 421a resolve the propositions of a I 327a run into 't as to a I's bed 324b sad true I never find my grave 371a she was a true I 471a slide into a L's head 458b smile, for yr I comes 139a some sad I's death 159b stray to some newer I 416a such a constant I 159a suffering is the I's part 133b talk with some old I's ghost 248b tell her, her I keeps watch 357b the I, all as frantic 344b the I fingers and sings 416b the I's sad to death 326b the I sighing like a furnace 326b the lunatic, the I, and the poet 257b truest I of a sinful man 77a when they have slain her I 318a where shall the I rest 416a why so pale and wan, fond I? 70b woman loves her I 320a Lovers all I young, all I must 257b all ye that be I call 92a almighty I in the spring 305a at I am all true I are 154b at I perjuries Love laughs 73b even I find their peace at last 370b hour when I vows seem sweet 141a journeys end in I meeting 357b love but laughs at I's perjury 362b I absent hours, more tedious 281b I are round her, sighing 353b I cannot find the pretty folks 101b I hours be full eternity 341a I in peace, land on our days 198b I lying two and two 108b I shd be loved again 357b I, to bed 312a
 I who have cherished still 298b like two I happy 132b must pure I's souls descend 364b night by night thro I's brains 6a not the nectarous poppy I use 454b old I are soundest 317b O I's eyes are sharp 105b one makes I as one pleases 51b quarrels of I are the renewal 365b sound I's tongues by night 327b sweet I love the spring 221b these I fled away 134a to thy motions I seasons run? 59a true I I see many 126a we that are true I 426a what need I wish for more? 242a where the I eloped in the dark 431b young I lately wed 51b Loves all I except what trades can 70b give 421a all shd I is love 423b all strange I are over 71a all the wings of the L 467a amatory poets sing their I 416b any savoring of I 260a ar'n't that I I the fox less 281b as truly I on to the close 530a a-waiting for their ain dear I 322a each man kills the thing he I 408b every man I what he is good at 416a faithful I shall moralize my song 262a foxhound and I I him at once 100a friends and I we have none 177b he I his bonds 46a her that each I best 145b if country I such sweet desires 46a if our I remain 145b I have reigned with yr I 52b I like him, but he I me 52b

Montmorenci monstrous steep of M 220b Montreal Oh God! Oh M 67a the gospel of M 67a Mont Saint Jean seems Cain 71b Monument an early but enduring m 392a ask where is his m 558b from off the M l 19b grave shall have a living m 336b if you wd see his m 473b in this shaft find thy m 359a like the M 206b patience on a m 371a thou art a m, without a tomb 216a you ask for his m 407b Monuments gilded m of princes 387b Mood albeit unused to the melting in 364a her most exalted m 470a in that sweet m 471a in this m will give us anything 340b in vacant or in pensive m 407b listening m, she sculd'd to stand that blessed m 472a that strain was of a higher m woman in her sulks m 428b Moods m of slow exultation unfit contrarious m 409b Moon a climbing m an empty sky a huge halt in 378a a hush with the setting m a m that was the town's and a white m beams 434a and face the m 92b and the m 'be still as bright and the m was full 225b an isle and a sickle m 155a a Sussex m, untravell'd still auld m in her arm 92b baies her bosom to the m 530a be a dog, and bay the m 473a beams of the watery m 356b behold the wandering m 268a beneath a wining m was haunted beneath the harvest m 101a beneath the lightning and the M beneath the visting m 131a between the horns of the moon blow them to the m 99a bowl goes trim The m doth shine bri'f the m of bcuty 324b brilliant m and all the milkly sky by the light of the m 416b by yonder blessed m I swear city had no need of the m come from the dying m 426a course of one revolving m danced by the light of the m 138b danced the m on Monon's rill dancing spectre scums the m do I carry the m in my pocket? drew my bride, beneath the m dwellth i' the cold o the m each paved with the m 45b fair as the m 391a follow still the changes of the m God Himself is m and sun 500b hang them on the horns o' the m hcr solemn bud and thus fair m honour from the pile tied m horned M, with one bright star hymns to the cold fruitless m if the m shine at full or no 365b if the Sun and M shd doubt I had had an affar with the m I saw the new m litc 411a it is the m, I ken her horn 530a it is the very error of the m it was when the m was setting Lady M, Lady M 61b lo, the m's self 301b lucent as a rounded m minions of the m 49a in and stars thou hast ordained m doth shine at bright as day 250b m doth with delight 376b m for certain seasons 482a M, in the valley of Ajalon 534b m is my sister 466a m is on the wave 488b m may draw the sea 404b M of Heaven is rising 436b

Moon (cont)
 M of my Delight 154a m on my left 26b m, or the stars, be not darkened 409b m plucked at my rein 475a m, rising in clouded majesty 274a m shines bright on Mrs Porter 140b m shows we did not see the candle 355b m sits artless 275a m sleeps with Endymion 355b m stands blank above 190a m, sweet regent of the sky 265b m under her feet 510a m was a ghostly gallion 290a m was shun'd clearly 415a mortal m hath her eclipse 388b neither the m by night 489b new m she saw not 218b no bigger than the M 98b no sun--no m l 105a now the m walks the night 119b on whom the pale m gleams 201a owl does to the m complain 174a O yonder is the m 445a perturbed m of Uranus 294b roaring m of daffodi and crocus 435b saw the m from Sussex downs 44a set on fishing up the m 295b shines the m in clouded skies 425b shining to the quiet m 101a shoots higher threatens the m 186b the silent as the m 277b silver apple of the m 360b sliver'd in the m's eclipse 476a stain both m and sun 322a sun and m, rejoice b'fore Him 287b sun, m, and stars, brother 34a swear not by the m 305a swifter than the wending m 357a the co'umped over the m 534a the glimpses of the m. 331a the innocent m 443a the m is up 69a the m's beauty m's soft pace 469b the m, the governess of floods 356b the m works 362a the moving M went up the sky 99a the slow m climbs 419a two red roses across the m. 284b under the cold, white m 181b under the solitary m 8a upon the corner of the m 144b very wide awake the m and I 145b vitreous pour of the full m 458b when the m shall rise 473b when the m was blood 92a when the m was overhead 431b whom mortals call the m 391a wind up the sun and m 74b with how sad steps, O M 401b wolf b'lowls the m 157b yonder wan and horned m 193b yon rising M that looks for us 154a Moonbeam the sad m 35b Moonbeams m from His eye 35b the m kiss the sea 395b Moonlight as m unto sunlight 412b fox jumped up on i m night 533a how sweet the m sleeps 355a look for me by m 290a meet me by m alone 462a m in his room 201b under the m still 226a visit it by the pale m 317a Moonlit hark! from that cedar 7a Moons new m and sabbaths 501a not many m gone by 321b restless m but m not hers 192a Moonshine by m do the ringlets make 367b collars of the m's wtery beams 364b m 'n' snow on field 250b transcendental m 81a Moon-struck madness 276b Moon-washed apples 137b Moor awav! the m is dark 399a claps of a lascivious m 359b falls on the m the brief day 224a feed and batten on this m 375a gentle lady married to the M 406b make the M thank me, love me 361a

Night (cont)

this ac n this n is but the daylight this n shall be born this n thy soul shall be required this passing n was heard tho' thou be black as n thou and I this n main age 'Throne behold of N primaevial thro' the empty-vaulted n thro' the foul womb of n thro' the n of doubt and sorrow 'Thy tempests fall all n ure the n in thought
 'tis a naughty n to swim in toiling upward in the n touch of Harry in the n trailing grumts of the N trip we after the n's shade 'twas the n before Christmas vile contagion of the n walks in beauty, like the n war's annals will cloud into n watchman, what of the n? watch that ends the n waters on a starry n we have toiled all the n what hath n to do with sleep? what is the n when N is nigh when N is on the hills when she deserts the n when the face of n is fur with-taking time of n with us perpetual n womb of uncreated n world will be in love with n wd not spend another such a n 'Yes, I answered you last n yet it is not n you meager beauties of the n Night-air into the fresh n again Nightcap a n ducked his brows bring his n with him Nightcaps heads all in n Night-dress lectures in her n Nighted cast by colour off Night-flies hush'd up with buzzing n Nightgown downstarts in his n enter Cesar in his n Nightingale all but the wakeful n bright n amorous crave the tuneless N Earls ah, the N hundred-throated n
 I the n all spring thro' it was the n my n, we have beat them newe abayssed n N cries to the Rose n does sit so late n, if we shd sing by day n in the sycamore n's high note is heard n sings round it N that in the branches sang no music in the n O n, that on you bloomy spray O 'tis th' ravish'd n ourr you as 'twere any n save the n alone sings as sweetly as a n spoils the singing of the n the n's complaint where the n doth sing whither doth haste the n Nightingales n are singing near till the n applauded told by Eve's n where the n are singing Nightly to the listening Earth Night-mare Life-in-Death Night-rack came rolling up Night's Chequer-board of N and Days chill thy dreaming n fled Him, down the n God makes sech n love not such n as these misery makes Alcmena's n are lang and mirk

Pause (cont)

must give us p nor made a p, nor left a void p, and puff and p again p in the day's occupations p there, Morocco Pauses intervals and happy p Pavement a p of pearl arcs and the p thy cold p were a sod the p of her Heaven Pavements on the p gray p fanged with stones riches of heaven's p Pavilion p of Heaven is bare red p of my heart?
she did lie in her p Pavilioned in splendour Paving-stones on these gritty p Pavours the p cry Paw in his p, dandled the kid save free conscience from the p the grim wolf with privy p Pawth he p in the valley Pawing to get free Pawnee the pretty P Paws massive p of elder persons Pax vobiscum! will answer all Pay bloom'n good p clean work, and for what p credit's sake, and p, p, p cut each others' throats for p dirty work, and for what p envy's a sharper spur than p forebore to p in heavenly p a glorious angel I p thy poverty, and not thy will I was to p the piper I will p thee all make me able to p for it more tears than you shall see me p now I must p for my fun p for one by one p me that thou owest p too much for yr whistle speak the sum of things for p you shdst vow and not p wh I new p as if not paid when will you p me?

Pest but one split p Peace alail my everlasting p is broken all her paths are p a moth of p angling begat habits of p a p I hope with honour arts of war and p author of p beyond these voices there is p but they are in p by the p among our peoples calm P and Quiet cankers of a long p certain knot of p chastisement of our p come ye in p here deep dream of p even lovers find their p exceeding p had made Ben Adhem far our foes, give p at home fear, and p and strife for ever hold his p

Peace (cont)

I came not to send p if these shd hold their p if thou return at all in p I labour for p increase of his government and p ingeminate the word P in His will is our p in p Love tunes the shepherd's in p there's nothing so becomes in p thinks of war I shall have some p there is it p? And Jehu said I speak of p it's interest that keeps p kiss our lady P at home laughing heart's long p less of it is p in Shelley's mind let us have p love, joy, p, long-suffering lovers in p, lead on our days make wilderness call it p makes a solitude, calls it p! mangled P, dear nurse of arts men so old as we to keep the p merry songs of p mountains shall bring p my p is gone never was a good war, or a bad p nor keep p between the effect nor p within nor calm around not p at any price nymphs P and Plenty O eastern start! p p!
of p for evermore O heart, be at p on earth p, good will our feet into the way of p our, our fearful innocence over all the mountain tops is p p about all earthly dignities p, and the butt p be to my sable shroud p be to this house p be within thy walls p brooded o'er the hush'd domain p comes away p comes dropping slow p divine like quiet night p does nothing to relieve peaceful sloth, not p p, good pint-port p hath her victories p in her chamber p instead of death let us bring p in thy breast!
p is come and wars are over p is in the grave pleasing p stole on me p o' both yr houses p of all cowards p of sighing and grief the red p rid you thou! any p, or trouble Plagued monster that has p the nations Plagues add unto him the p of all the p a lover bears two main p and common dotages Plaguing charges of p in a handsome way Plain beneath the tartan p my p to the angry air Plain as on a darkling p base as is the lowly p delicate p, called Ease gleamed upon the glassy p great Grombolian p he will make it p Homer is eminently p and direct I'm not so old, and not so p instead of p and sere it's flat and p knight was pricking on the p noddling o'er the yellow p, once more reach that p p man in his p meaning penny p and twopence coloured stretched upon p that p was but narrow the way is all so very p virtue is best p set Waterloo's ensanguined p waveless p of Lombardy Plainly and more plainly Planness perfect p of speech Plains by thousands on her p her silver-mantled p p of pleasant Hertfordshire ringing p of wandry Troy whiten the green p under Plain-speaking with Mr Snagsby Plant tease her with our p Plasters for wh there are no p Plan fulfils great Nature's p joined in the p mighty maze! but not without a p nothing rest on its original p p pleased his childish thought some usefu' p or beuk the simple p, that they shd take this was still his simple p Plancus when P was consul Planet born under a rising p new p swims into his ken

Planet (cont)

p of Love is on high p's tyrant, dotard Death p Venus gone on business ever wand'ring p s course while Jove's p rises Planetary stops of p music Planets other p circle other suns p, filled with Stargyrites p in their radiant courses p, let's hang strod then no p strike the p, and thus centre the p, in their turn with p in His care Plank have to swab a p Planned perfect woman, nobly p Plans hopeful p to emptiness p credit and the Muse Plant an orange-tree, that busy p fix'd like a p green p growth, menacing love us a p O woked, wicked p Sensitive P in a garden grew Plantagenet thy rose a thorn, P Plantation longing for de old p Planted I have p, Apollo's watered Plants grow up as the young p like p in mines p did spring p suck in the earth to his music p and flowers upon his own vine what he p Plastic dance of p circumstance Plat of rising ground Plat. of turk. green Plates dropp'd from his pocket Platform half the p just reflects the p, 'twixt eleven and twelve Platonic bullets made of p Plato attachment a la p Caesar's hand and P's brain dozen persons who read P lend an ear to P P is never sullen P's retirement
P the wise P thou reasonest well taught out of the rule of P unsphere the spirit of P Plats the manes of horses Platter cleanly on the board licked the p clean no account of the p after it Plautus too light Play actions that a man might p a little work, a little p an hour to p as children with their p better than a p but better at a p by a good author, it's a good p come ye here to p?
every day, for food or p everything that heard him p far p of the British liw for once had p unstick'd full crafter to p girls and boys come out to p good p needs no epilogue guilty creatures sitting it a p hear thy discourse than see a p his p is always fair I cannot p alone
I doubt some folk p I shd like so much to p is there no p, to ease the anguish judge not the p before p be done learned to p when he was young little Arthur wants to p may be p to you, 'tis death to us multitude can p upon it or a' the p was played our p is done our p is played out p by thee, bathe in me p out the p p up! and p the gamel

Play (cont)

p with him as with a bird seven up and six to p sick much so nicely the p is done the p pleas'd not the million the p's the thing turn us out to p what to say about a p witty prologue to a dull P yct cannot p well you cannot p upon me young barbarians all at p you wd p upon me Playbill tragedy of Hamlet Playbills no time to read p Played he p at the glove he p so truly if thus were p upon a stage now I have p the fool p by somebody I do not know Played-Out I am also called P Playcast thou p most foully Player he the best p! like a strutting p p on the other side is hidden poor p, that struts and frets Players many of your p do lenten entertainment the p receive men and women merely p one of these harlotry p p in yr housewifery the p have often mentioned it will you see the p well bestowed?

Playfellow my p, yr hand Play-house you and every p boy Playing ever amid our p I hear p of the merry organ the purpose of p Playing fields of Eton Playmates I have had p Play-place of our early days Plea began of our p can boast wit he loves no p, as thou dost old p few to disgust p, in the many games of life Playing a little p-house green thought in a green s hawthorn bush a sweeter s he is old and she a s his steadfast s sleeps I bear light s in s of Lempe sit narrow verged s no s, no shine November! old sit under the s of it pillared s high overarched present hour marked with s. s and shadow and mire s of His hand s of melancholy boughs s of that wh once was great s of the old apple-tree s that follows wealth or fame sitting in a pleasant s sitting in the s sly s of a Rural Dean song, or fleeting s vois memorial in the s wander't in his s Shades chase the trembling s. away doful s far are the s of Arabia life is full of s fled the s of night home to s of under ground I have lived with s so long mingle s of joy and woe Oh, happy s—to me unblest s did hide her s of night were falling fast s of the prison-house till the s lengthen where s of darkness Shadow but s s bias cattle s of the British oak daisy, by the s that it casts double, swan and s dream itself is but s earth be but the s of Heaven fellow s hence, horrible s! hude, me under the s, of thy wings in the s of the hill it is but a s's life, is but the s of death life's but a walking s light but the s of God like a vast s moved man walketh in a van s neither s of turning on the earth the s of three or s of felicity out-soared the s of our night saw the lion's s er himself S doaked from head to foot s of a glorious name s of a great rock S of shadows on the deed s of s of unseen Power s of the dome of pleasure s of the steeple s of the Valois s of Thy wing s to s, well persuaded ship's huge s lay substance that s seem'd treads the s of his foe unhappy s vagus s of surmise with colour and with s yr s at evening Shadowless like Silence Shadows are s, not substantial beckoning s dire best in this kind are but s come the s of us men come like s, so depart! events cast their s before half sick of s individuals pass like s millions of strange s no s great appear of their s deep our fate scattering of all s

Sing (cont)

s no sad songs for me s of her with falls s 'Kulla-lo-lo' s —a —Music was given s them loud ev'n s the savageness out of a bear s thou smoothly s together, ye waste places s to the Lord with cheerful voice s unto the Lord a new song s us one of the songs s, while the hours follow s, ye gentle maidens s, ye heavens, and earth reply s did she s s still wdst thou s s swans s before they die s then they began to s s to Silvia let us s s to s them too s used to s in the water s we two alone will s s we will s one song s when he did s s when you s, I'd have you buy s whilst thou I s, I am a King s wrong to s Singe it do s yourself Singed the beard of the Bishop Singing King of Spain's heard Singer after the s is dead s he, the s, passes s idle s of an empty day s low as the s lies s none hear beside the s s O S of Persephone s in France of old s of sweet Colonus s the music-hall s thine ear against the s s thou the s, I the song! s when the s sings them s youngest to the oldest s Singers s also and trumpeters s go before s sweetest of all s Singeth with her breast Singing angels s out of tune s carry up this corpse, s together s I am sick of s s love a woman for s s Master of all s s now the time of s s parted those who are s to-day s poured the deathless s s as they shine s in the Wilderness s of birds is come s of Mount Abora s so rarely s startle the dull night s still dost soar s to Father, Son s will never be done s stute of s s suddenly burst out s s sweet s in the choir s there is delight in s s waves of thy sweet s s ye have a s face Singing-boys ex little S Singst as a s I am not a success Single careless of the s life s deepest still is s s forever 'tis a word! s in s blessedness s married to a s life s nothing in the world is s s life doth well with churchmen s thralldom
s wish I were s again Single-hearted grown s Singly who s hast maintained Sings another Orpheus s s Christian while he s s grove he s in now s he s, and he s s in his motion like an angel s s no pang the while she s s for his supper

s slow s, more lovely ere his race Sinners against thee only have I s s Father, I have s against heaven s for all have s s havc yr s one sin s more s against than sinning Sinner I of her s s s joy over one s that repentth s merciful to me s s s one sin will destroy a s s Papist, saint or s s say, poor s, lov'st thou me?
Sinners but s to repentance s catch with publicans and s? s for we are s all s God and s reconciled s greatest saints and s

Sleep (cont.)

s, can get nane s in dull cold marble s in one another's arms s in spite of thunder s in the affliction s in the night s is a death [s as] in fine, so like death s is sweet to the labouring man s ! it is a gentle thing s, lest thou in smoky cribs s like a top s not sound, as sweet s of a labouring man s on, blest pair s one ever-during night s on my Love in thy cold bed s, O s, with thy rod s out this great gap of time s, pretty wantons, do not cry s rock thy brain s shall neither night nor day s shall obey me s s no softer s that is among the lonely hills s to hew and hack when everyone is s Someone s had blundered s somewhere sings about the sky Somerset rose a canker, s Something driving rapidly from s have to say s I too will s make know s of everything s attempted, s done s conversed about to be s in a flying horse s in its depths doth glow s in it, tricks and all s in this more than natural s rich and strange s, s that replies s there is moves me to love s there is do can't love a wall s too much of this s very like Him s wicked this way comes s will come of this that s still with prompts th' sigh time for a little s 'tis s, nothing when there's s doing Sometimes s coming, s coy s this, and s that Somewhere to say unto thee Somewhere I came by s the sun is shining that truth lies s woman, behold thy s I worthy to be called thy s you r tardy s to chide Song acquaints his soul with s after all an earthly s a goodly manor for a s Alexandrine ends the s all this for a s an old s made by an aged as it were a new s be the morn of s breeze of s bright names will hallow s brotherhood in s but their low, lone s but weigh this s with the great civil at her s conspiracy of our spacious s end of ane old s fable, s or fleeting shade followed by a sacred s ful w'l she s the service glorious the s God who best taught s great her with his s heard in tale or s hear we these monks' s her sympathy and s his s of love hopped with his s I have a s to sing O!

I hav, no s to give you I made another s in England s s for ever is it accepted of S?
I the s dark becomes a sightless s lasting is the s lightnings of his s melancholy out of a s metre of an antique s middle of my s morning star of s most topical s my S, I fear thou wilt find my vision with the s never go beyond a s never may I commence my s new s's measure no man cl'd learn that s no sorrow in thy s oaten stop, or pastoral s old and antique s one grand sweet s one s, for as in my brain I sing it only in you my s begins on the wings of s orb of s Milton our s is the voice of desire our s shall rise to Thee passage of a s penny my s pipe a simple s pipe that s again rainbow and a cuckoo's s rapid plumes of s required of us then a s roll forth my s self-same s that found a path shedding my s upon height sing a faery's s singing our s of God singing s for s sing me s bawdy s sing me s s of a lad to the s ditties of no tone unsphere the s of Plato voice did on my s fall voice my s can cheer with a joyful s I die with too much s to be at ease worse s a woman wounded s who can bear? yea, youth the S yet a s still young s' rest thee now!

 Spiriting do my s gently Spiritless degraded, s outcast!

Star (cont.)

Moon, with one bright s morning s of song named a s never s was lost here O eastern s l one s differeth from another s our life's s particular bateous s ran against a shooting s reflex of a s running stream, O morning s seen his s in the east some fostering s splendid, a s l s for every state s-inwrought s is called Wormwood s-like sparkle in their skies s nor sun shall waken s of my fate hath declined s of peace return s or two beside s, that once had shone s to every wandering bark s to guide the humble s to steer her till the s, with lessening ray s-y-pointing pyramid sunset and evening s take away that s and garter takes the s's height there s is a world there was a s danced thy soul was like a s to the charge of a s l troubling of a s twinkle, twinkle, little s unfolding s curls up shepherd vague unpunctual s youngest-teemed s zenith like a falling s Star-captains glow Star-Chamber matter of it Star-made Quintilian s on the ground I see thee s sury British s time to stand and s Stared I s into the sky s, with his foot on the prey Staring and looking upon me Star Molly S's a widow Star-led wizard s Starlight by the s, naming River floated into the frosty s s and by candlelight there was nae s Star-like from s eyes doth seek Starry this s stranger where are those s woods?
Stars all the s looked down amid a crowd of s and calculate the s and one the s and she forgot the s ask of the s in motion asks of God, but of her s as s look on the sea baths of all the western s beauty of a thousand s between me and the s blesses his s thanks it luxury blue sky belongs to [s] bright, patient s certain s shot madly close up the s continuous as the s s crowned with the s s crown of twelve s cut him out in little s Danaë to the s doubt thou the s are fire eyes were blind with s falling s are shooting far beyond the s fault s is not in our s fleet of s is anchored for mounting to the s glows in the s he made the s also

Stars (cont.)

Strife (cont)

for the sake of s graver had a s in the common s let there be no s life, in ceaseless s man of s none was worth my s nor in the s we feel benumbed or a double s O s, O curse party conquers in the s phantoms an unprofitable s serv'd for that f'lanic s soul, revolving hopeless s stern s, and carnage drear s comes with manhood s too humble s with the palm the s is o'er waters of s
what is peace? is it s? when the s is fierce

Strike Britons, s home honour, while you s if you s a child I s it, and it hurts she will s and sink s et when yr power's low s it out s thy bosom, sedge themselves must s the blow thou s not awry yet afraid to s

Strikes how it s a Contemporary s him dead for thine and thee s where it doth love String end of a golden s

String end of a golden s harp not on that s little bits of s one long yellow s sing in a hempen s strangling in a s untune that s

Strings her sighs the s do break

I had two to s my bow instrument of ten s languid s do scarcely move revivis the leaden s there are s in the human heart

Stripe for stripe

Stripes beaten with few s cut 'is a away forty s save one things worthy of s with his s we are healed

Stripling crossing the s Thames nor spear the s took Stripped when two are s Strive shd s afresh against the foe s, and hold cheap the strain s nor weep s officiously to keep alive to s, to seek

Striving to better, oft we mar

Strode after me

Stroke none so fast as no second s intend past the tyrant's s some distressful s s most dolorous tune of flutes kept s

Strokes amorous of their s little s fell great oaks Stroking me gently with the other Stroll alone through fields

Strong be s and of a good courage but s in wall cruel he looks, but calm and s faithful, s as death

Strife for strife heavens are fresh and s I again am s most exquisite and s O constancy! be s quit you like men, be s still going s

Strife against tide, th' whale s came forth sweetness s for service still

Strong (cont)

s in pursuit the rapid glede s in the horse upon his speed s men shall bow themselves s the gier-eagle s the tall ostrich s thro' the turbulent profound s without rage to keep the s in awe to suffer and be s victory is not a name s enough wants that little s we then that arc s Stronger s with weakness no s than my sex s than the hosts of error Strongest Cob was the s wine is the s Stronghold safe s our God is still turn ye to the s Strook so s with dread Strove a little still she s I s, made head

I s with none
Struck he s the top-mast I s the bow s him and dismiss'd s so to the soul Struggle alarms of s and flight sacrifice in a contemptible s say not, the s naught availth s for existence what s to escape?
Struggles and howls at fits Struggling in vain with ruthless destiny

Strumpet half some sturdy s into a s's fool most true s is a s Strumped virtue rudely s Strung with subtle-coloured hair Strunt but ye s rarely Struts s and frets his hour s his dames before Stuart's stranger filled the S' throne went out with the S Stubble base built on s showed lik a s-land sparks among the s Stubborn matters of fact s things s spearmen still made good the s they chastise too s and too strange Stubbornness impious s Stubbs footman to Justinian S most sheene is the s my s sets to rise again never assisted the s never did s more beautifully new thing under the s no need of the s nor s shall waken no s — no moon!

nothing like the s not quickened by the s o'er thee the s doth pine on wh the s never gets owes no homage to the s plants the setting s plants wh never saw the s quiet as the s rest the s goes round rime-ringed s round the setting s s vices a description of the s scarce ed see the s sca-daisies flast on the s self-same s that shines set a candle in the s shall the s light on them shall the S of righteousness arise shoots at the midday s side that's next the s smitten with the morning S somewhere the s is shining splendid silent s spots and clouds in the s study is like the heaven's s s and moon of the heart's desire s and moon, rejoice s and Moon shd doubt s and stars to play with s and the rain are flying s and the south s arisht, and they get them away s come dazzling thro' S came up upon the left s climb slow s feels like May s had risen to hear him s has left the lea s has not attr'd wh the moon s himself a fair hot wench S himself cannot forget

Sun (cont.)

422b s himself must die 78a s, imagine me the west!
306b s in dim eclipse 223b s in the lap of Thetis 98b s is laid to sleep 403a s is mount'd 312b s itself is but the dark simulacrum 180a s knoweth his going down 415a s looked over the mountain's rim 308b s, moon, and stars, brother 342a s of Austerlitz 36b s of heaven prove a micher 328b s of my soul 404a s of York 329a s shall not burn thee 595a s shims always there 529a s 's rim dips 71b s, stand thou still 100b s that warms you here 329b s thro' the mirk 289b s to me is dark 305a s upon the upland lawn 523a s was flecked with bars 43a s was laughing sweetly 177b s was shining on the sea 409a s went down stars came out 397a s, who scattered into flight 190b s will be dimmed 443b s, with ardent frown 382b swear to a touch of s 414b swartheart of the s 485b sweet tale of the s 401a that s, thine eye 76b the bloody S, at noon 353a the maturing s 91a there to s itself 326a the rising of the s 171a the s, or the light not regulated 447b the sun, the sun 70a till the s grows cold 242b time this s is set 48b tired the s with talking 444a to have enjoyed the s 472b to-morrow let my s display 409a to myself in Huncamunca's 594a to the garish s 422a under the midday s 195a up roost the s 389a up rose the s 464a was sitting in the s 37b west as the s went down 285b when soft was the s 42a when the s in bed 224a when the s rises, do you not see 49b when the s sets, shadows 421a when the s set where, werc they?
449a window where the s came 211b wind up the s and moon 467a with the dying s 400a with the s to match 311b woman clothed with the s 424a yet the early rising s 373b Sunbeams bathe in the fresh s 519a mores in the s 504b s in a winter's day 401b s quickened thee, O man 416a Sunbeams stars and s know 436a s lifted higher 181b s o'er a bed of cucumbers 457a winds and s 64a Sunburn'd sicklemen Sunday buried on S Christ's S at morn killing of a mouse on S of a S morning 300a on S heaven's gate see me on S that calm S that goes on Sundays begin a journey on S Pulpits and S
S of man's life Sundered up in the night Sunderdown splendid and serene Sunflower as the s turns S I weary of time where my S wishes to go Sung I've only s it once

T, Occasion, Chance
t of life is short t of the singing of birds t of this mortal life T plays the fiddle t remembered is grief t runs, the clock will strike T's snail
T's full hand defaced T's fleeting river T's flies t's furrows I behold t's glory is to calm t's great wilderness t shall moult away
I shall reap
I shall throw a dart t's iron feet T's noblist offspring T's prindless torso t's wheel runs back I's winged chariot
T's wrecks and scars T, that is o'er-kind t that is surely be T that takes survey T, the avenger!
t the devourer of all things I the reaper
T the Shadow
t to get them in t to be born t to win this game T travels in divers places t turns the old days T was when Love and I t we may comprehend t, when all the lights wax dim t when meadow, grove and stream t when thou mayest be found t whereof the memory of man 28b t, wh antique as antiquities t, wh the author of authors t will doubt of Rome I will run back
t with a gift of tears I writes no wrinkle t, the old gypsy man t, you thief, who love to get t's almost fairy t t's but the t t's t, descend t's t to do t t to beguile the t, look like the t t to choose t is to save t too much t in studies is sloth to remoter t bequeath to turn thow growest t turn backward, O T t unmeasurable touch of t vry age and body of the t Vintage rolling I' hath prest waiting t, my brothers wastes her t and me what t, what circuit when I, amber locks to grey when t is broke whips and scorns of t whirlwig of t who, in t, knows whither with leaden foot t creeps world enough, and t wrinkled deep in t Timely happy, timely wise Times all t when old are good coldness of the t ever lived in the tide of t form t shake hands gidder-paced t how many t do I love thee if the t do bear it my t be in Thy hand nature of the t deceased old t were changed our t are in his hand signs of the t spacious t of great Elizabeth stirring t we live in sundry t and in divers manners

Woman (cont)

only books were w's looks O w-country, wooed not wed O W! in our hours of ease perfect w, nobly planned pleasant to any sort of w poor lone w post-chase with a pretty w shallow, changing w shape of a w. has haunted me she is a w, therefore she was a worthy w silliest w manage a clever man sort of bloom on a w so unbecoming to a w so unto the man is w speaks small like a w still be a w to you still gentler sister w such a w oweth to her husband such beauty as a w's eye take a mere beggar-w that made a w cry thit princely w the female w there shone one w the rib made lie a w the wickedness of a w the w died also the w's a whore the w's deaf, and does not hear they are neither man nor w think myself a very bad W
 'tis brief as w's love
 'tis w, w, rules us still to a w not to show weakness tongue good when it a'taw's to play the w torrent of a w's will uncommon pretty young w untimely fruit of a w very honest w given to lie virtuous w is a crown vitality in a w was never yet fair w weak and feeble w what is better than a good w what is w? agreeable blunders what w, however old who can find a virtuous w? whose heaven shd be true W who takes a w must be undone who to a w trusts wicked w liberty to gad abroad wilt thou have this w wine, w, and song w among all those not found w as old as she looks w, behold thy son!
 w clothed with the sun w for the hearth w gained by every sort of flattery
 w, gentle w dare w had a bottom of good sense w hath found him already w having an alabaster box w in her selfless mood W, in the lofty character of Wife w in this humour wooed w is a dish for the gods w is a puzzle to me w is at heart a rake w in his game w is only a w w is so hard upon the w w is the lesser man W last thing civilized by Man w like a dew-drop w, lovely w, does the same w loves her lover w may marry whom she likes w moved is like a fountain w must wear chis w of so shining loveliness w said when she kissed her cov w's at bust a contradiction w sat in unwomanly rags w's cause is man's w's desire is rar'd, other w seldom asks advice

w's faith, and w's trust w's friendship ever ends in love w's happiest knowledge w's mind oft shifts w's reason to say w's whole existence w that deliberates is lost w that Lord Brutus took to wife w to obey w true and fair w waiting for her demon lover w wakes to love w well-reputed, Cato's daughter w what have I to do with thee? w I when I behold thee flippant w who did not care w who lived in a shoe w whom thou gavest with me w who wd tell ont that w, wine and song w with the heart w with the West in her eyes w yet think him an angel wiser spirit a w colour'd ill wd it not grieve a w yet a w too yr wish is w to win Woman'd see me w Woman-head more than one a bed Womanhood good, heroic w w and childhood fleet Womankind admire of w but one faith in w I do think better of w packs off its w the pink o' w worst he can of w Womanly now is pure w so w, her denouncing Womb chaste lady's pregnant w his mother's w untimely ripped immensity in thy dear w into her w convey sterility like a child from the w making their tomb the w sadder than the Nubian w teeming w of royal kings the grave, and the barren w w of nature perhaps her grave w of uncreated night Women Achilles among w alas! the love of w all w become like their mothers all w born are so perverse among thy honourable w are not w truly, then shadows as the weird w promised beautiful w of antiquity because w have cancers blessed art thou among w by bad w been deceived by subtleties these w ariel cry of w rose dead dead w, with such har devil wd have him about w England is a paradise for w experience of w many nations fairest among w fears than wars or w have framed to make w false from w's eyes this doctrine happiest w have no history hard for w to keep counsel her w fair, her men robust in the room the w come and go in w cd be fair I must have w in w, two almost divide Italy a hell for w jewels make w fat or thin Kent, sir hops and w lamps shone o'er far w learn about w from'er learned about w from'er Legend of Good W let us have wine and w let yr w keep silence like w's letters in the postscript lost and worn, than w are loved many strange w

Women (cont)

Marty, pity w men and w with our race men in w do require men that w marry men, w, and clergymen Monstrous Regiment of W my fifty men and w not deny'n the w are foolish old w (of both sexes) one of Shakespeare's w opinion of the generality of w other w cloy the appetites other w know so much passing the love of w practise with men and w proper function of w say that I know w seven w take hold of one man several virtues liked several w shame for w to speak sick of the hired w some w 'll stay in a man's memory souls of w are so small sweet is revenge, especially to w there be w, fair as she there's w whom in w these, tell-tale w though w are angels tide in the affairs of w to passionate w if it seem 'twixt w's love, and men's two main plagues wine and w uniform work its way with the w wage no war with w were w never so fair were w never so false we submit to w so where w walk in public wh w don't understand with w the heart argues w and care and trouble W, and Champagne, and Bridge w and elephants never forget W and Horses and Power w and music - may be dated w and wine shd life employ w are angels, wooing w are a sex by themselves w are like tricks w are mostly troublesome cattle w are so simple to other war W are strongest w can true converts make w care more for a marriage w come out to cut up w desyrn to have sovereignty w do in men require w guide the plot w have an entertaining tattle w have but two passions w hav' no characters at all w labouring of child w more like each other than men w must be half-workers w must weep w never look so well w of good carriage w, then, are only children w who love their lords w, worst and best you shd be w
 Won baffled oft is ever w I am too quickly w
 I've w! I've w!
 I've w others to sin nothing that nor w not that you w or lost other palms are w she is w! we are gone she w, and Cupid blind did rise some say that we w spirit in wh thy are w where will new w why, having w her woman in this humour woman, therefore may be w woman, therefore to be w Wonder all a w and a wild desire all the w that wd be Wonder (cont.)

around the w grew 199a common w of all men 424a did w more and more 108b great w in heaven 519a in w love and praise 2a I w, by my troth 131a
I w what you are 425a I w what you're at 32a mournful that no new w betide 427b 'no w,' said the lords 425b one w at the least 259b seek no w but the human face 218a the w grew 168b to work a w, God wd have 101a we w at ourselves 402a
